COLUMBIA.

Tuesday Morning, October 2, 1877.

The President's Tour. The press and the people of both sections seem to be altogether satisfied with the sayings and doings of the President on his Southern tour. Even those States that gave the largest majority for Tilden, seem to be most delighted with Hayes. His Southern policy, we suppose, is one of the secrets of his warm reception and the general endorsement of his principles. In other words, as long as he tracks the line of his present policy, the solid men of both parties intend to sustain his administration. The Springfield Republican thinks the President's trip "really culminated at Atlanta, when the capital of the State that gave Tilden his greatest majority, turned out to do him honor," and that "nothing could probably be better than Gov. Colquitt's welcome to Hayes as the great pacificator, the peace-maker-between brethren estranged, and the President's reply was the best speech of the whole trip." The New York Herald is equally satisfied, and even jubilant. It says: "Nothing could President's) speech at Atlanta, S.C. Peace Society.—The fifth anniversary which we printed yesterday. It was pitched in the same key as all his New England speeches, and, in fact, all his other Southern speeches, and, in fact, all his other Southern speeches, and in fact, all his other Southern speeches, below with the promotion of peace on earth and good will to men.

Excussions.—This appears to be the railroad to the promotion of peace on the peace of the promotion of peace on th be better of its kind than his (the but it was not marred by any ex-pressions inconsistent with the dignity of his great office. Besides the lesser merits of perfect good taste and exquisite tact, it was marked throughout by a justness and generosity of sentiment which not only captivated his immediate hearers, but will command the general approval of the so.id, sober-thinking men of both parties. The excellence of this speech may, in part, be due to the admirable temper and tone of Gov. Colquitt's address of welcome No speaker ever hit the mark more exactly in the middle than the Democratic Governor of Georgia did, when he said to the President: 'The great moving cause of these hearty demonstrations which have greeted you since you reached Southern soil, as to be found in the generous confidence with which you believe what trust, which will not exact cringing and servile guarantees." The Augusta Chronicle and Constitutionalist says: "If anybody at the North is displeased with the Southern tour, it is mainly the 'stalwart Republican,' who fattens on the spoils of war, and has nothing to hope from peace. It may be that the machinery which led to the inauguration of Mr. Hayes was false in fact, in law, and in everything else, but there can be no question that it accomplished one tremendous result, the unmasking of the Radical Republican idea and party, which were incarnated in President Grant." The Missouri Republican well describes the condition of that faction: "From that day to this the Republican party has been like a man awaking from a drunken stupor. It does not recognize itself; it cannot ascertain its bearings. Its old land-marks are gone, and it seems to be in a new world. When it looks and listens, it sees strange sights and hears strange sounds; the country at peace; the personal retinue of Grantism scattered to the winds; carpetbagism wrecked and dishonored; Wade Hampton escorting a Republican Executive and Cabinet through the South; a million of the citizens of Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia, shouting to Mr. Hayes the heartiest welcome ever given to an American President; the strife between whites and blacks ended, and the colored people in many Southern States contentedly voting the Democratic ticket. The Republican leaders realize this transformation slowly and faithfully, and not the least of their surprise is at finding that the shock which shatters their delusion comes from one whom they perverted law and facts to make President," Ex-Senator Thurman, in a public address on the Ohio stump, the other day, while con-demning the Electoral Commission, admitted that the President was constitutionally chosen; that his title was without flaw, and that insomuch as he had carried out politically the prime doctrines and policies of the Democracy, in his treatment of the South, he was deserving of and would receive the everlasting gratitude of mankind. The Southern people will support the President so long as he keeps on his present line. Gov. Colquitt and gia, and the President, doubtless, understood and appreciated language which had no uncertain sound.

City Items.

OYSTERS—In every style can be obtained at all reasonable hours, at Pat Mechan's. Other solids and fluids constantly on hand.

RELIGIOUS GATHERINGS.—The Presbyterian Synod convenes in this city on the 17th instant. The Methodist Conference assembles at the Washington Street Church, next month.

NEXT .- John McCullough, the noted tragedian, with a capital company, gives one performance in the Opera House, on Tuesday evening, October 9—Richard III. He stands AI in the SHELL FISH.—At Sweeney's dining saloon and restamant corner Gervais and Gates streets, you can obtain shell fish of all kinds—oysters. clams, shrimp, crabs, etc., done up in ail styles; also, scale fish and cels. Try them.

