

WHAT IS SAID IN ENGLAND.

OURSELVES AS OTHERS SEE US.

A Liberal English Journal on the Credit Mobiler Disclosures—The Corruption of American Congressmen Serving in Europe as an Argument in Favor of Contests.

Nothing can be more disheartening to Radicals, or indeed to any men who believe in self-government, than the revelations of corruption recently reported from the United States, and yet we appear to discern among them one gleam of light.

A belief in the corruptibility of American politicians has of late years been widely spread in Europe, perhaps unduly spread, but until this month it was corrected by an impression that the Senate, at all events, was pure.

That body was not elected by a Democracy, but by the elite of the people, the State Legislatures; it was elected by men of a different stamp from the representatives of the people.

The revelations in the American Credit Mobiler case and the Pomeroy case show, however, that this belief was ill-founded; that the position of senator, the highest in the Union next to the President's, is sometimes bought and sold; that the Legislatures which elect the Senate may be corrupted.

It is certain that the men whose votes can be regularly purchased for a moderate sum of money, without going into unproved scandals, there seems to be no doubt, that certain of our countrymen, who are in the Pacific Railroad, formed a Ring; that under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted.

It is certain that three at least are held by opinion to be guilty, including Mr. Schuyler Colfax, the Vice-President, and Mr. Pomeroy, the Senator from Kansas, who has only escaped impeachment by three votes.

It is certain also that "bribery," i.e., the practice of carrying bills by bribery, has reached the Senate, that several men have grown rich there without cause, and that one man, Mr. Pomeroy, of Kansas, has been convicted of buying his seat, in order, as every one admits, to sell its powers.

The revelations are of the most frank character, and though they do not cover a majority of the Senate, they do show that a majority of the members of the Senate are not above the law.

Anything more disheartening could scarcely be conceived. If a democracy itself uncorrupt cannot find or does not care to find out the corruption in the Senate, how can a democracy find out the corruption in the House?

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

It is not a question of the right of a man to sell his seat, but of the right of a man to sell his vote, and of the right of a man to sell his influence.

NOTES FROM NEW YORK.

MURDER JOTTINGS IN THE GREAT METROPOLIS.

Insanity Items—Notes on Repeives and Pardons—Sympathy for Foster—Train and Other Notes—The Martyr Woodhull and Charles Beecher and his Vagaries—Success of the Graphic—Modesty of the Author of London Assurance, &c.

THE PROSPECT OF GETTING OUR MURDERER changed is very poor indeed. Just after the Stokes trial and the affirmation of Foster's sentence by the Court of Appeals, the events came together—it did look as if justice was going to have a show; but the situation changed very speedily.

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE BRUNSWICK PARTY says: "A steam yacht, containing a party of excursionists from the city, was on the water in the Pacific Railroad, and under the title of the Credit Mobiler they sold to themselves concessions made by Congress to the Pacific Railroad; that they resold these concessions to numerous persons, at a profit of 1500 per cent; that they were arraigned in Congress, and that they were acquitted."

THE GRANITE STATE.

Heavy Democratic Gains in the New Hampshire Election.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

CONCORD, March 12. The returns show a net loss for the R-Republicans of about 900. There will probably be no election of Governor by the people. The Democratic candidates for Congress are undoubtedly elected from three districts—Hibbard, from the first; Samuel N. Bell, from the second, and H. W. Parker, from the third. In the Legislature the Republicans will have a strong majority, and also in the Senate and Executive Council.

FIELD-DAY IN PARLIAMENT.

THE EXCITING DEBATE UPON THE IRISH UNIVERSITY BILL.

Defeat of the Ministers, and Resignation of Mr. Gladstone. The Author of Lothair Invited to Form a New Cabinet—Carlisle Victory in Spain—Opening of the German Parliament—Kaiser Wilhelm Announces an Early Evacuation of France—A New Turkish Cabinet.

LONDON, March 12. The Irish University Bill, introduced by the government in accordance with their pledges, came up for a second reading in the House of Commons last night. The galleries were crowded with distinguished personages, among whom were the Prince of Wales and Prince Christian, and the Princess Louise. Forty members took part in the debate.

At an early hour this morning a division was ordered, and the second reading of the bill was lost by a vote of 284 yeas to 287 noes; a majority of three against the government. Not a single Conservative voted for the bill, and 170 Liberals, of whom 66 were Irish members, voted against it. John Bright and his brother, Jacob Bright, and the Marquis of Lorne voted with the government. Seventeen members of the House, including Mr. Isaac Bull, the member from Limerick, were absent.

When the vote was announced, the scene in the House was indescribable. The excitement in the galleries and on the floor was intense, while the opponents of the bill expressed their delight in tumultuous cheering. Mr. Gladstone arose as soon as the tumult gave signs of ceasing, and said: "The vote just given is certainly of a grave character, and as the house never wishes to continue its deliberations when the existence of the government is in doubt, I move an adjournment until Thursday." This motion was adopted.

