

Miscellaneous

Condition of the South

The present condition of the South is in a peculiar sense, is infinitely more favorable than at any time within the last ten or fifteen years. As a general thing, abundance of every description have rewarded the crops of the year...

American Iron

Now is the time, never, for American iron factors to put their furnaces, forges and rolling mills in order, and demonstrate that they can even without the facilities of protection...

We have heard it stoutly affirmed by Pennsylvania Iron and Coal operators—capitalists of the most careful and clear-headed sort—that a majority of the fairly located furnaces of that state if advantage is taken of all facilities...

The North and the South

The Baltimore American, in reply to the sneers of some Northern journals at movements to advance Southern commercial interests, says:

What is the North to do without that assailed, vituperated, agitated, convulsed South? Nay—what can it do without it? What is the basis of its commerce? What is the basis of its industry? What is the basis of its exchange? What feeds the looms of England and France? What builds and fleighs its ships? Hard as it may be for that region to acknowledge the fact, the only reply is: THE SOUTH AND ITS LABOR!

In 1850, the Labor of the South gave those elements, without which American commerce at the North could not exist a moment, in the following enormous quantities:

Rice, 215,312,710 pounds. Tobacco, 199,752,646 pounds. Cotton, 2,270,000 bales. Cane Sugar, 247,581,000 pounds. Maple " 33,369,886 pounds. Molasses, 12,700,606 gallons.

It has been beautifully said, that "the veil which covers the face of futurity is woven by the hand of Mercy." Seek not to raise that veil, therefore, for sadness might be seen to shade the brow that fancy had arrayed in smiles of gladness.

He that envies, makes another man's virtue his vice, and another's happiness his torment; whereas, he that rejoices at the prosperity of another, is a partaker of the same.

General News

State Government. The following is an abstract of an Act making appropriations for the year commencing in October, 1852.

Table with columns for Department, Item, and Amount. Includes Executive Department (Governor, Secretary, etc.), Legislative Department (Members, Clerks, etc.), and Judiciary Department (Judges, Clerks, etc.).

THE PORK TRADE.—At and around the city, down to Sunday night, there had been 21,883 hogs killed; still in the pens, 29,400. The number killed exceeded the entire receipts last year by 25,000.

THE ST. LOUIS NEWS estimates that the hog product for that section, including points on the Upper Mississippi, Missouri and Illinois, will be equal to that of last year—say from 150,000 to 160,000 head.

THE EVANSVILLE JOURNAL, of last Wednesday says: So far as we can learn, there will probably be about 10,000 hogs cut up here this season, which is a considerable advance over last year.

THE NUMBER OF HOGS arrived at Madison per railroad up to Saturday night last, the 12th inst., was 95,178 against 43,201 same date last year.—Cincinnati Enquirer, Dec. 22.

THE RICHES OF MEXICO.—At a recent meeting of the New York Geographical and Statistical Society, Col. Ramsey, who was introduced by Mr. Bennett...

Table with columns for Department, Item, and Amount. Includes Military Expenditure (Adjutant, Arsenal, etc.), Public Buildings (Court House, etc.), and Miscellaneous (Support of Catawba Indians, etc.).

RECAPITULATION. Executive Department, $11,550. Legislative Department, 47,250. Judiciary Department, 80,300. Treasury Department, 7,150. South Carolina College, 39,600. Ordinary Civil Expenses, 137,975. Military Expenditures, 37,500. Local Expenditures, 7,420. Public Buildings, 41,300. Miscellaneous, 81,600. Extraordinary Expenses, 10,550. Total, $502,501.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.—Salary of the Governor, 500. Private Secretary, 250. Messenger, 250. Contingent Fund of Executive Department, 7,000. Rent of Governor's House, 300.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.—Pay Members of Legislature, Attorney General and Solicitor, 21,000. Clerk of Senate and House of Representatives, 1,000 each. Assistant Clerks of do., $250 each. Two Messengers and Two Doorkeepers, each $250. Keeper of State House and Librarian, Reading Clerks of Senate and House of Representatives, each $250. Crossing Clerks, 200. Clerks of Senate and House of Representatives, 9,000. Printer of Journal and Documents, 3,750. Penitentiary, Contingent Expenses, Stationery, Fuel, Distributing Acts, Election Returns, 1,400. Purchase of Books for Library, 500. Repair of State House and Grounds, 500. Extra Session of Legislature, 5,000.

