ORGANIZATION OF A YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION AT HILTON HEAD.

HILTON HEAD, S. C., July 23, 1864.
At a meeting held on the evening of the 22d inst., to organize a society to be called "The Hilton Head Young Men's Christian Association," having for its objects the mutual benefits of the members, and to unite them in the bonds of Christian brotherhood and fellowship, that as a body of Christians having in view the same end, they might, with their combined efforts, and the assistance of Divine Grace, be able to spread an influence for good to their companions and associates, and all those with whom they are immediately connected, the following were the proceedings:

The meeting was opened with singing, and prayer was offered by Brother Burroughs.

Brother Hays was appointed President pro tem., and Brother Edward A. Fox, of Co. C, 1st N. Y. Engineer Corps, Sec. pro tem.

The following committee was appointed to form resolutions, and draw up by-laws by which the association is to be governed: Brother C. C. Ward, of Co. D, 14th N. Y. Vols.; Brother E. Burroughs, of Co. I, 14th N. Y. Vols.; Bro. Wm. J. Miller, of Co. C, 1st N. Y. Vol. Eng. Corps; Bro. Chester, 10th Penn. Vols.; Bro. Cramer, 10th Penn. Vols.

The committee retired for conference. Bro. Ward was chosen Chairman of the committee, and made his report to the meeting, which was accepted.

The meeting then proceeded to elect the following officers: Brother Hays, President; Bro. Chester, 10th Penn. Vols., Vice-President; Bro. C. C. Ward, Co. D, 14th N. Y. Vols., Secretary; Bro. Edward A. Fox, Co. C, 1st N. Y. Eng. Corps, Treasurer.

The meeting then adjourned until next Friday evening, and was closed by the benediction.

C. C. WARD, Sec'y.

SOURCE.—On the night of the 20th a source was given under the auspices of General Hatch's staff, at Commissary Hall, which was splendidly decorated for the purpose, under the direction of Capt. Champlin, Chief Commissary of the Department, with flags of all kinds, and otherwise tastefully ornamented. The committee of arrangements consisted of Major E. L. Rogers, Adjutant General of the District, Lieut.-Col. W. T. Bennett, Chief of Military Police and Post Treasurer, and Lieuts. E. B. VanWinkle and D. G. McMartin, Aides-de-camps. With the windows of the building all opened, and a cool evening breeze blowing, the heat was not at all oppressive for July. Sixteen ladies were present, including some from Beaufort, and a much larger number of gentlemen, principally prominent officers. Refreshments were provided on a liberal scale in a large anti-room. The order of dances was a select one, and the evening was much enjoyed by all present.

MARKET.—In our advertising columns we publish an important and, we believe, very beneficial order, from District Head Quarters, in regard to the disposal of produce, going away with hucksters, and establishing a regular market place, under regulations from the District authorities.

A Cold Storm lasted over Saturday, and Sunday with a lower temperature than we have experienced since last May. Colds have been frequent since, and another change to extremely warm renders fevers somewhat prevalent.

An APOTHECARY STORE, well appointed and well stocked, is a novelty in the army, the best substitute for it being usually a few essences and quack medicines, on a sutler's shelf, along with clay pipes, bar-soap, and plug tobacco. Dr. W. M. Walsh, who comes from the "hub" and possesses Yankee enterprise, has as well furnished a store as can often be found in a Northern city, and adds to his extensive medical practice a general superintendence of his establishment. Considering a first-class apothecary store a great desideratum in a community like this, we take pleasure in calling attention to it, and certifying to the ability of an old townsman.

DRUGS AND MEDICINES!!

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 23.

THE FOLLOWING INSTRUCTIONS FOR

the regulating of Markets and Hucksters will be strictly enforced on and after Wednesday, the 27th inst.

1. A market place is hereby established at the wharf known as Pilot's wharf.

2. All producers bringing marketing to the post of Hilton Head are required to take their produce directly to the market place, and there offer the same for sale, under the direction of the clerk of the market, at prices to be established from time to time at these headquarters.

3. All Traders, Suters, Hucksters, and others are prohibited selling any articles of provision, the products of the States of South Carolina, Georgia, or Florida, at any other point than the market place, except as prescribed by the 4th paragraph of this order.

4. Market hours will be daily from 5 o'clock A. M., until 11 A. M. (Sundays excepted). During market hours those having produce to sell will exhibit at the market. After market hours such articles as have been offered in the market and remain unsold may be offered in the camps, street, or at private dwellings, at market prices.

5. Any person asking more than the market price for articles offered either at the market or elsewhere, will be subject to arrest, fine, and imprisonment, and the articles offered will be confiscated for the use of the sick.

6. Violation of Paragraph 3 of this order will subject the offender to a fine, a second offence, to fine and imprisonment, and the establishment violating will be closed.

7. All persons are forbidden to purchase produce within two miles of the market house with the intention of again offering the same for sale.

