

The Camden Weekly Journal.

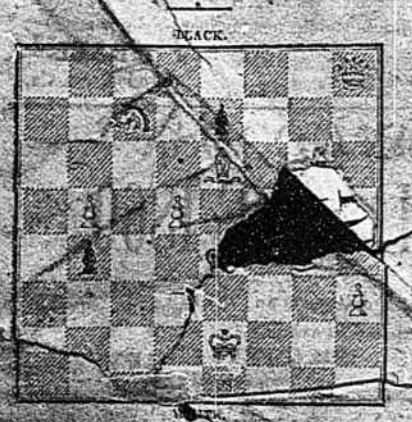

VOLUME XXI. [3 APR. 1860]

CAMDEN, SOUTH-CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 3, 1860.

NUMBER 14.

CHESS COLUMN
OF THE
CAMDEN JOURNAL.
Tuesday, April 3, 1860.

PROBLEM NO. 2. BY "LAL," OF CHARLESTON, S. C.

Solution to Problem No. 21.
White to play, and checkmate in three moves.

Camden Weekly Journal.
Tuesday, April 3, 1860.

J. W. CALL, Associate Editor.

Monthly Advertisers.
We observe that Capt. Joseph M. Allen, of Charleston, S. C., proposes to publish an early day, a Monthly Advertiser in that City. He will distribute gratuitously throughout the Southern States, 10,000 copies of each number. He also proposes to combine with this extensive system of advertising in the interior, the circulation of an insertion of their cards in over fifty different newspapers in the Southern States.

The Old Market.
It will likely prove of interest to many of our readers to know something in reference to the old Market House, the material of which (the brick) has been used in building our new Market. This Market House was built in 1822, and was destroyed by fire in 1858. The brick was used in building the new Market House in 1859.

LOTTERY.
For the Improvement of Camden.
Resolved, That the following Scheme and Plan of a Lottery, be adopted for the purpose of completing the Streets of the Town of Camden, under the authority of the Board of Commissioners.

1500 Tickets at $3 each	$4,500
One stationary prize of $2,000
One do do do 1,500
One do do do 1,000
One do do do 500
One do do do 250
One do do do 100
One do do do 50
One do do do 25
One do do do 10
Two hundred do. of $5	1,000

Five days Drawing of 300 Tickets each day.
The first draw Ticket on the first day, after one hundred tickets shall have been drawn, a prize of $200.
The first draw Ticket on the second day, after one hundred tickets shall have been drawn, a prize of $500.
The first draw Ticket on the third day, after one hundred tickets shall have been drawn, a prize of $1000.
The first draw Ticket on the fourth day, after one hundred tickets shall have been drawn, a prize of $1500.
And the first draw Ticket on the fifth day, after one hundred tickets shall have been drawn, a prize of $2000. In all addition to such prizes as the said tickets may respectively draw.

Well Defended.
The Charleston Courier, capitally defines squatter sovereignty and Free-soilism, and conclusively shows that they are identical one and the same, aiming at the same end, although approaching it by slightly different routes. An open and avowed slaveholder, regarded as preferable to a masked enemy. One demands our life or our purse upon the highway, the other politely informs us that it is quite inexpedient that we should pursue our journey further, and suggests that as a peace measure and in safety to ourselves, we had best halt about and forego the gratification of pursuing our journey to the point. In other words, Free-soilism comes up to the point at once, and Free-soilism kills us off slowly with pretended kindness.

The Insultive Hall.
The Charleston Courier of the 26th ult., says - "We are requested by a Director of the South Carolina Institute, to state that no charge will be made against the Convention for the use of the Institute Hall, after six days, or one week."

Our New Market Steeple.

It is but a matter of great pleasure to every one who has any interest in the advancement and prosperity of our good old town, to observe the steady progress to successful completion of our new Market Steeple, under the energetic and persevering direction of a noble architect.

On Tuesday last, in accordance with appointment the erection of the Steeple of the new Market was commenced. To make assurance doubly sure and place the occurrence of any accident beyond possibility of prevention which the architect and contractor, Mr. Lutz, has taken in every feature of the work it was deemed advisable to strengthen the stakes by withdrawing one of the two suspension poles, and replace it with one stronger, which occupied considerable of the time spent in arrangements.

