"Let our Just Censures"

Attend the True Event."

The Queen of England, though theoretically head of the (English) church and titular defender of the faith, is not a very good church woman. She lets her children get married in Lent; she gives drawing-room and state concerts on the Fridays of that holy season; she gives her yearly ball to her servants on Good Friday itself; when in Scotland, she goes to the Presbyterian meeting, and seems to enjoy it; recently, when a wealthy neighbor of hers at Balmoral, a private gentleman, undertook to build an Anglican chapel at his own expense, she had word conveyed to him that he would favor her by dismissing the idea. Naturally, her loving subjects of the high church persuasion are a good deal scandalized by all this.

A PROMISE FULFILLED.—At Sing Sing, N. Y., one of the men in the State's service, named West, informed a colleague, named Bentley, that he would stab him in the morning. He did so. Bentley expired in thirty minutes. Now, if West is hung, the drama will possibly end to the general satisfaction.

The punishment to which the Philadelphia child-stealers are liable, under the Pennsylvania statute, is $2,000 fine and seven years solitary imprisonment.

There is but one way to obtain business—publicity; but one way of gaining publicity—advertising.

Advertising is to business what steam is to machinery—the grand propelling power.

Now is the TIME—To advertise, at our summer rates, and while there is leisure to read the papers.

State South Carolina, Barnwell Co. By the Board of County Commissioners of said County.

By virtue of an Act of the General Assembly of said State, ratified on the 12th day of February, A. D. 1873, and of a resolution of the said Board of County Commissioners, adopted on the 15th day of June, A. D. 1874, the undersigned will sell, at public auction, in the town of Barnwell, the County seat of said County, on MONDAY, the 7th day of September next, it being sale-day, the COURT HOUSE BUILDING AND LOT, in the town of Blackville, with all its privileges and appurtenances, to the highest bidder for cash, and will make titles to the purchaser at said sale.

DESCRIPTION OF THE BUILDING—A large, new and finely constructed brick building, two stories high, fronting the South Carolina Railroad, and one hundred yards, more or less, distant therefrom; said building being forty feet wide by sixty feet long, containing six spacious rooms on the first floor, and a spacious court hall, and two small rooms on the second floor, all plastered and nicely finished, with four fire-places in the hall and one in each room of the building, with a passage-way nine feet wide running through the entire length of the building on the ground floor; said building being roofed with tin, fitted up with mantel-pieces, Venetian blinds, window sash, and in every way commodious and convenient.

The lot of land belonging to the County, upon which said Court House building is situated, contains two acres, more or less. J. ALLEN TOMIN, Chairman. HERCULES MCCREARY, HENRY COKE, County Commissioners Barnwell County. June 26

Hay! Hay! Hay!!! THE SOUTHERN WAREHOUSE COMPANY has always on hand the largest stock of HAY in Columbia, comprising both Eastern and Western, which will be delivered anywhere in the city, free of charge for drayage, and at the very lowest rates. Our facilities for purchasing and handling are such as to enable us to compete successfully with any other house, and parties in need will do well to give us a call before purchasing elsewhere; for we cannot be undersold. Particular attention is called to our stock of Eastern HAY, which is the best in the market. May 31

Our Thermopylae.

In view of the combinations which have been formed to strengthen and sustain the Radical newspaper organ at this place, a word as to ourselves may not be amiss to our readers and the public. Without referring, in a notice of this kind, to the supposed and probable sources of supply which have been laid under contribution to revive that failing journal, we may take the statements as they appear in it, and draw from them a useful and valuable lesson. It says that it "has been recently purchased by several influential Republicans, who have contributed their means to its support. The paper was on the eve of suspension, when they stepped forward to save it, and to nail the Republican colors to its mast-head." Here is a combination of men, who unite their means, talents, experience, influence and labors to uphold their party journal. That journal is specially devoted to a maintenance of its party organization. It has rallied every available element and brought it into line for this purpose. It has no thought of the great interests or violated rights of the people. It moves wholly upon the plane of party prejudice, party passion and party ascendancy. It seeks to perpetuate its domination as of the most vital necessity and at all hazards. With the wrecks of the ruin and disgrace it has wrought lying round on all hands; with the condemnation of the American people ringing in its ears every day; with the terrible denunciations of decent Republican journals all over this country; with the frantic desperation of madness it seeks to prolong its wretched existence. It craves that it may continue to govern the fortunes of the State of South Carolina, not appreciating the fact that it has, by its ignorance, corruption and indecency, by its crimes against the people, against their liberties, against civilization itself, forfeited the right to exist, and much more, the honor to govern. It gives notice that it will make a desperate struggle for a new lease of power, and it puts forth efforts corresponding to the importance of the stake and the magnitude of the issue. Having appropriated a fund, and made their journal strong in means; having enlisted the services and interest of several writers; having made a pool, so to speak, of the political fortunes of a number of aspiring men and candidates, they are ready to exert its power for evil; they mean to disseminate its corrupting doctrines, and, if possible, make its sophistries popular and prevalent.