ANOTHER.—Little Willie Derrick an adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, departed this life, yesterday, from that terrible disease, diplitheria. This is the third death in the family in less than a year-rather, sister and brother.

A SMASH UP.—A horse attached to a wagon belonging to a Mr. Watts, became frightened at the music, yesterday evening, and ran down the side walk, in the vicinity of the Prients office—the pedestrians giving a wide berth. Nobody hurt, but the wagon will need renewing.

The Minstreis.—The genuine Georgia Minstrels give an entertainment in the Opera House, to-morrow night. They have "travelled this country all over," given the Europeans a turn and been well received everywhere. You have seen what imitators can do, now give the genuing article a trial.

COULD NOT SING.—At the funeral of little Cora Love, in the Preshyterian Church, on Sunday afternoon, the hymn was given out and the school-mates of the dead child attempted to sing it, but they broke down completely, and the teachers carried it through. It was an affecting sight. Cora was a great favor. was an affecting sight. Cora vite with teachers and children. Cora was a great favor-

EXCURSIONS.—This appears to be the railroad excursion season. The C., C. & A. Railroad brought a party from Augusta, yesterday morning who speat the day in Commbia. The South Carolina runs excursion trains during the present week, tickets good forten days. An excursion train runs to Wilmington, over the W., C. & A., next week-and yet we are not

WHERE THEY ARE. - Cardozo is now living in Where They Are.—Cardozo is now living in Washington Hoge is believed to be in Canada, and Kimpton has disappeared from his hands in New York. It is said that all the fugitives now at the North expect an attack all along the line soon and are misk ag preparations accordingly. The first step will be to raise the question of Gov. Hampton's authority, in the hope of seming as much delay as possible and of ultim tely transferring the trials to the Federal Courts.

transferring the trials to the Federal Courts.

DEAD.—We regret to announce the death, on Sunday last, of Percy A. Beard, a young man, about nineteen years of age, and a native of this city, from consumption. His afflicted mother, sister and brothers have the sympathy of their many friends in their bereavement. The Richland Volunteer Rifles, of which organization he was a member, buried him with military honors, yesterday afternoon. The Phænix Hook and Ladder Company were also in attendance.

SALE DAY -Yesterday being saleday, a large number of country people were in the city and a quantity of property was disposed for Great interest was centered in the sale of Niles G. Parker's effects, consisting principally of magnificent furniture, p'etures, &c. A crowd was in attendance and the articles brought higher prices than was expected. To deather with the prices than was expected. prices than was expected. To day there will be another large sale of furniture at Dr. J. L. Nea-gle's residence. Auctions speak louder than

PROF. COOKE'S WONDERS .- The exhibition at PROF. COOKE'S WONDERS.—The exhibition at the Opera House, last night, was truly wonderful. but not as complete as was intended. His wine and water trick is a mystery. To-night, he will perform additional wonders—among others allowing any number of persons in the audience to write questions, and retain the slips in their possession, and they will be correctly answered—and then exposing the whole thing, so that every apparent delusion will be understood. An extraordinary entertainment may be expected. be expected.

First.—The dwelling of Mr. P. Spellman, on Sunter street. near Senate, was destroyed by fire, yesterday morning, about 2 o'clock. The unseasonable hour was unfavorable to spreading the alarm, and some delay occurred before the firemen reached the spot. The flames were confined to the building in which they originated. But a small portion of the furniture was saved. There is hardly a doubt but that it was the work of an incendiary. Only a short time ago, Mr. Spellman's bellows was ruined, and other dirty work done about his shop, and it looks as if the flend was still unsatisfied. If the guilty party could be detected, his punishment would be severe. The property was partially insured.

New Publications.—We have received from FIRE.-The dwelling of Mr. P. Spellman, be severe. The property was partially insured.

New Publications.—We have received from the publishers. Messrs. Dick & Fitzgerald, a neatly-printed volume, entitled "Dick's Recitations and Readings," which is now being issued in numbers, each containing about 180 pages of entertaining matter, in prose and poetry. The price is thirty cents in paper, or fifty cents in cloth. Address the publishers in New York.

