

MISCELLANY

A MULE MARE WITH A COLT.—The Fort Wayne (Indiana) Gazette, of the 29th ultimo, gives the following remarkable story, for the correctness of which it vouches:

It may be of some interest to stock growers to know that Mr. Robert Bennett, of this city, has a mule with a young colt, the latter about four weeks old. The fact is quite remarkable, and worth remembering. There is no mistake about the matter—the mule is the mother of the colt. Mr. Conklin, the photographer, brought us a photograph of the animal this morning—a remarkably good picture—the colt imbibing a breakfast, and the mother tied to a post with a halter. The picture may be seen at our office. It ought to be secured by the Agricultural Society.

The lady who "took everybody's eyes," must have had lots of them.

When is an undertaker like one of his own jobs? When he's a coughin'.

Burning of the Museum.

LETTER FROM MR. BARNUM.

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865. MESSRS. HERRING & Co.—GENTLEMEN. Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage, that "it is an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial, it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safe. Yours truly, F. T. BARNUM.

HERRING & CO., No. 251 Broadway, cor. Murray st., N. Y. FARRELL, HERRING & CO., Philadelphia.

Oct 25 2mo HERRING & CO., Chicago.

To the Citizens of South Carolina.

The termination of a sanguinary contest, which for the past four years has presented an impassable barrier to all social or commercial intercourse between the two great sections of our country, having at length happily cleared away all obstacles to a removal of those relations which formerly bound us together in a fraternal union, I take the earliest opportunity afforded me by this auspicious event, to greet my Southern friends, and to solicit from them a renewal of that extensive business connection which for a quarter of a century has been uninterrupted, save by the great public calamity to which I have adverted.

It is scarcely necessary, on the threshold of a business re-union, I should repeat the warning so often given to my friends—to beware of all those spurious and deleterious compounds which, under the specious and false titles of Imported Wines, Brandy, Holland Gin, Liqueurs, &c., have been equally destructive to the health of our citizens as prejudicial to the interests of the legitimate importer.

Many years of my past life have been expended in an open and candid attempt to expose these wholesale frauds; no time nor expense has been spared to accomplish this salutary purpose, and to place before my friends and the public generally, at the lowest possible market price, and in such quantities as might suit their convenience, a truly genuine imported article.

Twenty-five years' business transactions with the largest and most respectable exporting houses in France and Great Britain have afforded me unsurpassed facilities for supplying our home market with Wines, Liqueurs and Liqueurs of the best and most approved brands in Europe, in addition to my own distillery in Holland for the manufacture of the "Schiedam Schnapps."

The latter, so long tested and approved by the medical faculties of the United States, West Indies and South America as an invaluable Therapeutic, a wholesome, pleasant and perfectly safe beverage in all climates and during all seasons, quickly excited the cupidity of the home manufacturers and vendors of a spurious article under the same name.

I trust that I have, after much toil and expense, surrounded all my importations with safeguards and directions which, with ordinary circumspection, will insure their delivery, as I receive them from Europe, to all my customers.

I would, however, recommend, in all cases where it is possible, that orders be sent direct to my Depot, 22 Beaver street, New York, or that purchases be made of my accredited agents.

In addition to a large stock of Wines, Brandy, &c., in wood, I have a considerable supply of old tried foreign Wines, embracing vintages of many past years, bottled up before the commencement of the war, which I can especially recommend to all connoisseurs of these rare luxuries.

In conclusion, I would specially call the attention of my Southern customers to the advantage to be derived by transmitting their orders without loss of time, or calling personally at the Depot, in order to insure the fulfillment of their favors from the present large and well selected assortment.
