PLAYED OUT! PLAYED OUT! THE old credit system has played out; but sometimes it is very convenient to send and get an article, or have a job of work done without having the cash demanded immediately. These little favors I take great pleasure in granting, but expect them to be paid for in a reasonable time, as I do the work at cash prices and am working very cheap, trying to put all goods in my line in the reach of every class of persons—especially so with all work and articles of necessity, such as STOVES, Tinware, Plumbing, Roofing, &c. Now, will persons please consider what an amount of labor it is, and how much it costs, and particularly how unpleasant it is to have to DUN, and how pleasant it would be dealing with men who would call and settle promptly "once in each month." Will you call and settle your bills with April 19 HENRY H. BLEASE?