JUDICIARY DEPARTMENT.—Salaries of ten Judges at $3,000 each, 30,000. Attorney General, 1,100. Five Solicitors, $900 each, 4,500. Clerk of Appeals, Columbia, 250. Messenger, 200. Librarian, 500. Books for Library, 50. Firewood and Fuel, 600. Clerk of Appeals, Charleston, 250. Messenger, 200. Librarian, 500. Firewood and Fuel, 50. Books for Library, 500. Salary of State Reporter, 1,500. Pay of Jurors and Constables, 40,000.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT.—Salary of Comptroller General, 2,000. Clerk of do., 750. Treasurer of L. Division and Clerk hire, 2,000. Treasurer of U. Division and Clerk hire, 1,600. Assessor for St. Phillips and St. Michaels, 800.

SOUTH CAROLINA COLLEGE.—Salary of the President, 3,000. Seven Professors, $2,500 each, 17,500. Treasurer, 500. Librarian, 600. Secretary of Board of Trustees, 200. Marshal, 400. Expenses of one student sent by Orphan House, 400. Books for the Library, 2,000. Building a new Chapel, 15,000.

ORDINARY CIVIL EXPENSES.—Contingent accounts of Upper Division, 25,000. Lower Division, 15,000. Commissioner of Public Works, 150. Pensions and Annuities, 3,000. Claims admitted by the Legislature, 10,000. Support of Free Schools, 74,500. Education of deaf, dumb, and blind, 5,000. Refunding taxes, 200. Compensation for Slaves executed, 2,000.

MILITARY EXPENDITURE.—Salary of Adjutant and Inspector General, 2,500. Arsenal Keeper, Charleston, 1,000. Arsenal Keeper, Columbia, 400. Physician of Jail and Magazine Guard, Charleston, 500. Arsenal and Military School, Charleston, 16,000. Arsenal and Military School, Columbia, 8,000. Military Accounts, 100. Military Contingencies, 5,000. Quartermaster General, 500. Secretary of State, issuing Military Commissions, 850. Additional appropriation for Military Academies at Charleston and Columbia, 3,000.

FOR ORDINARY LOCAL EXPENDITURES.—Transient Poor of Charleston, 4,500. Port Physician at Charleston, 800. Execution of Quarantine Laws at Charleston, 1,000. Superintendent of Fire Proof Building, 100. Transient Poor of Georgetown, 500. Pilot of Harbor of Georgetown, 320. Ferry on Elliott's Cut, 200.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS.—For Court House and Jail at Abbeville, 13,000. Improving Court House at Orangeburg, 3,500. Portico to Court House at Pickens, 2,000. Remodelling Court House at Anderson, 2,500. Additional for building C. H. at Marion Lot and Jail at Newberry, 10,000. Lot for C. H. at Chester, 2,800. Jail at Edgelyield, 5,000.

It is his empty yachting, and in the club, covered with black cloth, that he enjoyed the love scene. Money, fame and power were dropping away from him. When he was in the bay, whose full waters must be stretched to the whole scene, was a stretch of impassable sand—neither land nor water. The tide was out. It was too early. His glory swelled high, and grand at one time was its dash and roar; but the tide is ebbing, and it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return.

It is his empty yachting, and in the club, covered with black cloth, that he enjoyed the love scene. Money, fame and power were dropping away from him. When he was in the bay, whose full waters must be stretched to the whole scene, was a stretch of impassable sand—neither land nor water. The tide was out. It was too early. His glory swelled high, and grand at one time was its dash and roar; but the tide is ebbing, and it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return.