Through the kindness of the architect, Mr. Lutz, of whom we have just cause to be in a signal, and emphatic commendation of the true and noble talent, to be felt by all who see it.

SELECTED STORY.

"MEET ME THERE."

The last rays of the setting sun were lingering in the West. I stood by one of the windows, and soon as I saw the light of the moon, I turned to the door, and saw a young man standing there. He was dressed in a simple, but neat, suit of blue cloth, and he had a look of intelligence and energy about him. He came forward, and I saw that he was a stranger to me.

KIND HEARTS.

Let but the heart be beautiful, And I care not for the face; I heed not that the form may want, Pride, dignity, or grace. Let the mind be filled with glowing thoughts, And the soul with sympathy, And I care not if the cheek be pale, Or the eye lack brilliancy.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A NIGHT ON BOARD A STEAM-BOAT.

It is a trite, but just remark, that every man in some sense the master of his own fortune. It cannot be denied that much of the happiness or misery that we suffer is the fruit of our own choice. Still I think the remark peculiarly applicable to mothers and heads of families. Happy indeed would it be for the juvenile part of the community, if the ill effects of a wrong choice were wholly confined to the one who makes it. I was led to this reflection, on my return home from an excursion to the country in that little emporium of the great world - a steamboat. As the boat did not leave the wharf till late in the evening, being an invalid, and finding myself too weary to read, I took my station at an early hour in the ladies' cabin, with little else to occupy myself but to observe the different passengers as they came from time to time through their quarters for the night. Of all other places, I know of none where a well bred lady may so readily be discerned from the common throng, as in a crowded steamboat cabin; at night; not so much by her external appearance, or "costly array," as by her easy, unobtrusive, dignified mien, and by her cheerful submission to the little inconveniences inseparable from such limited accommodations, and her refined and polite attention to the comfort and convenience of her fellow-passengers. While the gay, boisterous, and vulgar woman seems to feel herself privileged to lay aside even the common courtesies of life, with her outer garments, and to exhibit without restraint her volubility, ill temper, selfishness, and an utter recklessness of the comfort and happiness of every body else. I had scarcely seated myself, when a lady of modest cheerful aspect entered the cabin, leaning by the hand a sprightly young girl, who checked the lady, as she entered, with a powerful and eternal check to slaveholding sentiments.

Charleston Evening News.

The Democratic National Convention will assemble in Charleston on the 23rd of April next. Two sessions a day may be expected - one from 10 A. M. to 2 P. M., and the other an afternoon session. We have made arrangements to furnish every afternoon a prompt and full report of the proceedings of the forenoon, and on next day the purport of the afternoon meeting.

Homicide in Camden District.

We get from the Editor of the Charleston Banner, the facts of a homicide of Dr. McNeely DuBose, of that district. It was his custom to go to his field for breakfast, and not returning at noon time, his apprehensions were excited from the fact that he was on had taken a walk about the possession and had frequently threatened life. His driver made a search and found his lifeless body lying on his face, with pistol wounds in his breast, in one of the fields.

THE BLUE RIDGE RAIL ROAD.

On Tuesday, says the Wallalla Banner, a public meeting was held in the Court House, in relation to the Blue Ridge Rail Road. Hon. Edward Frost, President of the Road, addressed a full and attentive audience of the citizens. Hon. Jacob Reid succeeded him in a flow of warning eloquence, which told upon all hearts. The meeting was also pleased with a word from Hon. B. E. Perry, the champion of the Blue Ridge cause before our Legislature.

COUNSEL FOR THE YOUNG.

Eighteen things which render young people very impolite.
1. Loud laughter.
2. Reading when others are talking.
3. Cutting finger nails in company.
4. Whistling in company.
5. Whistling in meeting.
6. Gazing at strangers.
7. Leaving a stranger without a seat.
8. A want of reverence for superiors.
9. Reading aloud in company without being asked.

FATAL AFFRAY.

An affray took place on Saturday night last between Osgood A. Mood and a man by the name of Goings, in which the latter was shot through the heart.

LYNCHING, VA., MARCH 25.

Capt. Vincent Withler, Addison Withler, J. A. Smith, and Samuel Swanson, tried for killing the Messrs. Clemens, in Franklin county, Va., were acquitted on Friday evening last.

