BALTIMORE, December 6—Coffee,—The cargo of the British bark Clifton, from Rio, has arrived since our last week's review, and 3000 bags were sold without sight of samples, to a New York house; subsequently 1230 bags, balance of same, were sold in New York for Western shipment on terms not transpired, but understood about 19½ cents, gold. Some lots of common Rio have been taken by the trade at 27½@28 cts. currency. At the close there was very little stock in first hands, but the bark Amelia Gehring is reported below with 6000 bags. Stock in second hands 750@8000 bags, quote prime to choice Rio 29½@21 cts., gold.

FLOUR.—The market generally has ruled dull and heavy, the only exception being for choice supers, which have been in modorate demand for shipment and home trade. Extra of all kinds are neglected. We give transactions for the week as follows: 1000 bbls. City Mills, shipping brand, at $11.25; choice held higher; 2500 bbls. City Mills Super, 400 bbls. Royal York do., 500 bbls. City Mills Super, 400 bbls. Royal York do., 500 bbls. City Mills good to fat $2,50@10; do. Extra $2,50@10; do. Family $12@13; Ohic Super and Cut Extra $8,50@2; do. Extra $9,50@10; do. Grann.—Our market continues but lightly supplied with Wheat, particularly prime and choice lots, which are mostly wanted for home milling; inferior and low grades are neglected. Prices rules comparatively steady. Corn has been in large supply, and the demand, though still brisk, favored buyers at the close, especially for lots not strictly prime. Oats are steady. Rye dull. We give transac range, as follows: Perto Rico, 75c. (£$1: Cuba Muscovado, 50@70c.; Cuba clayed, 45@50c.; English Island, 55 @95c.

Provisions,—Hogs have been in good supply the past week, and the market further depressed, in part attributed to the weather, which has been too warm for slaughtering. Prices fell from $14 to $12.50, within which range 2000 to 3000 head have been taken, mostly at the latter figure. We notice the arrival of some small invoices of New Bulk Meats from the West, but hear of no sales. Quote nominal, for Shoulders 14½ cents, and Sides 15@15½ cents. Small sales of green Meats have been made here as follows: Shoulders 13 cents; Sides 14½ cents, and Hams 14@15 cents per lb. Bacon is dull, small sales of Shoulders, old, reported at 16½@16½ cents; supply fair for the demand. Sides are scarce with moderate sales of both old and new at 20 cents; new Hams are quoted at 24@25 cents. Lard is inactive; quote Butcher's at 16@20c.; Western 24 cents per bbi. Butter more refined; last sale was at 25 cents now quoted at 25 cents per bb. of Meas Pork our market is quite bare; quote at $30@31 per bbi; West nominal.

Suoans.—Imports this week amount to 200 hlads. Porto Rico. The market has remained inactive, though without any quotable change. We report sales of 75 hlads. Porto Rico, to the trade, at 13½@14c, cit. 10 hlads. English Island at 13½c, for fair grocery. We quote as follows: Cuba and E. I. fair to good refa., 13@13½c, four months; do. do., prime, 14@14½c, net; do. do., prime to choice, 15c, net; Havana, No. 12, 13½c, four months.

Refined Sugars—Are in moderate demand, and prices steady on a basis of 19½c, for hard, and 18½c, less for 100 barrels or more.

Seeds.—Clover has been in limited supply, though the offerings on Wednesday were rather larger. The merket