"Out of the Depths, the story of a Woman's Life," has just been issued from the press of the Petersons, Philadelphia, as the ninth volume of their $1 series of good novels. This book is hardly up to its predecessors in point of interest, though it is written in a clear, forcible style. It is well worth reading, however, and we reconis well worth reading, however, and we recom-

is well worth reading, however, and we recommend it to our readers.

Sunday in Columbia.—Most of our churches were unusually well attended, last Sanday. The venerable and eloquent Dr. Plumer occupied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church in the morning, and preached one of the most powerful sermons that has been heard in Columbia for many months. He selected as his theme the Fourth Commandment, and handled his interesting subject in a masterly style, conclusively proving by the cogency of his reasoning that this important Commandment is as binding and obligatory on us to-day as it was when thundered forth from Mount Sinai. He clearly dissipated the erroneous opinion held by many, that the Sabbath should be kept only as a day of pleasure and recreation. Such a forcible discourse as this will surely be productive of much good in the community. In the afterooon, the funeral of little Cora Love took place at the Presbyterian Church. The solemn services were conducted by the Revs. Drs. Howe and Plumer, and were peculiarly impressive. Six Sunday school children acted as pall-bearers, and several affecting Sabbath school odes were aung, which were rendered doubly touching by the fact that little Cora, before she died, requested that these favorite bymns of hers should be sung at her funeral. The night services at the two Methodist Churches were well attended and were very interesting.

PHENIXIANA.-Cool. Dress trains grow longer and longer.

Oysters, this day, at McGuinnis' restaurant.

A cooking prize is to be contended for at the

Gov. Brown spoke the voice of Geor- to see Beecher.

Sol. D. Epstin, Esq., has departed for New York, to practice his profession.
Certain parties are beginning to make a fuss over horse racing at the State Fair.
Barbecues and base balls will hang up awhile and linen dusters be swathed in camphor.
Hall and Felker, the counterfelters, go before Judge Bryan, this morning, in Charleston.
The last of the garrison has departed from Greenville. The Columbia detail follows soon.
The crack military company of Savannah has promised to be present at our fair and compete for the prize.

for the prize.

for the prize,

Some men spend more money in getting their wives than they do in taking care of them when once in actual possession.

The novel perpetual motion machine invented by an ingenious mechanic of this city, will be exhibited at the fair, next month.

Mr. Conway requests us to say that he was not intoxicated when arrested, the other day. He had, doubtless, seen Prof. Cooke, and was spiritualized.

uslized.
"Gracious me!" exclaimed an old lady on the witness-stand in one of our courts, yesterday.
"how should I know anything about anything
I don't know anything about!"
The merchant-orator, C. F. Jackson, returned

The merchant-orator, C. F. Jacksoh, returned home, yesterday, from his Northern trip. He says business is very brisk in New York, and that there are many Southern purchasers.

Bald-headed men, who have heard that kerosene was a good remedy, are advised by competent authority to lef it severely alone. Let them charm with their intellect and morality instead of their head-gear.

Deputy United States Marshal Grant has carried to Charleston for trial, Bill Hickman and Henry Williams, colored, charged with steading Government property from the barracks of the 18th Infantry. Williams is but twelve years old.

A Go-AHRAD FIRM.—Our young friends, Catheart & Hagood, are creating a sensation in the cotton market. They are located on Main street, between the stores of Messes, Swaffield and R. L. Bryan, Esqrs., and in addition to their extensive insurance and commission business, are selling all kinds or merchandise and grain; taking orders for the same, and send-ing from first hands at the very lowest market prices. They have added to their growing busi-ness, the purchase of cotton, and are prepared to give the highest prices in cash, for the staple which clothes the world. Our old citize as reconlect when, the streets of this city were covered with wagons, and upwards of 120 000 bales of cotton were sold in our market annually. In these latter days the business of our city has re-trograded, and the safe of the staple has gone down to a low point. The consequence has naturally led to a corresponding eduction of business in all branches as well as in cutton. We are of those who believe that the diminished We are of those who betwee that the diminished business of our city has been caused, to a great extent, by the want of five men in the cotton business. Messes Catheart & Hagood, at this juncture, fill a void which was injuring our city much; and with their energy and backed up, as we learn, with ample capital, we are assured that they will not only meet with success themselves, but heip to restore business to our city Planters and tarmers may be assured that they will pay such prices for cotton, as will make it their interest to send their cotton to Columbia, and also it will be to their interest to sell in Columbia, in preference to consigning to Charleslumb ia, in preference to consigning to Charles-ton or a Northern market. It was a sight good ton or a Northern market. It was a sight good for sove eyes, on Saturday, to see the cotton bales standing on end in front of Catheart & Hagood's office. It looks like old times, looks like business and means business. We ask our friends to call on these gentlemen when they come to this city, as we are assured they will find a cquaintance mutually profitable, as well as arrecable. well as agreeable.