EXAMINATION.

John B. Brownlow, charged with killing James W. Reese, at Emory and Henry College, underwent an examination last week, at Abingdon, Va., and was hailed in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the next court.

TERRESTRIAL LYNCHING.

The Florida Rail Road Company, we are gratified to learn, have recently leased to Mr. Goodwin and other gentlemen of Virginia, upwards of fifty-five thousand acres of land, situated near Waldo and Trail Ridge, for turpentine purposes. These parties intend engaging in this business on a very large scale, and one of them proposes to employ three hundred hands. They will commence cutting boxes next winter. This business is rapidly increasing, and promises shortly to constitute no inconsiderable portion of the industrial resources of that thriving State.

Education of the Body.

Beginning with this body, in which it has pleased our Creator to give us our earthly dwelling, it evidently needs a careful training to develop its full capacities and powers. The senses are capable of education; even smell, taste and touch, much more hearing sight. Our ordinary modes of education do not do justice to these powers, but, on the contrary, ordinary schooling, by confining children to books and withdrawing their attention from visible objects, rather tends to render the senses less useful in conveying impressions to the mind. And it should be a matter of conscience. Our duty to our Creator demands of us to cultivate every talent he has given us, and make the body as fit for the service of the soul as we can make it. In the vegetable and animal world, and in the wonders of the earth and sky, he has given us that which is worth seeing for its own beauty, worth studying for the revelation which it gives us of his thoughts. In the song of birds, and in the music of the day breeze, blowing through the garden in the cool of the day, we like Adam and Eve, may hear his voice. And it will be to our shame if we suffer the wonderful organs, by which he has rendered us capable of taking note of all his lessons, to grow sluggish for want of use, to remain imperfect for want of training.

THE BLUE RIDGE RAIL ROAD.

On Tuesday, says the Wallalla Banner, a public meeting was held in the Court House, in relation to the Blue Ridge Rail Road. Hon. Edward Frost, President of the Road, addressed a full and attentive audience of the citizens. Hon. Jacob Reid succeeded him in a flow of warning eloquence, which told upon all hearts. The meeting was also pleased with a word from Hon. B. E. Perry, the champion of the Blue Ridge cause before our Legislature.

COUNSEL FOR THE YOUNG.

Eighteen things which render young people very impolite.
1. Loud laughter.
2. Reading when others are talking.
3. Cutting finger nails in company.
4. Whistling in company.
5. Whistling in meeting.
6. Gazing at strangers.
7. Leaving a stranger without a seat.
8. A want of reverence for superiors.
9. Reading aloud in company without being asked.

FATAL AFFRAY.

An affray took place on Saturday night last between Osgood A. Mood and a man by the name of Goings, in which the latter was shot through the heart.

LYNCHING, VA., MARCH 25.

Capt. Vincent Withler, Addison Withler, J. A. Smith, and Samuel Swanson, tried for killing the Messrs. Clemens, in Franklin county, Va., were acquitted on Friday evening last.

EXAMINATION.

John B. Brownlow, charged with killing James W. Reese, at Emory and Henry College, underwent an examination last week, at Abingdon, Va., and was hailed in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the next court.

TERRESTRIAL LYNCHING.

The Florida Rail Road Company, we are gratified to learn, have recently leased to Mr. Goodwin and other gentlemen of Virginia, upwards of fifty-five thousand acres of land, situated near Waldo and Trail Ridge, for turpentine purposes. These parties intend engaging in this business on a very large scale, and one of them proposes to employ three hundred hands. They will commence cutting boxes next winter. This business is rapidly increasing, and promises shortly to constitute no inconsiderable portion of the industrial resources of that thriving State.

Education of the Body.

