To the Physicians of the State of South Carolina.

WOLFE'S CELEBRATED SCHIEDAM AROMA-V 11C SCHNAPPS—Deeming, it unnecessar, to remind any regular member of the Medical profession of the established medical properties of pure colland Gin in many diseases of dropsical tendency, I respectfully invite your examination to a very superior artiele, manufactured by myself exclusively, at Schiedam, in Hodiand, by a process peculiar to my own factory. It is flavored and medicated, not by the common harsh berry, but by the choice botanical variety of the arematic Italian Juniper Berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spiritums solvent, and thus becomes a concentrated uneture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transdendent, in its cordial and medicinal properties, to any Holland Gin heretofore known. Amid the influx of inferior distillations with Which the market is now flooded, physicians find no little difficulty in procuring a good and pure G.n. which they can prescribe with confidence in its beneficial effects. As an importer of twenty year's standing, in the city of New Yak, and possessing a matured experience in the manufacture of Holland Gin, especially I beg to submit to your regention my AROMA-TIC SCHIEDAM SCHNAPPS, as one which cannot ly on hand pine Lumber of every description at fail to realize your utmost expectations, and I shall be happy to forward you a little of it, free of charges, in answer to a letter intimating your readiness to accept it.

It is now scarcely one year since I have prepared 9 00 and distributed my Schreban Gin exclusively for 6 00 medical purposes; yet within that brief period, I have received numerous letters, both from physicians and patients, testifying to its really extraordinary efficacy 75 in Gravel, Incipient Dropsy, and affections of the Kid 50 neys and Bladder generally; also in Dyspeptic Mala 1 50 dies, when taken in proper quantities as a Diet Drink, 2 00 and especially at dinner, is found, by uniform expe-3 50 | rience, to be eminently efficacious in the most obsti-4 50 nate cases, when even the best of the usual remedi s I have no doubt that it would yield similar results with precision and certainty in your own professional experience. The Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is put up in strong bottles, pints and quarts, neatly covered and labelled with my name embossed on the bottle; also a fac simile of my signature on the label, and my seal on the lamber which may be had on application to W. W. cork, with an essay upon its properties. UDOLPHO WOLFE, Im orter, 22 Beaver street New York. Extracts from the New York Medical Gazette and Journal of Health, edited by D. M. Reese M. D,, LLD., 775 Broadway, October 1, 1852: Holland Gin as a Medicine. In our last number, we accompanied the publication of a circular on this subject, from our fellow citizen, Udolpho Wolfe, Esq., with a brief commentary, expressive of our own views. Since then we have been employing this agent, and thus far with favorable results. But we are in the receipt of several communications on the subject from medical men, which serve to show that Mr. Wolfe's Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps is very extensively in use, and in the hands of physicians, is proving itself, as a stimulating ciuretic, to be eminently successful, after other medica tion with this intent had een tried in vain. of the cases thus reported, abdominal dropsy has been entirely removed by the passage of a calculous of considerable size which is ascribed to the use of only two bottles of this article. We know not the object of Mr. Wolfe in designa ting his preparation by the singularly uneuphoneous name of "Schnapps," nor of his denominating it in his advertisements the "concentrated Tincture of Juniper," instead of perpetuating its ancient title of Holland Gin. It is true that he admits it to be nothing else than the latter article in its pure state, unadulterated by noxious drugs; and hence he contradistinguishes it from the Gin of commerce, nearly all of which, as is well known, is manufactured here and elsewhere from inferior whiskey and refuse drugs. The name he has given it, however, may serve the purpose of designating his article as prepared excluively for medical purposes, and thus commend it to physicians, for whose convenience it is on sale only by reputable druggists and apothecaries.

As respects its medicinal and curative effects, we understand him to claim only that it is a pure and reliable article of Holland Gin, and as such, worthy of the confidenc of Physicians, to those diseases for which they are strained by finding it impractible to obtain the arti le in a pure state. Nor should any preju-dice against alcoholic medicine deprive the afflicted of the benefit of this article, which from time immemorial has held its place among the remedial agencies of the Materia Medica, if it be found worthy of South Carolina --- Kershaw District | confidence by continued experience. At all events, those who persist in the employment and toleration of other alcoholic medicines, as tinetures, bitters, &c., and especially those who prescribe Gin under any circumstances, must all unite in giving the preference to a pure article over the manifold adulterations so rife in the market. Mr. Wolfe liberally supplies physicians with a sample bottle for analysis and trial, as set forth in his circular, and stakes the reputation of the remedy upon the innocence, safety and efficiency of his Holland Gin, when used under medical advice, and pledges his own character in business that the article will not disappoint any who use it.

From the New York Express, October 26, 1852. Medical Liquors. In common, I presume, with many others of the profession, I received, some few months since, a circu-iar addressed "To Physicians throughout the United States," by Mr. Udolpho Wolfe, the importer of Beaver street, inviting a medical and chemical examina-tion of a new article of Holland Gin, manufactured by bimself, at Schiedam, in Holland, by a peculiar process, and put up for medical use, under the some what Dutch title of "Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps." The circular claims for this article an eminently superior degree of purity, aroma, flavor, and medicinal efficiery : and offers, moreover, a gratuitous supply o it to any physician who may feel disposed to test these claims in a scientific and professional manner.

