By Telegraph. The Mississippi Convention.

Jackson. August 21.—The following constitutional amendment has just passed the Convention, by a vote of eighty-six to eleven.

The institution of slavery having been destroyed in the State of Mississippi, neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, otherwise than for the purposition of crime, whereof the party nishment of crime, whereof the party shall be duly convicted, shall hereafter exist in this State; and the Legislature, at its session, and thereafter as the public welfare may require, shall provide by law for the protection and security of the persons and property of the freedmen of the State, and guard them and the State against any evil that may arise from their sudden emancipation.

Judge Parkers all apphances that asually accompany protested grainst an indefinite adjoarn-ment or dissolation of the court, and stated that, as the defendant had been arraigned and pleaded not guilty, the prisoner should be discharged or the trial proceeded with. The president, Gen. Walace, said that all argument prisons should be discharged of the trial proceeded with. The president. Gen. Wallace, said that all argument was out of order. This ended the matter. An adjournment took place. and the prisoner went back to the Old Capitol.

A good many conjectures are rife as to what course will be pursued. Many think that the commission adjourned think that the commission adjourned sine die-others think that a new set of charges and specifications will be made out which will not include the charge of conspiracy. If the case has been entirely abandoned, it is believed to be on the ground that the parole given Wirtz on Johnston's surrender precludes his trial. precludes his trial.

The Kentucky Election.

This city contains a voting population of not less than ten thousand Monday, the radical ticket was carried by a vote the highest only 4,370. Louisville, in an exciting election, polls fewer votes than she did ten or fifteen years ago. For some years, not long since, one side was suppressed by clubs and brass knucks. Since that time, a new era has arrived, and now military orders and bayonets are brought to hear to dimibayonets are brought to bear to diminish the vote of the city. Two years ago, the same means were employed, and with a similar result. A law or Congress was passed to prevent such occurrences; but soldiers were placed near the pells, under the pretext of keeping the peace, when there was no disturbance apprehended. These times arrests are made upon secret information, and the citizen confined at discretion, and there is no redress. States. Two or more of the witnesses testified to the fact that the reward on Sanders was augumented from 25,000 dollars. It is alleged (and sworn to) that the celebrated Commodore Vanderbilt, of New York, was pledged to furnish $25,000. I understand Sanders is unwilling to believe that Vanderbilt, has made any such committal. It has, however, been presented in such imposing form that the statement can only be dissipated by the commodore himself.

uys: You will see a good deal of nonsense originating in a Seathern paper about Gen. Lee's reasons for applying for a pardon. It is all stuff. Gen. Lee's application for a pardon was drawn off and submitted to his friends in this city two months ago, before he left for the country. It is a v ry long docu-ment, over eighteen pages of foolscap. Gen. Lee made his application for pardon on his own account, and not on account of others, and without any reluctance—at least none expressed to his friends. Gen. Lee is not the man to excuse any act of his by pretending that it is done for the benefit of others. By-the-by, speaking of him reminds me that he does not intend to return to this city to reside. The house on Franklin street, where he lived, is now occupied by a Hebrey family.
