

MISCELLANY.

The Death of Infants.

How peacefully they rest,
Cross-folded there
Upon his little breast—
Those tiny hands that ne'er were still before.

He did but float a little way
Adown the stream of time,
With dreamy eyes watching the ripples play,
Listening their fairy chime.

Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata.

It happened at Bonn. * * * One moonlight winter's evening I called upon Beethoven, for I wanted him to take a walk, and afterwards sup with me.

To REMOVE FLIES FROM ROOMS.—The following method of trapping flies, as practised and endorsed by a correspondent of the Irish Agricultural Gazette, will be found useful.

There was something so odd in the whole affair, and something so eccentric and pleasant in the manner of the speaker, that they seemed broken in a moment, and all smiled involuntarily.

was not mistaken. Never, during all the years I knew him, did I hear him play as he then played to that blind girl and her brother! He was inspired; and from the instant that his fingers began to wander along the keys, the very tones of the instrument began to grow sweeter and more equal.

At length the young shoemaker rose, and approaching him eagerly, yet reverently, "Wonderful man!" he said, in a low tone, "who and what are you?"

LOST, on the Wimsbora Road, from Nelson's to Columbia, one red CARPET BAG, containing, besides some clothing, plantation accounts and other papers of no value whatever to any one except the owner.

In view of the importance of the approaching Convention, it is of vital consequence to us that we should be represented by men, not only of patriotism and experience, but of legal acquirements.

THE following gentlemen are respectfully suggested as candidates for the Convention to be held in September next:

For the Convention. The friends of the Union and of their State, desiring to bring into her councils practical knowledge, sound patriotism and devotion to her best interests, respectfully nominate the following gentlemen as delegates to the State Convention from the District of Beaufort:

Beiges, Military District of Charleston, CHARLESTON, S. C., July 25, 1865. THE following orders, the action of the Superior and Circuit Provest Court of the 8th District, will not be final until approved by the Sub-District Commanders.

Beiges, Military District of Charleston, CHARLESTON, S. C., July 28, 1865. GENERAL ORDERS NO. 81.

THE following is published for the information and guidance of all concerned: THE SUPERIOR AND CIRCUIT PROVEST COURT OF THE 8TH DISTRICT, CHARLESTON, AND PROVISION IN CASES OF APPEAL THEREIN.

1. The jurisdiction of the Superior Provest Court shall extend to all cases of property, debt and damages, where the amount in litigation exceeds one hundred dollars, ($100) in all cases of crimes, misdemeanors and violation of orders, the Superior Provest Court shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the Circuit Provest Court.

2. The jurisdiction of the Circuit Provest Court shall extend to all cases of property, debt and damages, where the amount in litigation does not exceed one hundred dollars, ($100) in all cases of crimes, misdemeanors, and violation of orders, the Circuit Provest Court will be governed by the Rules prescribed in Paragraph V, General Orders No. 102, Headquarters Department South, June 27, 1865.

3. In all cases of appeal from the decision of either of the above mentioned Courts, to the District or Sub-District Commanders, the appellant will notify the President of the Court of his desire to appeal; the President will then instruct the parties in the case to prepare a written and brief statement of facts and issues respectively, and also the cause of the appeal. Upon this statement the President will concisely endorse the reasons for the decision of the Court, affixing his signature thereon; the paper will then be forwarded to Sub-District Headquarters for the consideration of the Sub-District Commander.

4. Appellants must distinctly state in their appeal to what Commander they appeal, and an appeal heard once been made either to a Superior or Inferior Commander, and a decision had thereon, that decision will be final and no subsequent appeal will be permitted.

5. In cases of appeal where the amount in litigation does not exceed one hundred dollars, ($100) in all cases of fines, and in all cases of imprisonment, not exceeding one month, appeals must be made to the Sub-District Commander, whose decision will be final. All other appeals, not embraced in the above mentioned classes, may be made to the District Commander, though the Sub-District Commander can have jurisdiction at the option of the appellant.

6. Owners of property in the hands of the Military Authorities, claimed by citizens, will require the final action of the District Commander.

7. All Commissioned Officers and Enlisted Men of the 6th New York Vet. Vols., and 102d U. S. C., serving in whatever capacity in this District, are hereby relieved, and will report at once to their Regimental Commander for duty.

INSURANCE.

GERMANIA, HAAGVER, NIAGARA, REPUBLIC. THE UNDERWRITERS' POLICY OF INSURANCE IS ISSUED BY H. E. NICHOLS, Agent, COLUMBIA, S. C.

ONE policy of insurance, issued by four companies, which is made to meet the necessities of the business community, by securing, with dispatch, large lines of insurance with reliable companies, upon uniform, plain and simple conditions, thereby obviating the necessity of applying to various separate Offices for insurance to the amount they are generally able to accept, and of holding numerous separate policies, the conditions and written portions of which rarely agree, rendering it difficult for the assured to become familiar with and harmonize their various conflicting conditions.

By the conditions of the Underwriters' Policy but one set of papers is required to prove a loss to the several Companies insuring under it, thereby making the adjustment simple and expeditious. The cash assets of each Company issuing the Underwriters' Policy of insurance exceed half a million of dollars, making a security in the aggregate of three million dollars.

Agent for the Hartford, Ethna, Home, Phoenix, International, Metropolitan, Continental, Merchants, Croton, New England, City, Washington, North American and other first class fire insurance companies, and will, in a few days, resume the Life Insurance Branch for several of the largest life insurance companies in the United States.

Agent for the New York Accidental Insurance Company, insuring Travelers, Railroad Conductors, Expressmen, Mechanics and others, against all accidents. The amount premium being so small and the benefit so great this Company presents inducements for all to take out a policy. No medical examination required.

For cards, hand bills and more full explanation, call at our office, at present at Byrnes' old stand, next to Muller & Sears, and Branch A. & Gibson's stores, July 27. H. E. NICHOLS, Agent.