Puns.

MR. PROINIX: The reader will be interested Mit. Pho: Nix: The reader will be interested in knowing the occasion which called forth the following brilliant verses, and the mode of their composition. A party of "low country," people, of both sexes and of various ages, attendigation of both sexes and of various ages, attendigation of the property of the maryellors feat herein celebrated, are a dawly seize with a poetic in piration. They feet the "divine afflictus," surging in upon their souls. Their eyes are in "a fine frenzy rolling." The mountain that looms up before them, becomes a Paranssus. The confountain that slakes their thirst a Pierian spring. Forming a magic circle in the shadow of a vertical section.

Forming a nugle circle in the shudow of a venerable oak, each adds a line alternately, until the postoral poem is completed. This metrical product of many trains now presents its claim to a place among the "Curiosities of Literature." "The Pilgrimage and How it was Dunn. The sun's hot beams were pouring down, As thro' a charming mountain town,

A jolly crowd, on pleasure bent, In a jolting, springless wagon went, To do a Rock. The Rock was Dunn, l'o hear cach pun Made by the gattant Robertson. The punster liese essayed to climb, To view the prospect so sublime When half way up, he chanced to find, His Genie had been left behind. With bounding step and anxious eye, He, on a stump, did her espy, Heaving a deep and anxious sigh, And having a little private cry. "Oh. Georgie, dear!" I began to fear, That you would never more appear, To comfort your afflicted dear." And here she dropped a silent tear. Next came Frank, of heavy weight, Who reached the top, but rather late, Because of his haggard, weary mate, A sight to be seen, but not relate. Aunt Annic stepped with awakward slide. Adown the rugged mountain side. 'Twas "giving a Tiger," made her slip, And clumsily dance the "Boston Dip." She regained her feet and joined the laugh, And, gathering up her mountain staff, Onward and upward she took her way, A noble teacher of bravery. And next in order came Miss Mag, Who never thro' the day did flag. But bounded on o'er hill and crag. Gathering her trophies in a bag. Then came Mary, always quiet, But joined that day in the general riot; Skipping and hopping, full of glee, In this awest Lundof liberty.

Graceful and airy was her flight,
Along the steep and rocky height;
But as the sunny day grow hotter,
She moped and sighed for the absent Trotter. There followed next Miss Lizzie M., Who moulded of puns the brightest gem; The prize, a melon, which she won, Vanished ere ler ascent begun. The gem of climbers scaled the Rock, But fell and gave her kin a shock. The secret was, she lacked one more, To make her two shoes doubly sure (shoer.)

Then last of all came Julian U.,
As nice a boy as he could be;
He rode behind upon a steed,
Which, since morning, had no feed. The muleteer scaled the Rocky Roof;
What happenened there 'twixt vale and sky,
Was hidden from the Muse's eye. The shadows long and darkly lay Across our path, and the mules did bray, Showing our Firty came that way. Thus ended our eventful day. FUNERAL INVITATION.

The friends and acquaintances of Mr. R. W Johnson and far ily and of the late John A. J. Derrick and family, are respectfully invited to attend the funeral of WILLIE C. DERRICK, at the residence of the former, THIS AFTER-NOON, at half-past 3 o'clock.

TELEGRAMS TO DAILY PHŒNIX.

European Intelligence.

ATHENS, September 30.—Greece has sent a fresh despatch to her representatives at London, relative to her attitude. The Greek Minister of Foreign Affairs points out that neither intimi-

Foreign Affairs points out that neither intimidation nor a coup de main against Greece can suppress Hellenism. An unjust attack against Greece by the Porte would infallibly cause an insurrection of the entire Hollenist neople.

VIENNA. September 30.—The Political Correspondence publishes the tonowing from Belande: The Manistar, of War has concluded a contract with some large Servian firms for a cutading the four army corps which Servia intends to form.

