WE HAVE again to thank our esteemed young friends, M. M. QUINN & BRO., for late files of Southern paper. Those of our friends who desire Georgia, or any of the Southern or Southwestern journals, can find them at the up-town news depot.

WE ARE requested to announce that the following messages are at the Telegraph office, awaiting a better address:

P. H. MOORE, S. HOLZMAN, J. W. ROUSE, JAMES MURRY, JAMES ROSENTHAL, IRRIGADIER-GENERAL J. S. LITTLEFIELD, and Ben Wuntley, Secretary.

REMOVAL.—Mr. BROOKINGS, gas fitter and plumber, has removed to No. 216 King street, between Broad and Queen.

AT an extra meeting of the Marion Fire Engine Company, held at their Hall on the 8th of December, Mr. F. E. MICHEL was unanimously elected President of the company.

AT a regular communication of Pythagorean Lodge No. 21, A. F. M., held on Thursday evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing Masonic year, viz:

Brother J. G. MARTIN, W. M. Brother C. E. CHICHESTER, S. W. Brother F. HORSLEY, J. W. Brother R. H. McDOWELL, Treasurer. Brother M. HONAN, Secretary. Brother R. D. HOLLAND, S. D. Brother T. N. SLAWSON, J. D. Brother HENRY MEYER, Tyler.

COTTON BROKER.—Our young friend, Mr. A. M. MORELAND, has established himself in this business at No. 5 Broad-street, where he will attend to all the duties incident to it, with his usual energy and promptness.

HAVING had occasion to employ Mr. H. BLIN, carpenter and cabinet maker, No. 46 Market-street, to make for THE DAILY NEWS several racks, standing galleys, and other things much needed, and which are generally obtained at the North, we mention, for the benefit of other offices who may need his services, that he has completed his work in a most faithful and beautiful style—the articles being as finely constructed as any we have ever seen, and reflecting great credit upon him as an artisan. Mr. BLIN also attends to carving and turning.

THE CONCERT of MR. O'NEALE and MRS. BAILEY.—One of the most pleasant times that we have ever passed, was on last Wednesday evening, at Hibernian Hall, where we enjoyed, for some two hours, the concert of these gifted performers. The Hall was very well attended, and we were gratified to see so many familiar faces that used, in times past, to be always present on such occasions, and whose appearance was a guarantee of the talent of the artists. Upon this evening, while the performers possess acknowledged ability, they both seemed to be in better voice than usual, and there was a pleasing vivacity about them that created a general agreeability, which tended to improve their efforts and increase the delight of the audience. The pieces selected showed great taste, and the style and manner of the execution of all of them were unsurpassable, most especially the duet from Don Pasquale, which, we think, could not be excelled. We are strongly under the impression that another concert from these parties, given at an early day, would be pleasing to the public and beneficial to the performers, and we beg that they will take the matter into consideration.

The band of the 47th Penn. were in attendance, and, as usual, played delightfully.

MONKEY SHOW.—We have been to what is improperly called a monkey show; improperly, inasmuch as there is no monkey there. It is a sort of cosmorama exhibition, with a spice of a menagerie (if we may coin a word) embellishment. The price of admission is 25 cents, and the thing is worth about one-tenth of the money. This, however, is none of our business; but we are going to speak of something that is everybody's business. We don't mind the monkey-less monkey show in doors. If people are fools enough to go in, it is nothing to us; but we don't approve of grinding a squeaking hand-organ in the streets, attracting a crowd of apparently several thousand negroes, who obstruct the sidewalks in their enthusiastic admiration of the horrible hand-organ. Have your monkey shows if you must, but "keep off the sidewalks." The monkey show establishment is in Market-street, between King and Meeting streets.

THREBDELL'S OYSTERS.—We dropped in, yesterday, at the Southern Exchange, corner of Market street and King, for the purpose of discussing the merits of some magnificent oysters, samples of which beckoned to us temptingly from the window. After the discussion was ended, we mentally pronounced them first-rate, and drew forth our pocket-book to settle up. To our great surprise, the gentlemanly proprietor refused to take our money. Fearing that a counterfeit shillinger had crept into our possession, or that we had, in mistake, mixed up our greenbacks with some relics of Confederate money, we examined the cash. We soon, however, were made aware that, in the openness of his heart and opening of his oysters, our friend intended to stand treat. This warmed our heart, and makes us take pleasure in chronicling the fact that the Southern Exchange is the only place in the city where THREBDELL'S oysters are on hand, and adding, moreover, that these oysters are hard to beat and first-rate to eat.

VON SANTEN'S BAZAAR.—This splendid establishment is now fully supplied with all those elegant articles that one looks for on the approach of Christmas, either to make as presents to the children or bestow, as gifts, to interesting young ladies. The boys, too, can be gratified to the fullest extent by purchasing any kind of fire-works they may desire, and can agitate the nerves of grandmothers by the explosion of torpedoes, or please their own visions by gazing at the different-colored fires that burst from a fire-wheel. The grown people, also, can be admirably suited with anything which they may feel a wish for, and it will certainly exhibit a want of wisdom in any purchaser who may go out to buy, with reference to the approaching holidays, and does not make VON SANTEN'S BAZAAR the depot for the distribution of his funds. All who desire to furnish the most perfect happiness at home, and see their children with brightened eyes and smiling lips, rejoicing at the return of another Christmas, must pay an early visit to No. 290 King street, the present headquarters of the patron saint of the little ones.

PERSONS subject to nervousness and indigestion, so annoying and troublesome, will find Marsden's Pectoral Balm a positive cure, pleasant to the taste, and certain in giving relief.

PRIZES THEM HIGHLY.—Mrs. S. A. ALLEN'S World's Hair Restorer and Zylolalaminum or Hair Dressing, are prized highly by all who use them. Careful study and experience has made them what they are acknowledged in foreign countries as well as at home, the only valuable preparation for restoring, invigorating, beautifying and dressing the hair. Those who use them have no grey hair or bald spots. Every Druggist sells them. 13

THE TEETH often Die 1 ing before the system loses the youthful vigor. This should not be so. To prevent this species of norosis use Fragrant Hoaxodent. It keeps the dental bone alive, the enamel spotted, the gums rosy and elastic, the breath pure, and the mouth clean. 13

N. LEVIN, JR.—We had an opportunity, a day or two ago, of inspecting the compact establishment of this gentleman, and also of tasting some of the agreeable things which he has in such abundance in his store. We are satisfied that his selections are made with the utmost care, and that his stock of groceries, &c., are certainly of the best. His French and West India preserves being perfectly genuine, and the prices moderate, an opportunity is allowed persons of moderate means to indulge in these delightful luxuries during the approaching holidays. They are at Nos. 104 and 106 Market-street.

D. O'NEILL & SONS.—Persons in want of boots and shoes of any qualities, and at moderate prices, should call on this firm at No. 375 King-street, where will be found also a large stock of fine fur and wool hats.
