FOR THE SOUTH .- Since the re moval, by Government, of the prohibition of the shipments of ammunition and fire-arms to the lately rebellious States, the transmission of them thence from New York has been heavy. From the 29th of September heavy. From the 29th of September to the 21st inst, there were shipped at that port for the South 259,535 pounds of sporting powder, 7,925 pounds of blasting powder, 1,641,093 pounds of shot, 20,318,994 percussion caps, 2,244,400 cartridges, 1,429 guns and 6,600 pistols.

A European letter states that the cotton culture in Italy is progressing so rapidly, and so favorably, that the home manufactories are no longer home manufactories are no longer obliged to send, monthly, four millions of francs to Liverpool to buy cotton with. Several rich associations have been formed in Italy, who, during the next year, will extend cotton plantations all over Naples and Sigilar.

Burning of the Museum.

LETTER FROM MR. BARNUM.

NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.—Gentlemen:
Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public. I am happy to verify the old adage, that "it's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After twenty-four hours of trial, it was found among the debris, and on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safe. Yours truly, P. T. BARNUM.