A telegram from Serajavo, the capital of the A telegram from Scrajavo, the capital of the Province of Rosnia, says a portion of the Turkish troops in Bosnia have been ordered to proceed in the direction of Mostar, the capital of Herzegovinia, and the remainder to the Servian feature.

London, September 30.—A despatch from Pesth, referring to the seizure of breech-loaders and cartridges in Transylvauia, says: It is said the design of the Turkish sympathisers in Transylv mia was the formation of the Hungarian legion, numbering 50,000 men, who, acting in conjunction with a Turkish corps, were to destroy the Roumanian Railroad. It is rumored that the Hungarian General Klapka was one of the leaders. The whole affair has, however, been nipped in the bad. A letter from St. Petersburg states that Verestehagin, the well-known Russian, who was severely wounded in a monitor light on the Danube, recovered and joined the army before Plevna, and was there killed. This is probably a mistake, for Verestchagin's brother, who was killed at Plevna.

A Constantinople despatch says the Turkish newspapers publish a report that Osman Pasha defeated the Russians before Plevna. The Porte refused to permit the transit of timber across the Danuba, for howing the Russian standard seconds. LONDON, September 30.-A despatch from refused to permit the transit of timber across the Danube for housing the Russian wounded. Show has ceased falling in the Balkans, but heavy rains have flooded the plains of Sofia and

Thomas S-rambler Owden, Alderman for the ward of Bishopsgate, was elected Lord Mayor London. The Times, though it strongly sympathises

The Times, though it strongly sympathises with Russin, prints the following under a prominent heading: "Therapys, Symptomer 28,—It is said that the Turkish souther have received strict orders not to fire at any Russian General, lest be should be killed or disabled, and replaced."

South Sanday France, Symptomer 20.

lest he should be killed or disabled, and replaced."

SOFIA, Sunday Evening, September 30.—
Trustworthy information—Las been received here, that Osman Pasha has repulsed a heavy Russo-Roumanian attack on his front and left, inflicting heavy losses. It is said that he attacked the Russians on the Loratz road and recovered several positions. This seems to agree with the report published in Constantinophe newspapers, yesterday, that Osman Pasha had defeated the Rummanians before Pleyna, but there is no more reason to believe the one than the offer. The definite resemble the fight of September 11 to 13 remarkably. The langerial Guaed, rumber ng 55,000, issaid to be due before Pleyna by the 5th of October; it is thought highly improbable that the Russians have made a general arcs. If we brout them.

NAPLES, October 1.—Cardinal Sixte Riaro Shiza is dead. He was sixty-seven years old Slirza is dead. He was sixty-seven years old and created a Cardinal in 1848.

nd created a Cardinal in 1818.

LOSDON. October I.—The Standard corres-ondent with the Turkish army, telegraphs rom Pleyna: Osman Pasna's losses from the from Pievna: Osman Pasna's losses from the Russian cannonade are exceedingly light, but on the day wien he took the redoubts in the Softcha Road, he lost 3,000 men. There are now (September 25) only 1,900 wounded at Pievna. A Bucharest special says Gen. Todle-ben's opinion of the situation at Plevna has been laid before the Grand Duke Nicholas. It is understood he, declares that siege operations on a most extensive scale are requisite for the capture of of the place. The Czarowitch visited tiony Studen, on Saturday, to relinquish the command of the left flank and resume commend of the left flank and resume commendation. The learning that the left flank are convey for Plevia returned to Orkani, the left of th

Tark, she convoy for Plevna returned to Orkani, the Romaniaa cavalry having captured eight wagons of grain. The Grand Duke Nicholas has hiver complaint.

The first Turkish convoy which entered Plevna consisted of 2,000 wagons; number of wagons in the second convoy not reported. A correspondent says of the Russians before Plevna: They seem completely at sea; they have no pian no idea no head they are waiting for reinforcements, which arrive slowly and which, when all here, will hardly more than cover their losses by battle and sickness during the last two months. History offers no such example of a splendid army in such an atterly helpless condition. Sulcinan Pacha is fortifying at Shipka Pass, apparently with the intention of wintering Pass, apparently with the intention of wintering distributed in this State and New York.

