Proclamation.

I, T. J. GOODWYN, Mayor of the city of Columbia, S. C., call earnestly upon the citizens to aid the municipal authorities in the preservation of order, peace and law. The laws made and provided for their maintenance will be strictly enforced. It is, therefore, earnestly requested that any and every encroachment be promptly reported to the proper officers. It is a source of deep regret to the executive that a laxity of morals exists among some portions of our inhabitants, inasmuch as they are daily trespassing on the rights of others, whose enclosures are not secure by proper fencing; also, on the shade trees on the public streets. The law in these instances, as well as all laws for the protection of public and private property, will be enforced.
It has also been reported that parties are bringing into the city spirituous liquors for sale. It is much to be deprecated that this source of traffic should exist at such a time, when our inhabitants stand in daily want of food. Severe measures against the retailing of liquors must be resorted to, in order to stop the spread of this grievous evil; trusting on an All-wise Providence to sustain me in this our time of affliction, and relying on all good citizens to assist the authorities in maintaining order in our city.
Given under my hand, this fourth day of April, 1865.

Emblematic Stones

THE JEWELS OF THE MONTHS.

In Poland, according to a superstitious belief, each month of the year is under the influence of some precious stone, which influence is attached to the destiny of persons born during the course of the month. It is, in consequence, customary among friends, and more particularly between lovers, to make, on birth-days, reciprocal presents, consisting of some jewel ornamented with the tutelar stone. It is generally believed that this prediction of happiness, or rather of future destiny, will be realized according to the wishes expressed on the occasion:

JANUARY.—The stone of January is the jacinth, or garnet, which denotes constancy and fidelity in any sort of an engagement.

FEBRUARY.—The amethyst, a preservative against violent passions, and an assurance of peace of mind and sincerity.

MARCH.—The bloodstone, is the stone of courage and wisdom in perilous undertaking, and firmness in affection.

APRIL.—The sapphire, or diamond, is the stone of magnificence, and kindness of disposition.

MAY.—The emerald. This stone signifies happiness in love, and domestic felicity.

JUNE.—The agate is the stone of long life, health and prosperity.

JULY.—The ruby or cornelian, denotes forgetfulness of, and exemption from, the vexations caused by friendship and love.

AUGUST.—The sardonyx. This stone denotes conjugal felicity.

SEPTEMBER.—The chrysolite is the stone which preserves from and cures madness and despair.

OCTOBER.—The aqua-marine, or opal, signifies distress add hope.

NOVEMBER.—The topaz, signifies fidelity and friendship.

DECEMBER.—The turquoise is the stone which expresses great sureness and prosperity in love, and in all the circumstances of life.

People say that they shall peas, when they un-shell them; that they husk corn, when they un-husk it; that they dust the furniture, when they un-dust it, or take the dust from it; that they skin a calf when they un-skin it, and that they scale fishes, when they un-scale them. I have heard many men say they were going to weed their gardens, when I thought they were weedy enough already.

Always be quite as careful, in your business transactions, of taking credit as of giving it.
