BE NOT DISCOURAGED.—Hope on, hope ever. Life's prospects may appear to you dreary and uninviting; life's realities may be painfully oppressive to your sensitive feelings; but with trustful confidence believe that He who made a way through the Red Sea for his redeemed ones to pass over, can easily light up your path with sunshine and strew it with fairest flowers: He who forms the night creates also the day. He who directs the course of the storm-cloud also sends the fair weather out in the North. The railway of life does not always lie through tunnels. Another moment and your gladdened spirit may be enjoying the fine balmy air and reveling in the beauties of earth and sky. It may be that you are even just now upon the verge of God's choicest blessing.

A man who cheats in short measure is a measureless rogue.

If he gives short measure in wheat, then he is a rogue in grain.

If in whiskey, then he is a rogue in spirit.

If he gives a bad title to land, then he is a rogue in deed.

And if he cheats whenever he can, he is in deed, in spirit, in grain, a measureless scoundrel.

Mr. Morris, one day asked his lawyer how an heiress might be carried off. You cannot do it with safety, said the adviser; but I will tell you what you may do. Let her mount a horse and hold a tridle-whip; do you then mount behind her, and you are safe, for she runs away with you. The next day the lawyer found that it was his own daughter who had run away with his client.

The English House of Peers at present consists of one Prince, two Royal Dukes, three Archbishops, twenty-four Dukes, thirty-one Marquises, 158 Earls, thirty-one Viscounts, twenty-eight Bishops, and 158 Barons. As the Bishop of Bath and Wells sits also as Baron of Auckland, the total number of peers is 435.

What mother has the fairest daughter?
Mother-of-pearl.

Speaking of corporal punishment in schools, what pupil is the most to be pitied?
The pupil of the eye, because it is always under the lash!

PUNCH'S MENTAL PHILOSOPHY.—What is mind? No matter. What is matter? Never mind. What is the nature of the soul? It is immaterial.