A Madras correspondent, reviewing the actual effects in that Presidency of the famine and discusses consequent on the famine, says the registered deaths of the present year up to the end of June, were 370,000 above the avenage. This, according to the opinion of the district officers, does not represent more than two-thirds of the actual mortality, and we have further to add the deaths which have occurred since, and have not yet been officially reported. The correspondent's conclusion is that not less than 750,000 persons have fallen victims, and even these figures will probably be largely increased before the famine and its after-wave of suffering has finally passed away.

American Intelligence.

Jacksonylle september 30.—Two deaths at Fernandina, to-day. Collector of the Port F. C. Grossman and Harry Smith died last night and several cases extremely low, among them Mayor Riddell. Three new cases to day.

SALT LAKE, September 30.—Orn Porter Rockwell, the notorious Mormon murderer, and accredited thief of the Danies, was indicted by the Grand Jury of the First Judicial District of the Terratory, now in session at Prevo, for his participation in what is generally known as the Atkin massacte. He was in a state of intoxication when arrested and talked loadly of writing his confessions. Bishop Robert T. Burton, the Major General of the Nauvoo legion, and Dr. Clinton, who were arrested, bave both leven released from custody on $150,000 and $100,000 bail, respectively.

Washington, Getober 1.—Cotton steady—mid-ding 10Jailo, 2sales 75 bales.

Financial and Commercial.

Columbia, Getober 1.—Cotton ensier but not quotably lower—midding uplands 6]: middling uplands 6]: mid Pass, apparently with the intention of wintering there.

A Madras correspondent, reviewing the actual effects in that Presidency of the famine and discusses consequent on the famine, says the registered deaths of the present year up to the end of June, were 370,000 above the average. This, according to the opinion of the district officers, does not represent more than two-thirds of the actual mortality, and we have further to add the deaths which have occurred since, and have not yet been officially reported. The correspondent's conclusion is that not less than 750,000 persons have fullen victims, and even these figures will probably be largely increased before the famine and its after-wave of suffering has finally passed away.

American Intelligence.

Clinton, who were arrested, bave both been released from custody on $150,000 and $100,000 bail, respectively.

WASHINGTON, September 30.—The verdict in the case of Frederick A. Sawyer, ex-Senator from South Carolina; William F. Haynes, of Pennsylvania; ex-Commissioner of Customs Frank W. Brooks and General Roddy, who were accused of defrauding the Government in a logus cotton claim, involving apwards of $50,000, was rendered to-day, at 11 o'clock, and the defendants found guilty. They were immediately arrested and conveyed to jail, and will be brought up for sentence to-morrow.

The transfer of the National Republican newspaper to ex-Secretary of the Navy Robeson and A. M. Clapp, late public printer, to be conducted as an anti-Administration organ, is regarded as another step in the movement to cryatalize the elements at variance with the policy of President Hayes' Administration, inaugurated by Senator Conkling at Rochester. The paper, according to the statements of its friends, will be well sustained by the ultra wing of the Republican party, and it is proposed to engage upon it the best takent.

L'ay Roll Clerk F. R. Goodrich, of the Interior Department, is reported as irregular to the extent of $3,000, by forgery. Solura tried to Department, is reported as irregular to the extent of $3,000, by forgery. Schurz tried to conceal the matter, but the unfortunate youngman wrote a letter to his chief, that a woman had been hounding and black-mailing him for Congress will be convened in extra session on the 15th inst.

A special to the Baltimore Sun, from Ohio, reports that the Republicans there have made gains recently, and expect to carry the State by a handsome majority. The reasons given are unusual Democratic apathy, in neglect to regis-ter, and the withdrawal from the ticket of some of their leading legislative candidates.

New York, October 1.—The Post says that the general dissatisfaction with the course of Senstor Conkling and his followers in the Rochester Convention has resulted in a proposal to call a Republican mass meeting in this city, for the purpose of expressing the true sentiment of the party. The project originated among the members of the Union League Club, who, while wishing to support the Republican State ticket, are anxious to disclaim any approval of the atlack made in the convention upon the Administration and its supporters.

A letter from Silver City, New Mexico, says that between 408 and 500 Apache warriors, with squaws and papooses, have left the San Carlos reservation, and along the Gila River they have killed twenty people, burned ranches, etc. Nine bodies were buried at Silver City on the 13th, and great excitement exists there. All they have killed twenty people, burned ranches, etc. Nine bodies were buried at Silver City on the 13th, and great excitement exists there. All the people are arming. Thirty armed citizens have gone from Clifton, Arizona: to meet the savages, and thirty more from Silver City. Sixty more will go down as soon as arms are received.

