FOR A FEW DAYS ONLY.

Great Bargains in Dry-Goods! O WING to the delicate state of Mr. W. D. Mason's O health, I have resumed possession of the stock of Dry Goods recently sold to him, and would respectfulinform the public, that the same must be disposed of within a very few weeks, as my business engage-ments elsewhere will not admit of any longer delay.-A large portion of the stock has been recently purchas-New York, for eash, but no distinction will be made in favor of new Goods-they must all be disposed of, and that at whatever they will bring. This is, unfortunately, not a mere ruse to gain cus-tom, but a fixed fact, demanding immediate action, and as such, I would earnestly invite the carilest attention of those who wish to lay in a supply of first class Dry Goods at not less than fifty per cent. below the regu-lar prices-an assertion I will fully establish to the saaction of purchasers. Executive Department.

By his Excellency John Laurence Manning over the State of South Carolina.

Governor and Commander in chief in and In consideration of the many blessings which Almighty God has bestowed upon the people . f this State during the past year, and especially for the preservation of general health within its limits during a season of unexampled mortality and suffering elsewhere-and in consideration of the existence of a pestilence which is now rav-aging some of the fairest portions of our common country, making the people to tremble un-der its fearful desolations : 1, JOUN LAURENCE MANNING, Governor and Commander-in chief in and over the State of South Carolina, by virtue of authority vested in me, do issue this my proclamation, setting apart Thursday, the thirteenth day of October next, as a day of fasting, humiliation and prayer; and I hereby invite the ministers and teachers among all religious denominations in this State, to open their places of public worship on that day, for the people to as-semble and humble themselves before their Maker, to return thanks for these marks of His favor, and entreat a continuance of His abundant mercy to us as a people ; and furthermore, to beseech him to arrest the arm of the destroying death ; to comfort the widow, to protect the orphan, to give sustenance to the poor and needy, to give heating to the sick, the spirit of joy for the heaviness of grief; and to show to all mankind the mercy and salvation of our God. And I hereby further invite and request all people to lay aside on that day their usual business and worldly avocations, and to observe with solemus-ty the religious rites which are herein mentiored. JOHN LAURENCE MANNING.
