In connection with the subject matter of the alleged mis-be goes or somebody else.) it may be stated as a matter of belief by well-informed and sound men, that the British Government or Ministry jis willing to pay the claims based upon the depredations of the rebel pirates which were fitted out in English waters. The reason of this is the fear of the Ministry that the tables may be turned upon Great Britain fat some future time. I were better for her to pay now even an immense sum than to suffer hereafter not only a direct loss as we have in the loss for years of profits upon the carrying trade of so great a portion of our commer-cial marine by its transfer to foreign hands. The great difficulty of the British Ministry in this regard is the decision of High Chancellor Wood, that the claims are not founded in the law of nations by reason of the de facto rebel or belligerent power had been recognized by the nations of the part of by such a fact or logal idea, that the de facto rebel or belligerent power had been the British Ministry are willing to the British by the states were a de facto powernment. THE WHITE MEN AND THE NEGRO. -The Louisville Journal says :

With reference to the destiny of the emancipated slaves, our conviction is, that as long as they remain in the midst of the white people, as freemen, they must labor daily for their own livelihood, and that, finally, they must give way before the increasing emi-gration of white laborers into the South whenever the latter can answer the need for labor in that section. Believing, as we do, in the superiority in every respect, of the white man over the negro, and holding, also, that there is no portion of the country, between here and the Gulf, where the white man cannot successfully till the soil, we have felt warranted in the prediction that the ultimate destiny of the negro will be similar to that of the Indian, who have exercised supreme control over the present States of the Union, has been driven from his former hunting grounds to the most sterile region of the far West, whence he must soon depart to make room for the resistless tide of white emigration.

columns to-day another awful steamboat disaster within the precincts of the city. The magnificent Albany steamer St. John, on her arrival here yesterday morning from the State capital, was the scene of a most terrible calamity, by which nine lives were instantly sacrificed and fifteen persons horribly wounded. As the steamer was nearing her dock in the North River, opposite Hoboken, the boiler exploded, blowing away several of the state-rooms, and either killing or scalding all the inmates. From the statements which have reached us this accident was evidently the result of gross carelessness, the engineer, the explosion. We trust that the investigation will be conducted with a view to ascertain if this be so, and to put the responsibility upon the guilty parties. It will be remembered that the Grand Jury recently indicted for manslaughter the owners of the steamboat Arrow. There is now another case in which the authorities can exercise themselves with great profit to the community, and we hope they will not be deterred from doing so. [New York Herald, 31st.

New Fenian Projects.

The Fenian Senate, composed of some fifteen persons, has, we underbeen in secret session in this stand city for the past few days, cogitating on some initiatory project in the new revolutionary movements in the British empire—probably to be the seizure of a portion of the British American colonies in Canada or Nova Scotia, thence to inaugurate on a sub-stantial basis the insurrection, which is not to be merely an Irish affair, but a British republican revolution, exantil an English republic is estab-lished. When the Fenians have es-tablished themselves in one of the British provinces, they can fit out some Irish Alabama or Shenandonh, or say a dozen or two of them, and commence operations against British commerce on the high seas. In these matters, of course, our Government is strictly neutral. It has nothing to say upon the question, and will undoubtedly preserve that rigid system of neutrality which the Government of England observed during our four years' war. Indeed, we might reply to the British Government, in the words of Lord Russell, that these British republicans are seeking for their independence, while the British Government is seeking for empire. We believe that there has been a large accession of United States officers of high rank and much experience in the late war to the ranks of the Fenians-men who will no doubt bring wisdom, caution and discipline to the movement, which, in the hands of blatant orators and selfish, inexperienced agitators, might have proved a fizzle. However, whatever new projects the Fenian revolutionists may have in view in British America or elsewhere, our Government will not trouble itself about them. We pre sume that the precedent set by Eng-land during our rebellion will be a sufficient guide the action of the Fenians. Whe events progress for a few weeks we may ask Lord Palmer-ston and Lord Russell how they like playing the game out.

A QUEER STORY FROM PENNSYLVA-NIA. -A letter to the Pittsburg Chro-nicle, dated at Clearfield, Pa., October 8, tells a doubtful story of an organ-ized band who intend to resist the bounty tax in Pennsylvania. The writer, who uses extremely bad Eng-The lish, says

