DIED-On Friday morning last, after an illness of six months, Mr. EDWARD M. BRONSON, a native of Connecticut, but for many years a resident of this town, in the sixty-second year of his age. He was a kind and affectionate husband and father, a good citizen and an honest man. Early in his sickness he became impressed with the necessity of a preparation for the change which he saw gradually but steadily approaching, and it will be gratifying to his friends to know that through his protracted and pain-ful-illness he was blessed and sustained by the comforts of religion even up to his dying moments. His dying words to his children and friends by his bed side were an assurance that all was well. Truly may it be said of him, his "last days were his best days." Charlotte papers will please copy

To the Physicians of the State of South Carolina. WOLFE'S CELEBRATED SCHIEDAM AROMA-11C SCHNAPPS-Deeming it unnecessar, to remind any regular member of the Medical professions of the established medical properties of pure Lolland Gin in many diseases of dropsical tendency, I respectfully invite your examination to a very superior article, manufactured by myself exclusively, at Schiedan, in Holland, by a process peculiar to my own factory. It is flavored and medicated, not by the common fiarsh berry, but by the choice botanical variety of the aromatic Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous ex-tract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, and thus becomes a concentrated tineture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendent, in its cordial and medicinal properties, to any Holland

Gin heretofore known.

Amid the influx of inferior distillations with which the market is now flooded, physicians find no little difficulty in procuring a good and pure Gin, which they can prescribe with confidence in its beneficial effects. As an importer of twenty year's standing, in the city of New Yrk, and possessing a matured experience in the manufacture of Ilolland Gin, especially I beg to submit to your attention my AROMA-TIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, as one which cannot fail to realize your utmost expectations, and I shall be happy to forward you a little of it, free of charges, in answer to a letter intimating your readiness to accept it.

It is now scarcely one year since I have prepared and distributed my Schiedam Gin exclusively for medical purposes; yet within that brief period, I have received numerous letters, both from physicians and patients, testifying to its really extraordinary efficacy in Gravel, Incipient Dropsy, and affections of the Kid-neys and Bladder generally; also in Dyspeptic Maladies, when taken in proper quantities as a Diet Drink, and especially at dinner, is found, by uniform experience, to be eminently efficacious in the most obsti nate cases, when even the best of the usual remedis shave failed to afford more than temporary relief, and I have no doubt that it would yield similar results with precision and certainty in your own professional xperience. The Aromatic Schiedam Schnappe is put up in strong bottles, pints and quarts, neatly covered and labelled with my name embossed on the bottle; also a fac simile of my signature on the label, and my seal on the cork, with an essay upon its properties.

UDOLPHO WOLFE,

Im orter, 22 Beaver street New York. Extracts from the New York Medical Gazette and Journal of Health, edited by D. M. Reese M. D., LLD. 775 Broadway, October 1, 1852:

Holland Gin as a Medicine. In our last number, we accompanied the publication of a circular on this subject, from our fellow citizen. Udolpho Wolfe, Esq., with a brief commentary, expressive of our own views. Since then we have been employing this agent, and thus far with favorable results. But we are in the receipt of several communications on the subject from medical men, which serve to show that Mr. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam retic, to be eminently successful, after other medica tion with this intent had been tried in vain. In one of the cases thus reported, abdominal dropsy has been entirely removed by the passage of a calculous of considerable size which is ascribed to the use of only two bottles of this article. We know not the object of Mr. Wolfe in designating his preparation by the singularly uncuphoneous name of "Schnapps," nor of his denominating it in his advertisements the "concentrated Tineture of Jucan be procured at any moment in the immediate vicinity of the House, thus enabling visitors to avail themselves of the delightful rides and drives that the magnificent Beach affords. Boats also, for the convenience of Fishing Parties can always be obtained.

The Table will be supplied with every delicacy that which, as is well known, is manufactured here and which, as is well known, is manufactured here and which, as is well known, is manufactured here and which, as is well known, is manufactured here and the process of the convenience of purpose of designating his article as prepared exclusively for medical purposes, and thus commend it to physicians, for whose convenience it is on sale only by reputable druggists and apothecaries. As respects its medicinal and curative effects, we understand him to claim only that it is a pure and rethe confidence of Holland Gin, and as such, worthy of the confidence of Physicians, to those diseases for which they are strained by finding it impractible to obtain the article in a pure athte. Nor should any preju-dice against alcoholic medicine deprive the afflicted of the benefit of this article, which from time immemorial has held its place among the remedial agencies of the Materia Medica, if it be found worthy of confidence by continued experience. At all events, those who persist in the employment and toleration of other alcoholic medicines, as tinethe preference to a pure article over the manifold adulterations so rife in the market. Mr. Wolfe liberally supplies physicians with a sample bottle for analysis and trial, as set forth in his circular, and stakes the reputation of the remedy upon the innocence, safety and efficiency of his Holland Gin, when used under medical advice, and pledges his own character in business that the article will not disappoint any

From the New-York Express, October 26, 1852. Medical Liquors.