Beginning with this body, in which it has pleased our Creator to give us our earthly dwelling, it evidently needs a careful training to develop its full capacities and powers. The senses are capable of education; even smell, taste and touch, much more hearing sight. Our ordinary modes of education do not do justice to these powers, but, on the contrary, ordinary schooling, by confining children to books and withdrawing their attention from visible objects, rather tends to render the senses less useful in conveying impressions to the mind. And it should be a matter of conscience. Our duty to our Creator demands of us to cultivate every talent he has given us, and make the body as fit for the service of the soul as we can make it. In the vegetable and animal world, and in the wonders of the earth and sky, he has given us that which is worth seeing for its own beauty, worth studying for the revelation which it gives us of his thoughts. In the song of birds, and in the music of the day breeze, blowing through the garden in the cool of the day, we like Adam and Eve, may hear his voice. And it will be to our shame if we suffer the wonderful organs, by which he has rendered us capable of taking note of all his lessons, to grow sluggish for want of use, to remain imperfect for want of training.

THE BLUE RIDGE RAIL ROAD.

On Tuesday, says the Wallalla Banner, a public meeting was held in the Court House, in relation to the Blue Ridge Rail Road. Hon. Edward Frost, President of the Road, addressed a full and attentive audience of the citizens. Hon. Jacob Reid succeeded him in a flow of warning eloquence, which told upon all hearts. The meeting was also pleased with a word from Hon. B. E. Perry, the champion of the Blue Ridge cause before our Legislature.

COUNSEL FOR THE YOUNG.

Eighteen things which render young people very impolite.
1. Loud laughter.
2. Reading when others are talking.
3. Cutting finger nails in company.
4. Whistling in company.
5. Whistling in meeting.
6. Gazing at strangers.
7. Leaving a stranger without a seat.
8. A want of reverence for superiors.
9. Reading aloud in company without being asked.

FATAL AFFRAY.

An affray took place on Saturday night last between Osgood A. Mood and a man by the name of Goings, in which the latter was shot through the heart.

LYNCHING, VA., MARCH 25.

Capt. Vincent Withler, Addison Withler, J. A. Smith, and Samuel Swanson, tried for killing the Messrs. Clemens, in Franklin county, Va., were acquitted on Friday evening last.

EXAMINATION.

John B. Brownlow, charged with killing James W. Reese, at Emory and Henry College, underwent an examination last week, at Abingdon, Va., and was hailed in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the next court.

TERRESTRIAL LYNCHING.

The Florida Rail Road Company, we are gratified to learn, have recently leased to Mr. Goodwin and other gentlemen of Virginia, upwards of fifty-five thousand acres of land, situated near Waldo and Trail Ridge, for turpentine purposes. These parties intend engaging in this business on a very large scale, and one of them proposes to employ three hundred hands. They will commence cutting boxes next winter. This business is rapidly increasing, and promises shortly to constitute no inconsiderable portion of the industrial resources of that thriving State.

Education of the Body.

Beginning with this body, in which it has pleased our Creator to give us our earthly dwelling, it evidently needs a careful training to develop its full capacities and powers. The senses are capable of education; even smell, taste and touch, much more hearing sight. Our ordinary modes of education do not do justice to these powers, but, on the contrary, ordinary schooling, by confining children to books and withdrawing their attention from visible objects, rather tends to render the senses less useful in conveying impressions to the mind. And it should be a matter of conscience. Our duty to our Creator demands of us to cultivate every talent he has given us, and make the body as fit for the service of the soul as we can make it. In the vegetable and animal world, and in the wonders of the earth and sky, he has given us that which is worth seeing for its own beauty, worth studying for the revelation which it gives us of his thoughts. In the song of birds, and in the music of the day breeze, blowing through the garden in the cool of the day, we like Adam and Eve, may hear his voice. And it will be to our shame if we suffer the wonderful organs, by which he has rendered us capable of taking note of all his lessons, to grow sluggish for want of use, to remain imperfect for want of training.

THE BLUE RIDGE RAIL ROAD.

On Tuesday, says the Wallalla Banner, a public meeting was held in the Court House, in relation to the Blue Ridge Rail Road. Hon. Edward Frost, President of the Road, addressed a full and attentive audience of the citizens. Hon. Jacob Reid succeeded him in a flow of warning eloquence, which told upon all hearts. The meeting was also pleased with a word from Hon. B. E. Perry, the champion of the Blue Ridge cause before our Legislature.

COUNSEL FOR THE YOUNG.

Eighteen things which render young people very impolite.
1. Loud laughter.
2. Reading when others are talking.
3. Cutting finger nails in company.
4. Whistling in company.
5. Whistling in meeting.
6. Gazing at strangers.
7. Leaving a stranger without a seat.
8. A want of reverence for superiors.
9. Reading aloud in company without being asked.