We shall not speak of ourselves, further than to say that we occupy in this contest no doubtful attitude. We have certain clearly-defined views and objects which we seek to impress upon the public mind. We see just before us gigantic issues, and it is our effort to enlighten and prepare the country for them. As we have frequently said, there is much to be done. If we were to-day enlightened upon the matters which so nearly concern us; if our people fully and rightly appreciated the situation in which they are; if they only saw and felt the momentous events which are hastening on; if they were both informed of and sternly united upon the duties of the hour, the Radical power would melt away before their stern determination. Will our friends think of the great cause which they, as well as we, ought to have at heart? Will they strengthen our hands by their sympathy, encouragement and support? Our means are moderate, our resources small. We are a unit against a multitude. We are alone in the midst of strong combinations. We depend entirely upon legitimate business. We have nothing to rely upon but subscriptions and advertisements. These we want, and it is not too much for us to say, these we are entitled to have. We ought to-day to number at least 5,000 subscribers in this State. That would bring us advertising. That would make us peculiarly independent. That would enable us to employ and pay for talent in employees and writers in number and force sufficient to make a strong impression on the side we espouse and defend. We should like to send forth a strong and able journal, the powerful advocate of truth, the inflexible exponent of duty, the clarion voice summoning the people to concert of action against the wrongs they too patiently endure. We should enjoy laying on our editorial scourge every day, whipping the rascals naked through the land. But if we are to be a power, to stand as a sentinel on the watch-tower, to send rays of intelligence and light into every corner of the country, to pour out a daily stream which shall fertilize and gladden the land, to be a terror to evil-doers and a beacon-light of guidance and hope to an oppressed people, our friends must sustain us, the public must stand by our side. We have long stood in the breach, battling with such strength as our almost unaided arm could wield. We ask that we shall not be left in the lurch. And now, looking away from ourselves, we say to the country, this position is one of immense importance. It will not do to give it up, or to lose it, or to leave it to a weak and insufficient force to maintain. Man it thoroughly, and place it in the keeping of faithful men.

Spartanburg and Asheville Railroad. Nature's Highway Across the Mountains! LIGHT GRADES, EASY CURVES, NO TUNNELING. LET IT BE BUILT SPEEDILY! A link in the Air-Line Road between the cities of Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, Chicago and Charleston, seventy-four miles long, with less than twenty miles of heavy work. Shorter than any line from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore to either of these cities, and many hundred miles nearer to these centres of Western trade than any existing line to Charleston. The Road that promises to make Charleston the market for the trade of the great North-west, the West Indies, South America and Europe; also, an important emigrant station. ECONOMICAL IN CONSTRUCTION, SAFE IN MANAGEMENT AND PROFITABLE IN RESULTS. An important enterprise for the development of South Carolina. Shares Fifty Dollars each, payable in ten installments. Every citizen of this State should own at least one Share. CHARLESTON, with her magnificent Harbor and genial climate; her immense undeveloped back country, containing a fertile soil, fine pasture grounds and inexhaustible water power; her proximity to the West Indies and South America, and her unparalleled European ocean course, is destined, upon the completion of this important TRUNK LINE, to emerge from her prostrated condition and become what nature has intended she should be—the GREAT COMMERCIAL METROPOLIS of the SOUTHERN SECTION of the UNITED STATES.

LIMIT OF STOCKHOLDERS' LIABILITY. The following clause in the charter is published for the information of subscribers: SEC. 4.
