Iowa Election.

DES MOINES, October 14.—The majority for Gov. Stone, who advocated negro suffrage, will be 15,000. The balance of the Republican ticket is elected by nearly 20,000 majority.

Murder of an Episcopal Minister.

PETERSBURG, October 13.—Rev. R. Castleman, a well known member of the Protestant Episcopal Church, was brutally murdered near Gaston, N. C., on Wednesday night last. He was returning alone from a visit to a neighbor. The perpetrators were not identified. The deceased is widely known and much beloved in Virginia.

SEIZURE OF FENIAN GUNS.—Information has been received in Washington that six hundred Spencer rifles in boxes were seized by the Canadian authorities, at Niagara City, on Tuesday. The contents of the boxes were accidentally discovered in overhauling the railroad freight. The authorities report it a case of Fenian smuggling.

News from New Orleans.

NEW ORLEANS, October 14.—Mr. Watterson, the Special Agent of the Government, sent to inquire into the condition of Southern affairs, left yesterday afternoon, after a short stay. It is understood that his opinion of the Freedmen's Bureau is that it is an unnecessary burden to the Government.

The Provost Marshal has ordered an inspection of the city registered voters, with a view to strike from the rolls a certain portion charged with acts of disloyalty antecedent to the President's amnesty proclamation, and of those who, in 1862, registered themselves enemies of the United States. This would strike off one-fifth of the registered voters of the city. Gov. Wells protests against this as an interference with an established State law. If the Provost Marshal persists, Gov. Wells will appeal to the President.

FREEDMEN IN MARYLAND.—The Washington Chronicle, of Saturday, says:

Information has reached the Bureau of Freedmen's Affairs, that parties in Charles County, Maryland, have circulated reports among the Freedmen in that locality to the effect that they must be bound seven years to former slaveholders, and receive but a dollar per year compensation for their labor during said apprenticeship. This report naturally creates great excitement among the Freedmen.

The ultimatum has gone forth from the great centre of civilization and fashion declaring that waterfalls are no more to be worn by the dames of the haut monde. Paris has spoken, and from the rising to the setting of the sun there is a general and submissive acquiescence to the immutable and irrevocable decision of the hair dressers and perruquiers of the Rue Tronchet.

A very old lady named Cornell has lately died in Preston, England. Her parents were among the first to embrace the doctrines of John Wesley, who, on his visits to Preston, preached in their house. Her father was the first class leader in the Wesleyan connection in Preston, and she herself was christened by John Wesley.

General Santa Anna is enlisting troops in St. Thomas to aid Juarez. At latest dates he had enlisted one hundred and twenty-seven men, mostly Italians.

Hon. A. H. Stephens is said to be an elder of the Old School Presbyterian Church.

An exchange says: "The Kentucky Mammoth Cave is to let." We should call this a very good opening for a land speculation.

OBITUARY.

Died, on Saturday, September 30, 1865, after a few hours illness, THOMAS JENNINGS, aged nearly two years, youngest son of Thomas and Marian Flanagan.

In the birth of this child, Heaven bestowed on these parents one of her choicest and most beautiful gifts. He was their soul's best idol—too lovely, too pure, for earth—and God in his great wisdom saw fit to call him home to dwell with angels, who now are encircling wreaths on his beauteous brow, and teaching him to respond in praises to his Creator. But now the agonized parents are weeping; their hearts are crushed and sorely wounded; they miss their little treasure—they miss their darling child, and they cannot be comforted, even in the blessed assurance that he has made a glorious exchange, and is numbered among the redeemed.

Thou art gone! Thou art gone!
Oh! beautiful babe;
The Saviour has called thee,
And we could not refuse.
Thou art sleeping, thou art happy,
And we know thou art resting
On the bosom of him who was slain.
A FRIEND.

GERMAN EMIGRATION.—A wonderful stimulus has been imparted to emigration from Germany since the close of the war. It appears that the facilities for transporting to this country the number of people who are attracted hither by the prosperous future in store for the United States is entirely inadequate to the demand. We learn from our Berlin correspondent that two new steamers are being built in Glasgow for the Bremen Lloyd's line to New York, which will make seven large steam vessels on this line. The Hamburg and New York Company will in future run one of their seven steamers regularly each week. The competition between these direct German lines and the Southampton steamers has resulted in a considerable reduction of fare on both lines. From all the projects now in contemplation it would appear that the tonnage of steam vessels plying between the United States and Europe will soon amount to a million of tons.

The emigration of Germans will prove a great benefit to this country in the present crisis. They are just the class of people to take hold of the Southern plantations and cultivate them to the highest point. With this kind of labor in the Southern States, together with the improvements in machinery, we should not be surprised to see an increase in the amount of cotton raised of fully one-third over that produced by slave labor and hand work in the field.

PREDICTION OF DAVIS' RELEASE.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger writes, under date of Thursday:

Let me repeat a prediction I gave you a month or so ago, that the release of Davis is only a "question of time." From sources of information which I cannot dispute, I learn that the President has no idea of bringing him to trial, but as soon as all the States are in harmonious working order with the Government, the prison doors of Davis will fly open, and he will be a free man.

This, I am assured, was the intention of his Excellency long before the petitions from the respective States were poured in for his release, and these, with the action of the Mississippi, Alabama and South Carolina Conventions, looking to the same end, have more than confirmed the President in his belief that the trial or further disgrace of the rebel leader is not demanded either for the country's good or the vindication of its honor.