It is noting to see from sixty to one hundred men drilling in the woods, and they are all armed with Spencers and sixteen shooters, navies and sabres; it is their intention to burn up all men's buildings that had anything . do with laying on the bounty tax. In Indiana County, on the 28th of September, when Governor Curtin was in Indiana, they had a meeting in the woods, between there and the Rural village, and there was over two hundred men present. They held their meeting in the woods at night. It's time there was something done, for there is no telling when they will commence their work of destruction. commence their work of destruction. They are going to tear up the Central Railroad, to keep troops from being sent up in this part of the country. I heard some of them say, at a meet-ing, that there would be a rise from Delaware to the Rocky Mountains. I have heard them say that they would make their bounties of some of the old fellows that had their hows all at old fellows that had their boys all at home when the war was going on. A man that had anything to do with the laying on of the bounty tax had better be lighting out for some other part of the country. The first thing they do will be to capture Pittsburg to get artillery. Little did they think when they were letting the soldiers take their arms home with them the use they were going to make of them. I of gross carelessness, the engineer, or his assistant, as it is asserted by a passenger, having been discovered asleep previous to and at the time of the availation of the men in this part of the County belong to this band of cut-throats. They have their pass-words and byc-laws, almost as the Knights of the Golden Circle. J. G. W.

OBITUARY.

Died, in New York, on the 28th ultimo, of typhoid fever, catsed by over-exertion, Mr. F. L. VALORY, for several years a resident of this city. He was well known in this community, and leaves a large family and circle of acquaintances to mourn his loss.

Died, on the 21st of August, in Pickens District, HATTIE A. RICHARDSON, be-loved wife of J. Frank Richardson, and eldest daughter of G. S. Bower, of Colum-bia S. C.

District, HATTIE A. RICHARDSON, be-loved wife of J. Frank Richardson, and eldest daughter of G. S. Bower, of Colum-bia, S. C. A few short months ago, the subject of this little tribute left the home of her childhood, her food parents and sister, a lovely bride; and with a kind and devoted husband she lived happily the few months alloted her on earth. Although far away from her parents, she was surrounded by loving relatives in her last moments. Our dear Hattie possessed an amiable and gen-tle disposition, and by her noble qualities endeared herself to many friends. Her mild, gentle countenance beamed with love, and each smile was wreathed with purity and innocence. It was the privilege of the writer to be with her during her last illness, and saw how she bore, without a murmur, her intense amferings. She put her trust in God, and was sustained by His love in her last moments. On her dying bed she evinced her love for Him, and we now trust she is "a men-ber of the church triumphant in Heaven." She spoke with great calinness to her be-reaved husband and friends, of futurity. Enshrined in our hearts are the requests for her parents and sister far away, as well as for those around her couch, as she bado each farwell, "to meet her in Heaven." Her last words, so expressive of her meck, quiet spirit, were: "I will be their guardian angel around the throne of God." When the hand of death is him upon one so young and lovely, we feel its terrors with greater keenness. Snatched away in all her radiant loveliness from a beloved husband, a little babe, who ne 'er had smilde upon its mother, fond parents, we feel 'ts hard, but bow to the Divine decree, and say. "Thy will, oh Lood, not mine, be done." Her bright spirit has only fitted away from earth to rest in realms of bliss. May the bereaved partner he antained by the hand of his Sariour in this sad loss, and live in hope of a sweet recannion in Heaven. Herstrieken relatives and friends have the consolation, that 'ere long we shall all meet in that "blissfal iand abov have the consolation, that 'ere long we shall all meet in that "blissfal land above," to units with the loved ones gone before, in singing sweet anthems in the choir of Heaven.

Died, on the 1st of September, HATTIE BOWER, infant daughter of Hattie A, and J. Frank Richardson, agod two weeks and

To the Members of the Legislature.

Without any disparagement of the other respectable gentlemen who have been named for State Treasurer, the friends of Mr. EDWIN J. SCOTT would respectfully arge his eminent fitness and qualifications for that office.

Left an orphan at an early age, he entered into a mercantile employment, when fourteen years old, under a gentleman of this place, in the year 1817. From that time to this - a term of forty-eight yearshe has been exclusively devoted to such labors and occupations as constitute the very best preparation for the efficient discharge of the duties of this office.

In 1822, penniless and friendless, he went to Lexington District; in two years was elected Tax Collector, and served two terms; was twice elected Clerk of the Court of Common Pleas-the last time without opposition-and during that time represented that District in the Convention of 1832; for the last twenty-seven years has been Teller and Cashier in the Commercial Bank of this city. Never seeking notoriety or diversion from the strict line of his proper duties, he was called, by the general voice of those who knew him, to a seat in the Board of Trustees of the Columbia Female College, to the State Central Association for the relief of our soldiers, to our City Conncil administration, to a seat in the present Legislature, though announced only three days before the election.

This may seem an honorable record, but it is one of which he need not be ashamed-Without the prestige of ancestral honorswith no family influence-with no education except as he tanght himself-he has wrought his way up to a place among the most honorable.

Thrown out of his proper sphere of employment by the results of the war, impoverished as we all are, he is in wast; but he Pig Hams, seeks no charity from the State. Working all his life for his daily bread, he will do so to the end; and by his integrity, financial abilities and wide range of experience, will, if elected, render the public interests a full equivalent for any compensation or emoluments of the office.
