

Let our just Censures

Attend the True Event.

BY J. A. SELBY.

COLUMBIA, S. C., THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 2, 1872.

VOL. VIII—NO. 19.

The old man sits beside the look,
Where all day drips the water;
The old wife, in her faded frock,
Still knits and nods by the cottage clock;

At dawn the birds begin to sing,
And o'er and o'er the water
The swallow flits with winking wing;
The old folks wake with the waking spring!

Mid-summer brought the young Earl back,
The lord of wood and water;
If not for him the greenwood track—
His eyes were wondrous bold and black—

Slow moved the weary months to years;
All day dripped down the water;
The father's heart was dull with fears,
The mother's eyes were dim with tears—

A night there came—a night of wrath—
The rain beat on the water;
The wind blew from the rushing North,
The cottage lights shown freely forth—

At the end of the road,
The man who had been a soldier,
The woman who had been a girl,
The child who had been a child;

Serious Bolt at "The Hub"—The Atlantic Monthly Attacks President Grant.

The replies of the friends of the Administration to the charges made against the President have been from the first, considered merely as replies, singularly ineffective. The official reply to the charge of nepotism was that, instead of having appointed twenty-four relatives to office, the President had only appointed twelve.

In the second place, the charge that, in the face of repeated remonstrances, the President has allowed an obscure and impudent adventurer to amass a fortune by a systematic system of plunder, under the protection of the authorities of the Government, it was replied that the general order system would soon be modified.

And, lastly, to the charge of present-taking, the reply made is, that the whole matter was talked over in 1867 by Col. Forney, Mr. Justice Carter, and Senator Thayer and General Grant's chief of staff, and it was decided that, as General Grant had saved the rich a great deal during the war, it was only fair that he should get some of it himself.

A PAINT MINE.—During a recent visit to Augusta, we saw specimens of pure burnt umber, taken from an extensive bed of this valuable mineral recently opened seven miles above Augusta, about a mile and a half from the Georgia Railroad.

An Atlanta lady recently playfully tied her husband's hands and feet together, and while he was thinking it was a capital joke, she picked his pockets of a certain "billet-doux."

A cow in Dover, Tenn., excites the envy of all her bovine companions in fly-time. She has two tails.

DOWN AMONG THE DEAD.—The New York World, of the 21st, treats of a subject, editorially, which is interesting to all men and everywhere.

It cannot be denied that our present method of interment is not only detrimental to health but wasteful, inasmuch as it prevents the useful completion of nature's circle wherein decomposing organic matter is utilized for the fertilization of the soil and the maintenance of new life.

A THRILLING TABLEAU.—A surprise party quite surprised. Certain young ladies and gentlemen in a Montgomery County town determined a few days ago to get up a surprise party for the purpose of visiting the house of Mr. and Mrs. Gilpin.

THE CAULS HAVE AGAIN TAKEN TO THE WAR PATH.—We learn that Stephen Lowrey and Andrew Strong robbed the residence of Mr. Henry McCollum, of Red Banks, on Tuesday last, of a fine double-barreled gun.

MILITARY CONVENTION IN NEW YORK.—A soldiers' convention will be held in New York in May, to protest against Grant's nomination at Philadelphia.

A KANSAS CITY MOTHER COWHIDED A FOLLOWER IN THAT CITY THE OTHER DAY, who had attempted to outrage the person of her daughter, a child of twelve years.

THE DEATH OF MAJOR WILLIAM H. WITBERGER, of the Pulaski House, Savannah, is announced.

EXTRAORDINARY TROTTING.—THE FASTEST COIT IN THE WORLD.—Mr. Bonner drove his celebrated colt Startle yesterday afternoon, on Fleetwood Park, a quarter of a mile in thirty-three seconds to his road wagon.

THE CARLIST INSURRECTION.—So formidable has the Carlist movement in Spain become, that even Madrid telegrams admit the possibility of the revolution being successful, provided the Radicals continue to oppose the Government.

SPAIN AGAIN.—The young King Amadeus is leading a hard life of it, and his path is not by any means strewn with roses. Revolutions are cropping out so fast, in the various parts of the country, that it is almost as confusing to keep the run of, and properly to chronicle them, as it is to do the same for Mexico.

THE COURIER-JOURNAL SAYS: ENGLAND has the most powerful navy in the world, while ours amounts to little more than Robeson on a corn-stalk raft armed with a half-inch howitzer made of plaster of Paris.

A YOUTHFUL NOVICE IN SMOKING TURNED DEADLY PALE and threw his cigar away. "Oh, dear," he said, "there's some'in' in that cigar that's makin' me sick."

MARY HAD A LITTLE LAMB, with hair as fine as silk; the longer Mary lived, the more she found that lamb a milk. For all the hair was only flax, on that deceitful brute; but Mary hadn't much to say, for hers was only jut.

INDIANAPOLIS GIRLS, when at the opera occupy balcony seats, and playfully hang their feet over the railing.

A MOURNFUL EVENT is thus alluded to by a San Francisco paper: "Any person learning the whereabouts of a young man named Scott, who attempted to seal a bottle of benzine this morning, with a lighted candle standing near the bottle, will confer a favor on his sister at the Mission by reporting the same to her, as his clothes will fit her husband, who is badly in need of them."

THE POLICE IN JAPAN are very vigilant. If you have anything stolen, they run after the thief and bring him back for identification. If the stolen property is found on him, they chop off his head on your door-step.

A NEWLY MADE WIDOW at Oshkosh, at the funeral, stepped up and kissed her dead husband's brow as he lay in his coffin, and then was disgusted beyond measure to see several other women, whom she did not know, step forward and do the same thing.

IN THE ELECTORAL COLLEGE of 357 votes this year, the former slave-holding States will have 134 votes, the Western States 102, the New England and Middle States 109, and the Pacific States 12 votes.

THE FOLLOWING CONVERSATION recently occurred at a dinner party in Washington: "A.—General Grant was to have dined with us to-day, but I am sorry to learn that he is detained at home by a very severe cold. B.—I am very sorry. But how did Gen. Grant take cold? C.—Oh, he took it from a draught."
