

MISCELLANY

The Season.
BY THOMAS MOORE.
Summer's gone and over!
Roses are falling down!
And with the russet tinges,
Autumn's doing brown.
Boughs are daily rifled
By the busy thieves,
And the Book of Nature
Getteth short of leaves.
Round the tops of houses,
Swallows as they flit,
Give, like yearly tenants,
Notices to quit.
Skies of fickle temper,
Weep by turns and laugh—
Night and day together,
Taking half-and-half.
So September endeth—
Cold and most perverse—
But the months that follow
Sure will pinch us worse!

"Too Much Mother."—Artemus Ward gets off the following good paragraph:
"Our ballad-writers put too much mother in their melodies. Thus, we have, 'Dear mother, I've come home to die'—'Mother, is the battle over?'—'Mother, dear, oh, pray for me'—'Write a letter to my mother,' etc. The other night we heard an athletic Ethiopian minstrel dismally blear, 'Mother kissed me in my dreams,' just as though she would do it until he washed the cork from his face. A mother is a good thing. Without mothers, in fact, life would be unpleasant. But why sing the maternal parent's merits so persistently, and in such shaky verses? Why not vary the thing, and occasionally produce a father or two? If we must continually sing about our parents, let us by all means give the 'old man' a chance."

To the Citizens of South Carolina.

The termination of a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a renewal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity afforded me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted, save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends—to beware of all those spurious and deleterious compounds which, under the specious and false titles of Imported Wines, Brandies, Holland Gin, Liqueurs, &c., have been equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudicial to the interests of the legitimate importer.

Many years of my past life have been expended in an open and candid attempt to expose those wholesale frauds; no time nor expense has been spared to accomplish this salutary purpose, and to place before my friends and the public generally, at the lowest possible market price, and in such quantities as might suit their convenience, a truly genuine imported article.

Twenty-five years' business transactions with the largest and most respectable exporting houses in France and Great Britain have afforded me unsurpassed facilities for supplying our home market with Wines, Liqueurs and Liqueurs of the best and most approved brands in Europe, in addition to my own distillery in Holland for the manufacture of the "Schiedam Schnapps."

The latter, so long tested and approved by the medical faculties of the United States, West Indies and South America as an invaluable Therapeutic, a wholesome, pleasant and perfectly safe beverage in all climates and during all seasons, quickly excited the cupidity of the home manufacturers and vendors of a spurious article under the same name.

I trust that I have, after much toil and expense, surrounded all my importations with safeguards and directions which, with ordinary circumspection, will insure their delivery, as I receive them from Europe, to all my customers.

I would, however, recommend, in all cases where it is possible, that orders be sent direct to my Depot, 22 Beaver street, New York, or that purchases be made of my accredited agents.

In addition to a large stock of Wines, Brandies, &c., in wood, I have a considerable supply of old tried foreign Wines, embracing vintages of many past years, bottled up before the commencement of the war, which I can especially recommend to all connoisseurs of these rare luxuries.

In conclusion, I would specially call the attention of my Southern customers to the advantage to be derived by transmitting their orders without loss of time, or calling personally at the Depot, in order to insure the fulfillment of their favors from the present large and well selected assortment.
