SPIRITUAL COMMUNICATIONS.-Rev. Dr. Tyng, of New York, has delivered a discourse on the modern Spiritual phenomena. He treated the subject with seriousness and frankly admitted the facts, repudiating the idea of electric or magnetic forces. He contends for the Spiritual origin of the manifestations, but insists that the "Anniversary of souls" is employed in their production. He supports his argument by quotations from the Old Testament :

"Dr. Tyng spoke with great apparent concern, and warned his people against pursuing the investigation for "scientific purposes," or under the delusive idea that the mysterious power is harmless. He announced the fact that there were mediums among the communicants in his church, and that for three weeks past he had personally wrestled with his adversary almost incessantly. It had disturbed his meditations by day and his sleep by night, and the speaker was understood to remain that if the annoyance continued to increase, he should be obliged to relinquish his ministry. He desired the earnest prayers of his people and begged their forbearance for speaking so plainly.

OUR COURT .-- Our Spring term of Court commenced on Monday last, His Honor Judge Witl.ers presiding, with that dignity and decision which so eminently characterize him as a profound jurist and judge. The Sessions Docket was very light, having no cases of importance on it, while the issue docket was more than usually full. We have been kindly promised a report of the most important cases, with the decisions, for our next issue, which we will lay before our readers .- Laurensville Herald 18th inst.

HAIL STORM .- On Wednesday evening last, March 10th, a terrible hail storm swept over our city, and during the space of 10 minutes, did immense damage. Almost every house in the city was injured. The Warehouses of Mr. Rankin, Gunby, Daniel & Co. and H. S. Smith & Co., were partially blown down and unroofed. Six or eight store houses about Rankin's corner had their front walls entirely prostrated. Many private residences were partially unroofed. Almost every chimney in the city is down, and our shade trees cumber the streets with their fallen trunks and broken branches. Taylor & Co's Gin Factory was unroofed and incalculable injury done to a large number of Gins already finished, and to the tools and machinery used in the manu facture. It is reported that the bridge in Girard was blown down, and a wagon, driver and team precipitated into the depths below. No lives were lost in our city.

[Columbus (Ga.) Times.

In Pawtucket, (R. I.) at a funeral last week, it was found extremely difficult to remove the coffin from the house (second story) to the hearse dustry and economy he will secure competence by reason of the narrow entries and winding stair- and recpectability, or by illeness become a way. By passing through a room occupied by another family all difficulties would have been obviated. Request was accordingly made, and will it be believed that in Pawtucket, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and fifty-three, it was utterly refused! It was thought to be a bad omen to have the corpse pass through the room and it would be followed by a death in the family; and foolish superstitution was allowed to in their position, the course you now condemn banish humanity from the heart.

MEMPHIS COMMERCIAL CONVENTION .-- In the Jackson Miss., Flag of the Union, of the 14th inst., we perceive a long list of Delegates to the Memphis Commercial Convention, appointed by Gov. Foote, in conformity with the re quest of the Memphis Committee of Correspondence.

This Convention will assemble on the first Monday in June next. Delegations, composed of the best men in the South, will be present. The questions to be discussed are of the first interest, and grandest importance, and ought to attract the undivided attention of every well wisher of Southern improvement, of every advocate of Southern commercial independence. Railroads, direct trade with Europe from Southern ports; manufacturers, a communication with the Pacific by means of a steam or caloric locomotive, will be thoroughly and ably discussed .- N. O. Bulletin.

Longevity .- The St. Louis Republican, of the 2d inst., says:

An instance of very remarkable longevity came under the notice of Mr. Melvin, during his recent flying tour in quest of a runaway slave, through Madison county, Ill. While in the negro settlement on Wood river, he chanced to call at a house whose door was opened to him by the owner, a tottering negro, with a head whitened - as the writers have stereotyped it-by the frosts of ninety winters. In the course of a series of questions and answers, the old man alluded incidentally to his mother for endorsement of something he had advanced. Mr. Melvin wondered exceedingly, with Paddy in the play, "that he had a mother.," and at the invitation of the host, entered the little cabin, where, true enough, in an arm chair near the chimney corner, he perceived a specimen of withered antiquity that might very well have passed for the mother of a dozen Methusalehs. Not that she was very decrepid; on the contrary nature had indemnified her for the loss of youth in a partial restoration of sight and in a fair preservation of her general intelligence. But the 18th century had left its great seal upon her, and the white wooly hair. the long gray beard on her upper lip and jawbones, added to the deep wrinkles and the shrunken form, would have made the object a fearful one in a dark wood or a chapel yard.

The woman was one hundred and nineteen years old. She gave her name as Chloe, and says that she is a native of South Carolina, having been there the slave of a farmer named Wilson. When yet very young she was stolen and carried away from home by a party of by escaped. She professes to remember per. 25 Bbls. first rate Planting Potatoes. For sale by feetly well Lord Cornwallis and the British officers of note who figured in the war of Independence. She is supported at present by her son, who in turn receives material assistance from a promising stripling of forty-five or fifty. The venerable relic is not at all in her dotage, though somewhat garrulous and petulant.

