Southern Forts to be Garrisoned by Negro Soldiers, Etc.
 WASHINGTON, October 13.—Gen. Howard, Chief of the Freedmen's Bureau, had been ordered to proceed South, with the view of making satisfactory arrangements for the restoration of lands to their former owners on the coast of South Carolina, Florida and Georgia, heretofore set apart by Sherman for freedmen's purposes. All the sea-coast forts South of Fortress Monroe, excepting Fort Taylor, at Key West, and Jefferson, at Tortugas, are to be garrisoned by colored troops.

Mobile Cotton Market.
 MOBILE, October 14, via AUGUSTA, October 15.—The sales of cotton at Mobile on the 13th and 14th insts., amounted to 3,500 bales. Quotations for middling grades being 50c. per lb. Sales of the week, 5,500. Receipts of the week, 15,000. Exports of the week, 10,318 bales. Stock, 5,191 bales.

Frauds on the Revenue.
 NASHVILLE, October 11.—Immense frauds on the revenue have been discovered here, and the United States Revenue Collector for Cincinnati reached here yesterday to investigate the matter. A large liquor house has swindled the Government out of $150,000, but will be compelled to refund at once, or pay $200,000.

A. A. Harris has been arrested here by order of Gov. Brownlow, in accordance with a requisition from Gov. Bramlett. Harris is indicted in Kentucky courts for acts committed during the war.

Exciting times will be had in the Tennessee Legislature on the negro and franchise question.

A PATRIOTIC MANIFESTO.—On the anniversary of the Independence of Mexico, the Emperor Maximilian published the following address:

GENTLEMEN: This is a family festival, a festival of brothers which unites every one of us this day under the folds of our glorious banner. The day upon which our immortal Hidalgo, elevating with unprecedented valor his patriotic voice, united the heroes of a new Mexican era, will be forever, to the sons of our country, a day of rejoicing, because we then celebrate the inauguration of our nationality; because every good Mexican must renew by an oath the promise to live for the greatness, the independence and the integrity of his country, and show himself always ready to defend it with all his heart and soul. The words of that oath are the first uttered by a good Mexican. I solemnly repeat them now. My heart, my soul, my labor, and my lawful efforts belong to you and to our beloved country. No influence in this world can make me waver in my duty; every drop of my blood is Mexican now, and if God sends fresh dangers to threaten our country, you will see me fight in your ranks for its independence and integrity. I am willing to die at the foot of our glorious banner, because no human power can wrest from me the trust with which you have endowed me. What I say must be said by every good Mexican; it must efface past rancors; it must bury party hatred. Every one must live for the good of our beloved country. Thus united, and following the path of duty, we will be strong, and the principles which form the basis of our task will infallibly triumph.

The Reading (Pa.) Gazette says that there was not a man in the "Felix Life Guards," a company raised in that city, killed during the war. There must be something "in a name."

EDITOR PHOENIX: One of my friends, in his anxiety to secure my election, has fallen into an error in his communication to your paper of yesterday. I went to Virginia, in the winter of 1862, at the request of the Central Association, not to carry food and clothing to our troops, but to visit every command and ascertain the nature and extent of their wants and necessities, that our means of supplying them might be used to the best advantage. My arrival at Culpeper, with Mr. Palmer, who had charge of supplies, probably led to the mistake.
 EDWIN J. SCOTT.
 Oct 18 1*

Mr. Phoenix—DEAR SIR: I see Mr. SCOTT is up for the Legislature. He was not a soldier in the war, but he helped to clothe and feed our soldiers. Over sixty years of age, in bad health, he came to Richmond, Staunton and Winchester, in the winter-time, to bring us clothes, shoes, blankets, boxes, &c. We and our families will remember him, to be sure, on to-morrow, at the election.
 ONE OF JOHNSTON'S ARMY.

EDWIN J. SCOTT, ESQ.
 Mr. Editor: It is most gratifying to our community, to whom the above named gentleman has been so long and so favorably known, to learn that, at the pressing solicitation of numerous friends, he has allowed himself to be put in nomination for a seat in the House of Representatives from Richland District.

Peace has its triumphs and its worthies as well as war.

Mr. Scott served sixteen years in the offices of Tax Collector and Clerk of the Court, in Lexington District; and was, during that time, chosen as a Delegate to the State Convention of 1832, otherwise known as the Nullifying Convention.

For the last twenty-eight years, as Teller and Cashier of the Commercial Bank of this city, he commanded the respect and admiration of all who had business with that institution, for his integrity, his financial abilities, his obliging disposition.

He is a reading and a thinking man, and will care to do what he believes to be right.

Upon the grave and difficult questions to come before our next Legislature—questions of State finance and taxation—of the status of the Freedman, his rights and his duties—of the relation between debtors and creditors—he is as competent to decide as any man in the State.

The District will honor itself by honoring him, and will consult its own interests by assisting itself of his patriotism, large experience, ripe judgment and independence of thought and action.
