

MISCELLANY

The "Ager." BY A POET. Once upon an evening bleary, while I set me, dreamy, dreary...

Ah! distinctly I remember it was in that wet September, When the earth, and every member of creation that it bore...

So I set me, nearly napping, in the sunshine, stretching, gapping, And a feeling quite delighted with the breeze from 'neath the floor...

All along my back the creeping soon gave place to rushing, leaping, As if countless frozen demons had concluded to explore...

'Twas the ager, and it shook me into heavy clothes, and took me Shaking to the kitchen—every place where there was a warmth in store...

Then it rested till the morrow, when it came with all the horror That it had the face to borrow, shaking, shaking, as before...

And to-day the swallows fitting round my cottage see me sitting Moodily within the sunshine, just inside my silent door...

A wife in San Francisco lately put a petition for divorce in the Court, on the ground that her husband was a "confounded fool." The Court, who was an old bachelor, wouldn't admit the plea...

The friends of Dr. A. N. TALLEY nominate him as a candidate for Mayor at the ensuing election in April next. Nov 2*

For Congress. Dr. R. C. GRIFFIN, of Edgefield, is announced as a candidate for CONGRESS from the Third Congressional District...

For District Judge. The friends of W. B. JOHNSTON, Esq., who has so efficiently filled the office of Magistrate for the District of Richland...

For Congress. The friends of Gen. SAMUEL MCGOWAN announce him as a Candidate for the United States Congress from the Third Congressional District...

For State Treasurer. The friends of Dr. R. W. GIBBES respectfully nominate him to the Legislature for this office. His well known business character, energy and ability eminently recommend him...

For Congress. We are authorized to announce JAMES FARROW, Esq., of Spartanburg, as a candidate to represent, in the Congress of the United States, the Fourth Congressional District...

Burning of the Museum. LETTER FROM MR. BARNUM.

New York, July 14, 1865. MESSRS. HERRING & Co.—GENTLEMEN: Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage, that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial, it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safe. Yours truly, P. T. BARNUM.