In common, I presume, with many others of the profession, I received, some few months since, a circular addressed "To Physicians throughout the United States," by Mr. Udolpho Wolfe, the importer of Beastates, by Mr. Eddipho Wolle, the importer of Beaver street, inviting a medical and chemical examination of a new article of Holland Gin, manufactured by himself, at Schiedam, in Holland, by a peculiar process, and put up for medical use, under the somewhat Dutch title of "Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps."

The circular claims for this article an eminently succession perior degree of purity, aroma, flavor, and medicinal efficacy: and offers, moreover, a gratuitous supply of it to any physician who may feel disposed to test these claims in a scientific and professional manner. Being familiar with three facts in relation to the use of Holland Gin, as a medicine, namely: first, that when pure, it absolutely invaluable and not to be exchanged for any other remedy known to the profession, in many complaints, both acute and chronic secondly, that amid the multitude of ill-made or adulterated liquors with which this country abounds, a pure Holland Gin is scarcely to be obtained at any price; and thirdly, that the radical impurities of any inferior or spurious Gin consist, first, of the hydra'ed oxide of Amyl, a poisonous oil, or more commonly known as Potato Spirit, Fousel Oil, or Amilic Alcohol; and secondly, of the heavier of the two essential oils of Juniper, instead of the lighter—which impurities usually result from the mercenary system of an exsolved to accept of Mr. Udolpho Wolfe's challenge and put his "Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps" to the test of rigid analysis. And I was induced to do this (notwithstanding the proprietor's long standing and reputed respectability as an importer) because the purity of Gin, above that of every other spirituous liquor employ-ed in medical practice, is of the most vital consequence to of Gin, whove that of every other spirituous liquor employed in medical practice, is of the most vital consequence to the community, inasmuch as it is subject to two distinct causes of pernicious impurity, namely; the inferior oil of Juniper, as well as the Fousel oil; I found moreover, the "Aromatic Schinapps" strongly recommended by a physician and writer of no less influence than D. M. Reese, of the New York Medical Gazette, and by many of the most eminent members of the profession, who I had no reason to suppose had obtained any other than empirical evidence of its pharms ceutical purity and value. I therefore resolved to inform medical men at least, for the sake of the public at large, of the results of my investigation; whether they proved favorable or otherwise to the character of the article and to the interest of the proprietor.

These results are as follows: Searching first for the oil of Juniper by distillation, I obtained an oil, from two quarts of the liquid, whose specific gravity was 0,832 and whose holling point was 313 degrees, nor did successive re-distillation yield an oil of greater gravity, or of any other kind whatever. The same quantity of common Holland Girk so called, yielded an excessive amount, by re-distillation, of oil weighing 0.871 with the boiling point 42 degrees; the lighter oil having previously passed over. This was conclusive as to the super, ority of Mr. Wolfe's Gin in relation to the oil of Juniper, upon which the aroma, flavor, and diuratic and other medicinal properties, of every kind of Gin essentially depend.

As to the Fousel oil, with which all inferior spirituous liquors are more or less impregnated, and which renders them poisonous in the exact ratio in which they are im-

As to the rouset oil, with which all interior spirithous liquors are more or less impregnated, and which renders them poisonous in the exact ratio in which they are imbibed—which causes such liquors to intoxicate when others do n it, and creates that morbid, insatiable appetite for undue indulgence, with all its deplorable consequences, of which the friends of temperance and philanthropy so justly complain, instead of that safety and fastidiousness of tests for which the drinkers of nurs linuors are disof taste, for which the drinkers of pure liquors are dis-tinguished—of this fetid, aerid asthmatical Fousel oil, I found no trace in Mr. Wolfe's medicinal Gin, although I repea'edly tested various quantities of it with the chloride of calcium, by the usual process, which so readily detects and obtains it in the ordinary spirituous liquors. Accordingly, I feel bound to say that I regard this Gin as being in every respect pre-eminently nure, and deserving of medical patronage. It is indebted for its superiority, I doubt not; to sound and select materials, and to that peculiarly moderate method of digitalities which leaves the heavier and less volatile essential offs, both of the barley heavier and less volatile essential oils, both of the barley and the herry, behind in the still. It his also, is sufficient to account for the refined aroma of this above other gins; but in regard to the special qualities of the Italian Juniper berry, of which the manufacturer speaks in his circular, I have no chemical knowledge, no wherein its lighter oil differs from that of the Juniperis communis. I find that the pure oil of both polarizes to the left, and yields, with hydrochloric acid, a liquid camphor. This acid being in the stomach as a principal component of the gastric juice, probably creates this material from the oil, and rensers it the valuable diffusive stimulant for which it was formerly and will, probably, again be renowned.

I consequently regard Mr Wolfe's "Schiedlam Aromatic Schnapps" as a valuable accession to our pharmaceutic agents; to say nothing of its comparative indeconstress to those who use distilled liquors as a beverage. To persent the second of the sec agents: to say nothing of its comparative indoctions ress to those who use distilled figures as a beverage. To persons travelling in the Southwest, where the best water frequently produces distressing and sometimes even dangetous effects upon persons onaccustomed to them. I should think it would be a good precautionary provision, as a counteractive or preventive of those effects, when mixed in moderate quantities. At all eyents, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.