THE SWORD VS. THE PEN .- "We notice," says the Athenæum, "a curious instance of the involuntary homage which the sword will sometimes pay to the pen, even in countries the most despotically ruled. The Sferza, a Milanese journal, has lately published in its leading columns some articles on the question of capital punishmentarticles breathing something of the mild and philosophic spirit of the great Milan jurist, Beccaria. Prince Radetzky, however, though he has a hundred thousand men under arms in Milan and its neighborhood, will not answer for the results if such questions are to be publicly discussed, and he has sent to inform the editor that if any more arguments be printed in his journal to his preparation, is testimony sufficiently conclusive, against the punishment of death, his journal will that a more effectual remedy for the almost immediate be at once suppressed. What an expression is relief of those afflicted with that direful malady, dys it of the military power of Austria in Lombardy, when a hundred thousand bayonets tremble before a single philosophical goose-quill!"

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE .-- Mr. Rose, of St. Lawrence, has introduced a prohibitory bill which is considered as stringent as the Maine Law .-

The principal provisions are as follows: The 1st and 2d sections allow every citizen of good character for sobriety, who is an elector, and who is not a keeper of, or interested in any house of public entertainment, or the keeper of, or interested in places of public amusement, to none else are genuine. sell intoxicating liquors for purposes other than for a beverage, provided he shall file with the clerk of the county an undertaking executed by himself with two sufficient sureties, to be approved by the judge of the county, that he will not violate any of the provisions of the act, and pay all fines, damages and costs which may be imposed upon, or recorded against him, in any action civil or criminal. The sureties are required to justify in the sum of one thousand dollars that he comes within the provision of the act, and file the same.

The 3d section prescribes to whom, and for what purpose liquor may be sold.

The 4th and 5th sections prescribe the punishment of offences, and before what tribunal they shall be prosecuted.

The 6th-section makes it the duty of certain officers named, to prosecute, and the right of every other person to prosecute. The 10th to 18th, inclusive, apply to forfeitares of liquors sold contrary to the act. The 10th, 20th and 21st apply to the arrest of intoxicated persons, and ascertains who sold them their liquor, and the prosecution of such persons so selling.

HINTS TO YOUNG MEN .- Be economical .-No matter if your parents are worth millions, t is not the less proper that you should understand the value of money, and the honest, hon orable means of acquiring it. What multitudes of young men, particularly in our cities, lose reputation and health, and eventually property by neglect of this maxim? They are aware that their fathers obtained their wealth by habits of industry, but they are ashamed of the name. They forget that wealth in this country passes rapidly from one to another, and that he who is rich to-day may be poor to-morrow; or he that relies on wealth amassed by his father, may end his days in a pauper house, It is for the young man to -ay whether by inorthless beggar, and a sponging outcast.

Be just. In the course of life a man frequentfinds his interest or his opinion crossed by those from whom he had a right to expect better things, and the young men are apt to feel such matters very sensibly. Look at their conduct carefully, and be just to motives that prompt it. You may find that were you placed would be the proper one for you, and the one you would be under obligations to pursue. A little cool consideration would avoid much cen-

The White slave of England is the title of a new drama now being performed at the Broadway Theatre, New York, with immense success. It is emphatically an answer to Un cle Tom's Cabin, now playing at most of the theatres of Great Britain, the comparison being drawn between the life of the white slaves of the English underground mines, and the comparitively happy condition of the slaves in our Southern States.

When Dr. Franklin's mother-in-law first discovered that the young man had a hankering for try is nearly complete, and if a few more names can be obtained he will proceed without delay to procure her daughter, the good old lady said she did not know so well about giving her daughter to a printer; there were already two printing offices the United States and she was not certain nity (so seldom afforded) for obtaining a thorough the country would sustain them. It was plain, young Franklin would have to depend for the support of his family on the profits of the third, and that was rather a doubtful chance.

The best evidence that can be adduced in favor of the efficaciousness of Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. POISONING.

Thousands of parents who ue Vermifuge composed of Castor Oil, Calomel, &c., are not aware, that while they appear to benefit the patient, they are actually laying the foundations for a series of diseases, such as salivation, loss of sight, weakness of limbs, &c.

825 REWARD.

RANAWAY, on last Saturday, the 12th inst., my boy RICHARD, answers to the name of Dick, a white mulatto about five feet 3 or 4 inches high, tol erably stout built, and about twenty-five years old, with straight light colored short bair, has a very sulky appearance, and answers quick and short when spo-ken to. When he left he had on a black overcoat and a pair of common negro cloth pants, a low crown dove colored furd hat. The boy has a very down look—I have had the word "Slave" written on his fore-head with India Ink, just above the cyc-brows, though I have no doubt he will try to hide it by tying some thing round his head, or he may put a plaster over it He will be certain to try and pass for a white man. The above reward of Twenty-five Dollars will be paid for his delivery in any jail in the State.