Being familiar with three facts is relation to use of Holland Gin, as a mellicine, namely: first, that when pure, it absolutely invaluable and not to be exchanged for any other remedy known to the profession, in many complaints, both acute and chronic; secondly, that amid the multitude of ill-made or adulterated liquors with which this country abounds, a pure Holland Gin is scarcely to be obtained at any rice; and thirdly, that the radical impurities of an inferior or spurious Gin consist, first, of the hydra ed oxide of Amyl, a poisonous oil, or more commonly known as Potato Spirit, Fousel Oil, or Amilie Alcohol; and secondly, of the heavier of the two essential oils of Juniper, instead of the lighter-which impurities usually result from the mercenary system of an excessive distillation of the materials employed-1 resolved to accept of Mr. Udolpho Wolfe's challenge, and put his "Schiedam Aronatic Schnapps" to the test of rigid analysis. And I was induced to do this reputed respectability as an importer) because the purity of Gin, above that of every other spiritnous liquor employ-ed in medical practice, is of the most vital consequence to ed in medical practice, is of the most vital consequence to the community, masmuch as it is subject to two distinct causes of permicious impurity, mamely; the inferior oil of Juni,ect. as well as the Fonsel oil; I found moreover, the "Aromatic Schnapps" strongly recommended, by a physi-cian and writer of no less influence than D. M. Reese, of the New York Medical Gazette, and by many of the most eminent members of the profession, who I had no reason to suppose had obtained any other than empiracal evidence of its pharms centical purity and value. I therefore re-solved to inform medical meant least, for the sake of the public at large, of the results of my investigation; whethpublic at large, of the result of my investigation; whether they proved favorable or otherwise to the character of tharticle and to the interest of the proprietor. Those results are as follows: Searching first for the oil of Juniper by distillation. I obtained an oil, from two quarts of the liquid, whose specific gravity was 0.832 and whose holling point was 313 degrees, nor did successive re-distillation yield an oil of greater gravity, or of any there kind whatever. The same quantity of common Holland Gin, so called, yielded an excessive amount, by the lightlying of the scholar of $71 with the holling maint. tharticle and to the interest of the proprietorre-distillation, of oil weighing 0.871 with the boiling point 42 degrees; the lighter oil having previously passed over. This was conclusive as to the super crity of Mr. Wolfe's Gin in relation to the oil of Juniper, upon which the aroma, flavor, and dimetic and other medicinal properties of

ma. flavor, and diuretic and other medicinal properties of overy kind of Gin essentially depend.

As to the Fonsel oit, with which all inferior spirituous liquors are more or less impregnated, and which renders them poismons in the exact ratio in which they are im-bibled—which causes such liquors to intoxicate when oth-ers do n t, and creates that morbid, insatiable appetite for nature indulgence, with all its deplorable consequences, of which the friends of temperance and philanthropy so justify complain, instead of that satiety and fastidiousness of taste, for which the drinkers of pure liquors are dis-tinguished—of this fetid, actid asthmatical Fousel oil, I found no trace in Mr. Wolfe's medicinal Gin, although I reace dily tested various quantities of it with the chloride I repea edly tested various quantities of it with the chloride of culcium, by the usual process, which so readily detects and obtains it in the ordinary spirituous liquors.

Accordingly, I feel bound to say that I regard this Gin as being in every respect prereminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. It is indebted for its superiority, I doubt not; to sound and select up terials and to that peruliarly moderate method of distillation which leaves the harry moverate method of distinguish when figures the heavier and less volatile-essential cits both of the harley, and the herry, behind in the still. This rate, is stifficient to account for the refined at mass of this above other gains, but in regard to the regard address of the Indian Juniper herry, of which the manifest our repeaks in his circular I have no chemical knowledge, not whetein its lighter of differs from their of the Indian transfer of the first or their of the Indian transfer of the first or their of the Indian transfer of the I

I have no chemical showards, no where in its lighter of: differs from that of the Juniperic communis. I find that the pure oil of both polarizes to the left, and yields, with hydrochloric acid, a liquid camplion. This acid being in the stomach as a principal component of the gastric julie, probably creates this material from the oil, and tenes re it the valuable diffusive timulant for which it was formerly and will, probably, again be renewned.

I consequently regard Mr Wolfe's "Schiedem Asumatic Schnapps" as a valuable accession to our pharmacturic agents: to say nothing of its comparative innoctons ness to those who use distilled lingors as a beverage. To persons trav-ling in the Southwest, where the fleet water frequently produces distressing and sometimes even dangerous effects upon persons unaccust med to them. Is hould think it would be a good precautionary provision, as a counteractive or preventive of those effects when mixed in moderate quantities. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and of such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.