FATAL AFFRAY.

An affray took place on Saturday night last between Osgood A. Mood and a man by the name of Goings, in which the latter was shot through the heart.

LYNCHING, VA., MARCH 25.

Capt. Vincent Withler, Addison Withler, J. A. Smith, and Samuel Swanson, tried for killing the Messrs. Clemens, in Franklin county, Va., were acquitted on Friday evening last.

EXAMINATION.

John B. Brownlow, charged with killing James W. Reese, at Emory and Henry College, underwent an examination last week, at Abingdon, Va., and was hailed in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the next court.

TERRESTRIAL LYNCHING.

The Florida Rail Road Company, we are gratified to learn, have recently leased to Mr. Goodwin and other gentlemen of Virginia, upwards of fifty-five thousand acres of land, situated near Waldo and Trail Ridge, for turpentine purposes. These parties intend engaging in this business on a very large scale, and one of them proposes to employ three hundred hands. They will commence cutting boxes next winter. This business is rapidly increasing, and promises shortly to constitute no inconsiderable portion of the industrial resources of that thriving State.

Education of the Body.

Beginning with this body, in which it has pleased our Creator to give us our earthly dwelling, it evidently needs a careful training to develop its full capacities and powers. The senses are capable of education; even smell, taste and touch, much more hearing sight. Our ordinary modes of education do not do justice to these powers, but, on the contrary, ordinary schooling, by confining children to books and withdrawing their attention from visible objects, rather tends to render the senses less useful in conveying impressions to the mind. And it should be a matter of conscience. Our duty to our Creator demands of us to cultivate every talent he has given us, and make the body as fit for the service of the soul as we can make it. In the vegetable and animal world, and in the wonders of the earth and sky, he has given us that which is worth seeing for its own beauty, worth studying for the revelation which it gives us of his thoughts. In the song of birds, and in the music of the day breeze, blowing through the garden in the cool of the day, we like Adam and Eve, may hear his voice. And it will be to our shame if we suffer the wonderful organs, by which he has rendered us capable of taking note of all his lessons, to grow sluggish for want of use, to remain imperfect for want of training.

THE BLUE RIDGE RAIL ROAD.

On Tuesday, says the Wallalla Banner, a public meeting was held in the Court House, in relation to the Blue Ridge Rail Road. Hon. Edward Frost, President of the Road, addressed a full and attentive audience of the citizens. Hon. Jacob Reid succeeded him in a flow of warning eloquence, which told upon all hearts. The meeting was also pleased with a word from Hon. B. E. Perry, the champion of the Blue Ridge cause before our Legislature.

COUNSEL FOR THE YOUNG.

Eighteen things which render young people very impolite.
1. Loud laughter.
2. Reading when others are talking.
3. Cutting finger nails in company.
4. Whistling in company.
5. Whistling in meeting.
6. Gazing at strangers.
7. Leaving a stranger without a seat.
8. A want of reverence for superiors.
9. Reading aloud in company without being asked.

FATAL AFFRAY.

An affray took place on Saturday night last between Osgood A. Mood and a man by the name of Goings, in which the latter was shot through the heart.

LYNCHING, VA., MARCH 25.

Capt. Vincent Withler, Addison Withler, J. A. Smith, and Samuel Swanson, tried for killing the Messrs. Clemens, in Franklin county, Va., were acquitted on Friday evening last.

EXAMINATION.

John B. Brownlow, charged with killing James W. Reese, at Emory and Henry College, underwent an examination last week, at Abingdon, Va., and was hailed in the sum of $5,000 to appear at the next court.

TERRESTRIAL LYNCHING.

The Florida Rail Road Company, we are gratified to learn, have recently leased to Mr. Goodwin and other gentlemen of Virginia, upwards of fifty-five thousand acres of land, situated near Waldo and Trail Ridge, for turpentine purposes. These parties intend engaging in this business on a very large scale, and one of them proposes to employ three hundred hands. They will commence cutting boxes next winter. This business is rapidly increasing, and promises shortly to constitute no inconsiderable portion of the industrial resources of that thriving State.