

MISCELLANY

My Child.

O, that thou couldst forever be
As pure and bright as now,
O, that care would never leave
Its shadows on thy brow.

O, that tears might never dim
The lustre of thine eye,
Or thy sweet lips—so innocent—
Give utterance to a sigh.

I would not have thy beauty marred
By sickness, grief or sin,
I'd have thee beautiful without,
But lovelier far within.

And when I fold thee to my heart,
And kiss thy smiling face,
I ask not fame or gold for thee,
But health and heavenly grace.

And may a mother's fervent prayer
For thee be heard on high;
A prayer, my precious one, I breathe,
When none but God is nigh.

A BIG CITY.—London spreads over more than 720 square miles, contains 2,600 miles of streets, has 360,000 houses, a population of 3,000,000, and an assessed annual rental of over £60,000,000.

INDUSTRY.—Rollin did not commence his great historical work until the age of seventy, thus affording a most singular instance of industrial energy.

Flowers fling their wealth upon the vacant air, and rich men often fling theirs upon the vacant heir.

Woman is said to be a mere delusion, but it is sometimes pleasant to hug delusions.

What ship would be freighted with knowledge?—Scholarship.

What word of ease is like a call to meals?—Com-for-table.

Why is a bald head like Heaven?—Because there's no parting there.

Special Notice.
COUNCIL CHAMBER,
COLUMBIA, November 22, 1865.
THE attention of persons making application for LICENSE to RETAIL SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, is called to the following extracts from the City Ordinances. No applications will be considered framed otherwise than in strict conformity with the subjoined regulations, now in force:
SECTION 1. Be it ordained, That any person who may be desirous of procuring a license to keep a tavern or retail spirituous liquors within the city of Columbia, shall apply, in writing, to the City Council; and in case the application be for a license to retail spirituous liquors, it shall be accompanied by the certificate of two respectable freeholders of said city, recommending the applicant as a fit and proper person to be entrusted with a license to retail, and agreeing to become his sureties; and in case such application be for a license to keep a tavern, it shall be accompanied by the recommendation of at least six (6) respectable freeholders of the neighborhood where said tavern is proposed to be kept, who shall certify that the person so recommended by them is of good repute for honesty and sobriety, and known to the persons recommending to have at least two spare beds, and necessary bedding more than are required for the family of the said applicant, and is well provided with house-room, stabling and provender.
SECTION 2. And be it further ordained, That any person to whom a license to retail spirituous liquors may be granted as aforesaid, shall, together with the persons by whom he or she may have been recommended, enter into bond, in the penal sum of one thousand dollars, wherein and whereby they shall jointly and severally obligate themselves to the corporation of the city of Columbia, that the holder of the license will in every respect comply with all the laws of the State of South Carolina respecting the retailing of spirituous liquors, and with all the ordinances of the city of Columbia, now being or hereafter to be made of force respecting the same.
SECTION 3. Be it further ordained, That each and every person or persons to whom license may be granted, shall, after complying with the above conditions, pay for each and every license to retail spirituous liquors, in quantities not less than a quart, the sum of thirty dollars; and for every license to keep a tavern, the sum of fifty dollars; and such person or persons, on complying with the conditions and making the payment aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive a certificate, signed by the Clerk of the Council.
SECTION 4. Be it further ordained, That all and every person or persons to whom license may be granted, shall, after complying with the above conditions, pay for each and every license to retail spirituous liquors, in quantities not less than a quart, the sum of thirty dollars; and for every license to keep a tavern, the sum of fifty dollars; and such person or persons, on complying with the conditions and making the payment aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive a certificate, signed by the Clerk of the Council.
SECTION 5. Be it further ordained, That each and every person or persons to whom license may be granted, shall, after complying with the above conditions, pay for each and every license to retail spirituous liquors, in quantities not less than a quart, the sum of thirty dollars; and for every license to keep a tavern, the sum of fifty dollars; and such person or persons, on complying with the conditions and making the payment aforesaid, shall be entitled to receive a certificate, signed by the Clerk of the Council.
SECTION 6. Be it further ordained, That no license to keep a tavern, or retail spirituous liquors, within the limits of the city of Columbia, shall hereafter be granted to any applicant thereof whose recommendation shall be signed by any freeholder who previously may have recommended more than one other person beside the applicant, or who shall be at the time surety for more than one tavern keeper or retailer of spirituous liquors.
Done and ratified in Council, &c.
The necessary blanks and forms can be procured at the office of the City Clerk.
Published by order of the Mayor for general information. F. H. ELMORE,
Nov 16 4 City Clerk.

Burning of the Museum.
LETTER FROM MR. BARNUM.
New York, July 14, 1865.
MESSRS. HERRING & Co.—GENTLEMEN: Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage, that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.
The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.
After twenty-four hours of trial, it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safe. Yours truly, P. T. BARNUM.
