The Escape of Judah P. Benjamin.

New York, August 3.—The World's Havana correspondent gives an account of Judah P. Benjamin's escape from the ruins of the Confederacy. He says Benjamin separated from Davis early in May, near Washington, Ga., for the purpose of making his way to Nassau and Havana from some point on the Florida coast. He was to attend to some public business at the posts, and then rejoin the President in transmission via Matamoras and Texas. He traveled directly South through Georgia and Florida, on horseback, disguised as a farmer in search of land, without exciting or attracting attention, till he reached the lower side of the peninsula of Florida. He was informed no boats could be found on the eastern coast, and went to the gulf shore, where, after a month's delay, he succeeded in getting a shipyard boat and two men who were willing to risk their lives upon the sea in it. The open boat was about fifteen feet long, in which they coasted the peninsula till they reached one of the keys of Florida reef, where they succeeded in procuring a boat somewhat larger, in which they put to sea to cross the gulf stream, and fortunately reached Bordes upon the banks after a passage of sixty hours.

On the 10th day of July, after an unsuccessful attempt to reach Nassau, in which he was baffled by head winds and heavy weather, he put back to Banes, and on Friday, the 14th, the sloop foundered thirty miles from the nearest land. The vessel went down so rapidly that he with the crew had barely time to jump into a skiff in tow of the sloop before she sank. In this boat, with a light mast, sail and compass, and only provisions of boiled rice, which the negroes had cooked for breakfast,—in this leaky and over-laded boat, and having but one oar, they made for land, and, as the weather was calm and no vessel in sight, by dint of energetic sculling they easily reached the lighthouse. In a vessel from that point Benjamin reached Nassau and Havana. His whole trip has occupied the best part of three months out of which thirty days have been passed at sea, in miserable open boats.

Headqrs Dept of South Carolina, HILTON HEAD, S. C., July 29, 1865. GENERAL ORDERS NO. 9. It is announced, for the information and government of this command, that BENJAMIN F. PERRY, of South Carolina, has been appointed, by the President, Provisional Governor of the State of South Carolina, with authority and instructions, "at the earliest practicable period, to prescribe such rules and regulations as may be necessary and proper for convening a Convention, composed of delegates to be chosen by that portion of the people of said State who are loyal to the United States, and no others, for the purpose of altering or amending the Constitution thereof; and with authority to exercise, within the limits of said State, all the powers necessary and proper to enable such loyal people of the State of South Carolina to restore said State to its constitutional relations to the Federal Government, and to present such a Republican form of State Government as will entitle the State to the guarantee of the United States therefore, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence; provided, that in any election that may hereafter be held for choosing delegates to any State Convention as aforesaid, no person shall be qualified as an elector, or shall be eligible as a member of such Convention, unless he shall have previously taken and subscribed the oath of amnesty, as set forth in the President's proclamation of May 29, A. D. 1865, and is a voter qualified as prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State of South Carolina in force immediately before the seventeenth (17th) day of November, A. D. 1860, the date of the so-called Ordinance of Secession; and the said Convention, when convened, or the Legislature that may be thereafter assembled, will prescribe the qualification of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the Constitution and laws of the State, a power the people of the several States composing the Federal Union have rightfully exercised from the origin of the Government to the present time." It is, therefore, ordered, that all officers and other persons in the United States military service, within the State of South Carolina, aid and assist Governor Perry in carrying into effect the foregoing instructions, and they are enjoined to abstain from, in any way, hindering, impeding or obstructing the loyal people of the State from the organization of a State Government, as hereinabove authorized and directed.

All orders and instructions now in operation throughout this Department, whether emanating from these headquarters, or from Headquarters Department of the South, that are not inconsistent with the foregoing distinctly specified provisions of this order, will continue in force as heretofore, throughout the State of South Carolina. Every needful facility for taking the amnesty oath will be afforded by the military authorities, on forms heretofore supplied for that purpose. Hereafter Provost Marshals and Assistant Provost Marshals will constitute the only military officers entitled to administer the amnesty oath, a certified copy of which will, in all cases, be furnished to the individual taking it. The original oaths will be transmitted, semi-monthly, by the officer administering the same, to the Provost Marshal General at these Headquarters, by whom they will be recorded in a book kept for that purpose, and then forwarded to the Secretary of State.

Persons applying for Executive clemency will send their petition (with a certified copy of the Amnesty Oath attached), to the President, through the Provisional Governor at Greenville, South Carolina. By command of: MAJ. GEN. Q. A. GILLMORE. Official: W. L. M. BURGER, A. A. G. Aug 16 3