It is his empty yachting, and in the club, covered with black cloth, that he enjoyed the love scene. Money, fame and power were dropping away from him. When he was in the bay, whose full waters must be stretched to the whole scene, was a stretch of impassable sand—neither land nor water. The tide was out. It was too early. His glory swelled high, and grand at one time was its dash and roar; but the tide is ebbing, and it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return.

It is his empty yachting, and in the club, covered with black cloth, that he enjoyed the love scene. Money, fame and power were dropping away from him. When he was in the bay, whose full waters must be stretched to the whole scene, was a stretch of impassable sand—neither land nor water. The tide was out. It was too early. His glory swelled high, and grand at one time was its dash and roar; but the tide is ebbing, and it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return.

It is his empty yachting, and in the club, covered with black cloth, that he enjoyed the love scene. Money, fame and power were dropping away from him. When he was in the bay, whose full waters must be stretched to the whole scene, was a stretch of impassable sand—neither land nor water. The tide was out. It was too early. His glory swelled high, and grand at one time was its dash and roar; but the tide is ebbing, and it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return.

It is his empty yachting, and in the club, covered with black cloth, that he enjoyed the love scene. Money, fame and power were dropping away from him. When he was in the bay, whose full waters must be stretched to the whole scene, was a stretch of impassable sand—neither land nor water. The tide was out. It was too early. His glory swelled high, and grand at one time was its dash and roar; but the tide is ebbing, and it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return.

It is his empty yachting, and in the club, covered with black cloth, that he enjoyed the love scene. Money, fame and power were dropping away from him. When he was in the bay, whose full waters must be stretched to the whole scene, was a stretch of impassable sand—neither land nor water. The tide was out. It was too early. His glory swelled high, and grand at one time was its dash and roar; but the tide is ebbing, and it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return.

It is his empty yachting, and in the club, covered with black cloth, that he enjoyed the love scene. Money, fame and power were dropping away from him. When he was in the bay, whose full waters must be stretched to the whole scene, was a stretch of impassable sand—neither land nor water. The tide was out. It was too early. His glory swelled high, and grand at one time was its dash and roar; but the tide is ebbing, and it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return.

It is his empty yachting, and in the club, covered with black cloth, that he enjoyed the love scene. Money, fame and power were dropping away from him. When he was in the bay, whose full waters must be stretched to the whole scene, was a stretch of impassable sand—neither land nor water. The tide was out. It was too early. His glory swelled high, and grand at one time was its dash and roar; but the tide is ebbing, and it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return.

It is his empty yachting, and in the club, covered with black cloth, that he enjoyed the love scene. Money, fame and power were dropping away from him. When he was in the bay, whose full waters must be stretched to the whole scene, was a stretch of impassable sand—neither land nor water. The tide was out. It was too early. His glory swelled high, and grand at one time was its dash and roar; but the tide is ebbing, and it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return. And it can never return.

Misc

Farmer

In one of our exchanges, we have seen a notice of a man who had been surprised at the fact among the insane. "It would not be so the soil, and being a farmer, it would be a surprise to disarrange the fact."

Now, farmers, who are well who have health. Who use articles of food and coffee by way of bread and so on. When we get a surplus of salt—these, who are Virginia and New York.—Governor has transmitted a message to the Legislature of Virginia on the subject of the recent case in the Lemon slave case. He says a decision has not a single precedent to support that if other tribunals confirm the decision, it must destroy that comity which should exist among States, and seriously affect the value of slaves property.

FINANCES OF NORTH CAROLINA.—The receipts into the treasury of North Carolina during the last two years amounted to $61,993, and the expenditures during the same time were $61,896. The receipts for the next two years are estimated at $45,492, and the disbursements at $45,688.20, leaving a balance in favor of receipts of $13,027.72.

STATBURG ON SUNDAY.—The death of Mr. C. Moor was at the time of his death the "Sumter Agricultural Association" a long town in our District. His loss was much felt, and greatly deplored in the community. He died in the fall of 1851, at the Episcopal Church.—Sumter Banner.