At Friar's Bay, Me., while two boys were in a boat, one aged nine fell overboard, when the other, a few years older, jumped after him. Both were drowned.

Dernoir, October 1.—Two freight trains col-

DETROIT, October 1.—Two freight trains collided on the T., W. & W. Road; two engines, tifteen cars and a ride-stealing tramp burned; loss $150,000.

lided on the T., W. & W. Road; two engines. fifteen cars and a ride-stealing tramp burned; loss $150,000.

Washington, October 1.—The present staff of the National Republican embraces Messrs. A. M. Clapp. editor-in-chief. N. Davidson, managing editor; Chas. L. Flanagan, A. B. Talcott, H. P. Goodwin and Joseph Y. Patts, associates. The salutatory of nearly three columns, was generally read and discussed. Extracts: "We cannot consent by silence on that point, that our attitude towards the present National Administration shall be misunderstood or misinterpreted. Having devoted our best abilites and efforts to secure the elevation of Gen. Rutherford B. Hayes to the Presidency, as the representative of the Republican party and its pronounced principles, it will be our highest pleasure to sustain all his measures and policies, that are in harmony with Republican principles, usages and traditions. To take any other course would, in our judgment, be inconsistent with political good faith, and render us remiss in duty. To expect more or less of us now, would be to impugn our political integrity and question our good sense as Republicans. We shall favor and advocate all public improvements by which inter-State cummerce may be promoted and strengthened, and the resources of the entire nation may be developed into wide-spread prosperity. We shall not contend for a tariff for protection but for revenue, We are in favor of remonetizing silver and making it a legal tender of equal value with gold for all debts due the Government and the people. We shall advocate the issue of greenbacks, backed by the national faith, to an amount equal to the wants of business and trade, and which shall be received the same as gold and silver for all dues to the Government and individuals."

It is confidentially stated that Senator Wallace, of Penn., is opposing Randall for Speaker, and somewhat more loosely stated that the Pennsylvania delegation, except one, is solid for Randall.

The California tragedian, John McCullough, opens his Southers

The California tragedian, John McCullough, opens his Southern tour, to-night, at Richmond, in Richelieu. Travelling with McCullough are Messrs, Levick land Luwrence, Miss Eleanor Curry. Mrs. Allen and others, under the general management of John T. Ford.

A Norfolk despatch, yesterday, says the Gulf Stream, from Charleston, S. C., for New York, with an assorted cargo and fourteen passengers, after a stormy passage of four days, put in here for coal. The cuptain reports fearful weather on the coast, and heavy North-west gales. No wrecks reported.

on the coast, and heavy North-west gales. No wrecks reported.

The bodies of Abner James and his wife, locked in each other's arms and with a hand of each clenched around a revolver, were found in the woods near Zanesville, Ohio. They lived unhappily together, although only married fourteen months. There is much excitement, but which was been a find marginer cannot be decided.

decided.

Incendiary negroes in the Teche country of Louisians have begun firing sugar houses and four have recently been destroyed, involving a loss of fully $150,000.

Schleinberger' & Sone, morocco and tallow mill, in Philadelphia, destroyed by fire; loss $175,000; fully insured.

Another installment of 500 Mormons from Europe has arrived in New York, for Utah.

The large and thriving village of Putnam, Eastern Connecticut, was nearly destroyed by fire, early this morning. The business portion is all gone except the National Bank and new hotel. Loss about 200,000. Insurance largely distributed in this State and New York.

Financial and Commercial.

Financial and Commercial.

Saws, Saws, Saws.

HAND, Panuel and Ripping SAWS. Tennon, Circular and Key-hole Saws. Cross-cut, Franting and Mill Saws. Wood, Butcher's and Kitchen Saws.

wood, Butcher's and Attchen Saws.
In great variety and various qualities, constantly on hand. Also, Circular Sawr, of Dosston's or lice's manufacture, of any size, brought out to order on short notice and for sale low down by JOHN AGNEW.

Come and See NEW STOCK DRY GOODS NOTIONS!

AT C.F. JACKSON'S,

Zender of Zow Prices.