This morning, Mr. Gladstone waited on Queen Victoria, at Buckingham Palace, and tendered his resignation. It is probable that Mr. Disraeli will be invited to form a new ministry.

In consequence of the lateness of the hour at which the debate closed, the comments of the London morning papers are meagre and restrained.

A Carlist Victory in Spain. MADRID, March 12. It is reported that a severe engagement took place yesterday between the government forces under General Novallas and a large body of Carlists, in which General Novallas was defeated and compelled to retreat upon Pampeluna, with a heavy loss.

In the Assembly, yesterday, the bill introduced by the government, suspending the sittings and convoking the Constituent Cortes on the first of May, received a full sanction. Signor Martos, president of the Assembly, and Signor Lopez have resigned. Signor Martos, in tendering his resignation, made a statement, reciting that the action was caused solely by ill-health. The debate on the Porto Rico abolition bill has resumed in the Assembly.

PARIS, March 12. Letters from the frontier give the particulars of an engagement on the 7th instant, in the north of Spain, between a band of Carlists under Sarriena, and a force of Spanish government troops. The insurgents, who were entrenched, were attacked by the national troops, resulting in the defeat of the Carlist forces, who were compelled to retreat with a loss of one hundred men. Sarriena was mortally wounded. The Spanish commander, in his official report of the engagement, claimed that the Carlists were defeated. The Germans soon to Evacuate France. BERLIN, March 12. The German Parliament convened in this city to-day. His Majesty Emperor William opened the session in person. In his speech he said that he believed that the negotiations now in progress would result in the entire evacuation of France by the German troops at an earlier day than had been heretofore expected.

Trouble for Portugal. LISBON, March 12. Advances have been received by the government, stating that an organized band of brigands have appeared in the Portuguese Tuda county settlements, and are murdering the inhabitants and plundering their possessions.

A New Deal in Turkey. CONSTANTINOPLE, March 12. The following new Cabinet is announced this morning: Madhat Pasha, minister of justice; Saifeddin Pasha, minister of foreign affairs; Rashid Pasha, minister of public works.

THE UNMANAGEABLE MODOCK. CAPTAIN JACK and his Braves give their Captors the Slip. WASHINGTON, March 12. A dispatch from the scene of the Modock capture, dated Headquarters Peace Commission, Fairchild's Base, says: "The Modocks appear to be playing with the peace commission. On Monday the wagons went to the appointed spot on Klamm Lake to meet the Indians, and after waiting all day, returned without success. It was a very Indian. All kinds of rumors are afloat, and some say the Indians have shifted camp. Every preparation has been made for their reception, but the Indians do not appear to be in a hurry to surrender."

THE WEATHER THIS DAY. WASHINGTON, March 12. Probabilities for Thursday, rising barometer, westerly winds and generally clear weather. For the Gulf States, northerly winds and somewhat low temperature. For the South Atlantic States, light winds and clear weather. For the Lake Region, southwest winds and rising temperature, preceding an era of low barometer. In the Northwest, wind from the Upper Lakes, brief southerly and excitement about the other banks. There are probably fifteen hundred colored depositors in the Freedmen's Savings Bank, but not the least excitement is apparent.

JOTTINGS ABOUT THE STATE. Columbia complains of its defective drains. Columbia grumbles at the incessant "tooting" of its railway whistles. The Columbia Mechanics' Society, on Monday night, was largely attended. The Court of Common Pleas opens in Marion on Monday. Mr. Martos took for a fine supply of shad from the Federal next week. The Greenville Fairmont Fire Engine Company appeared on Saturday last, making a good display. The Southern Hotel at Greenville is being repaired, and will soon open its doors as the City Hotel. The supper to be given by the Hibernian Society, of Columbia, on the 17th, is to be a grand affair. As the beautiful grove of stately pines in the centre of Marion slowly disappears before the axe, the citizens vainly plead, "O, woodland spare that tree!" Mr. James Canton arrived in Columbia on Tuesday from the mountain districts of North Carolina, having in custody Montgomery Bishop, charged with the murder of his uncle in Spartanburg last fall. Paul Morphy. Some time since we referred to Mr. Paul Morphy, the great chess player, as a successful lawyer of New Orleans. We did this upon the authority of an exchange. Subsequently a New Orleans correspondent gives the following account of Mr. Morphy after his triumphal journey through this country and Europe: "But Morphy returned to be disgusted with chess. He has never played in public since. He is now with a party of his friends in the time of his life, he could think with patience and pleasure of everything save chess. With his abdication, Captain McKenzie, of New York, remains the best player in the United States. "Morphy, upon his return, renounced at once all his chess-connections, and, under flattering auspices, with sanguine faith in his success on the part of all who knew him, he has been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tyndal is an infidel, and no Christian should have called it 'Daddy O'Day.' Tyndal is not popular to praise a 'rebel' just then, but Beecher did it. He is back from his Western lecturing tour, and preached at Plymouth Church yesterday. The Liberator has called it 'Daddy O'Day,' and been pegging away at him unmercifully, because he took part in the farewell banquet given to Professor Tyndal. Dr. Cuyler says that Tynd