8. All persons are forbidden to purchase from hucksters, during market hours, except at the market house, under pain of punishment for connivance at disobedience of orders.

It is the duty of all guards to assist in enforcing this order by the arrest of any person violating the same.

9. All officers, soldiers, and citizens are requested to assist in enforcing these regulations, which are established for the benefit of all.

PROCEEDINGS OF A GENERAL COURT

Martial which convened at Hilton Head, S. C., pursuant to Special Orders No. 219, from Headquarters, Department of the South, dated Hilton Head, S. C., May 24, 1864, and of which Col. Henry M. Hoyt, 52d Penn. Vols., is President, was arraigned and tried:

1st Lieut. J. W. Glase, Co. "E," 104th Penn. Vols.

Charge I.—"Conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman."

Specification.—In this: that he, 1st Lieut. J. W. Glase, Co. "E," 104th Penn. Vols., did use the following language, or words of like meaning, to Private Nat. Bruin, Co. "K," 33d U. S. C. T., to wit: "What in hell are you doing with that belt, are you commissioned? God damn you, you have no right to have that belt on, you are not commissioned, and that belt is a commissioned officer's belt. They (meaning the officers of the 33d U. S. C. T.) do not know nothing. Look here, the war has disgraced him. If I had my will of the God damn nigger troops, I would drown every one; damn you, you all will drown after the rebel war. What Regiment do you belong to? Why don't you belong to the 54th, where you can amount to something. God damn you, you know enough to run. Why were you not at Jacksonville." This on board the steamer "Wyoming" on her passage from Hilton Head, S. C., to Beaufort, S. C., on or about the 14th day of May, 1864.

Charge II.—"Using reproachful and provoking speech to a soldier."

Specification.—In this: that he, 1st Lieut. J. W. Glase, Co. "E," 104th Penn. Vols., did use the following language, or words of like meaning, to Private Nat. Bruin, Co. "K," 33d U. S. C. T., to wit: "What in hell are you doing with that belt, are you commissioned? God damn you, you have no right to have that belt on; you are not commissioned and that is a commissioned officer's belt. They (meaning the officers of the 33d U. S. C. T.) do not know nothing. God damn, look there, the war has disgraced him. If I had my will of the God damn nigger troops, I would drown every one, damn you. You all will drown after the rebel war. What Regiment do you belong to? Why don't you belong to the 54th, where you can amount to something? God damn you, you know enough to run. Why were you not at Jacksonville." This on board the steamer "Wyoming" on her passage from Hilton Head, S. C., to Beaufort, S. C., on or about the 14th day of May, 1864.

Charge III.—"Disobedience of orders."

Specification.—In this: that he, 1st Lieut. S. W. Glase, Co. "E," 104th Penn. Vols., did arrive at Beaufort, S. C., on or about the 14th day of May, 1864, and depart therefrom without registering his name in the Register Book, kept at the office of the Post Commandant, Beaufort, S. C., thereby disobeying Paragraph I. of General Orders No. 106, dated Department of the South, Headquarters in the Field, Folly Island, S. C., November the 28th, 1863.

To which Charge and Specifications the accused pleaded as follows:

CHARGE I.
To the Specification, "Not Guilty."
To the Charge, "Not Guilty."

CHARGE II.
To the Specification, "Not Guilty."
To the Charge, "Not Guilty."

CHARGE III.
To the Specification, "Not Guilty."
To the Charge, "Not Guilty."

FINDING.
The Court, having maturely considered the evidence adduced, and 1st Lieut. J. W. Glase, Co. "E," 104th Penn. Vols., as follows:

CHARGE I.
To the Specification, "Guilty," excepting the words, "God," on 9th line, from top of the 1st page of charges and specifications hereto annexed; also the words, "God damn, look there, the war has disgraced him. If I had my will of the God damn nigger troops, I would drown every one;" also the word "God," on 2d line from top of 1st page of charges, &c., hereto annexed; also the words, "why were you not at Jacksonville."

Of the Charge, "Not Guilty."

CHARGE II.
Of the Specification, "Guilty," excepting the same words as are excepted in the finding of the Court in the specification of the 1st charge.

Of the Charge, "Guilty."

CHARGE III.
Of the Specification, "Not Guilty."
Of the Charge, "Not Guilty."

SENTENCE.
And the Court do therefore sentence him, the said 1st Lieut. J. W. Glase, Co. "E," 104th Penn. Vols., "To be reprimanded in General Orders by the Major-General Commanding the Department."

II. The proceedings, findings and sentence in the foregoing case of 1st Lieut. J. W. Glase, Co. "E," 104th Penn. Vols., are approved and confirmed.

The Major-General Commanding regrets to be obliged to reprimand a Commissioned Officer for an offence of this kind. An officer in the United States' service that has no more respect for his position than to degrade himself by the use of ungentlemanly language to an enlisted man, deserves the severest censure.

1st Lieut. J. W. Glase, Co. "E," 104th Penn. Vols., will be released from arrest and restored to duty.
