LONDON, July 1.—A special from Vienna says that Prince Milan, in his proclamation, announces: "Turkey provoked war by not satisfying Bosnia and by threatening Serbia and by threatening Serbia we enter Bosnia in the cause of humanity and nationality, and to re-establish peace without offending Turkey's integrity." The proclamation mentions Austria thankfully for her efforts to protect the Christians.

A London despatch says, "The Liberals in Parliament will question the Government respecting its Eastern policy. The liberal sentiment of the entire country is against unnecessary complications which may be caused by the support of Turkey. Fears prevail that the war in the East cannot be localized or confined to a conflict between the Servians and Turks. There is much talk about the review of the volunteers, which was held yesterday. Hitherto the Government had not permitted the volunteer reviews on so large a scale in Hyde Park. The Government is evidently now patting this hitherto despised force on the back."

LONDON, July 3.—A telegram from Belgrade says the Servian army commenced, yesterday, reconnoitring the South-eastern frontier, and it is reported occupied some important strategical positions on the Turkish frontier.

The Times has the following: A despatch from Vienna says official intelligence from Belgrade says the Servians, yesterday crossed the frontier at three points. The places are not mentioned, but from the position of their forces, it may be presumed that these points are Alerdinatz, Lisetz and some point on the Dwina.

The 5th Cavalry, Major Carr, under orders from Sheridan, will proceed Northward over the trail along Little Powder River, to cut off the Sioux Indians from resorting to the agencies for ammunition, and force them to lay down their arms, before they can seek protection or food from the Government.

HOW GOV. This nomination was not made by the leaders of the party. It was the people who made it. They want reform. They have wanted it a long while, and, in looking about, they have become convinced that it is to be found here (pointing at himself.) They want it; that is what they are after. They are sick of the corruptions and mal-administration of their affairs. They want a change, and one for the better—a thorough reformation. SOUTHERN MELODIES.—A characteristic feature of the exhibition, and a very picturesque one, too, is the presence in the North-western portion of Machinery Hall of several colored men, who are employed by a Virginia tobacco manufacturer to show the process of packing tobacco, but who, while they are packing, amuse themselves and a larger number of hearers, by singing well-known Southern melodies. They have unconsciously become quite a distinctive feature of the exhibition, and attract a great deal of attention, particularly from people of the North and foreigners who have never heard a "darkey song" before.

THE 2d.—The city of Philadelphia was all excitement on the 2d—flags, banners and transparencies flying in front every building, and the streets were thronged with people in procession.
