War Taxes of 1864.

ASSESSORS OFFICE,
CAMDEN, Sept. 15th, 1864.

THE ASSESSORS OF THE 17th COLLECTION District hereby give notice that they are now prepared to receive the RETURNS for the TAXES of 1864.

In order to aid tax-payers in preparing their returns, the following schedule and classification of taxable articles is published:

CLASS I—All Property Engaged in Agriculture.—
The kinds of property which shall be considered as employed in agriculture are: All lands actually cultivated or connected with or contributing to such cultivation, such as wood or pasture lands; all slaves, little, big, old and young, above twelve years of age, as are properly known and designated as plantation or farm negroes, as contradistinguished from mechanics or house servants or others not connected with a farm or plantation; all horses, mules and oxen used as work animals on a farm or plantation, as contradistinguished from family horses or horses of pleasure, and from horses, mules or stock cattle upon such estate but not actually used in tilling the soil; all ploughs, carts, wagons and implements of husbandry generally used and necessary to the proper cultivation of the crops.

CLASS II—All Property of every kind, Real, Personal and Mixed, not employed in Agriculture.—
This property will embrace lands not employed in agriculture; all real estate in cities, towns and villages, and all other real estate throughout the country that does not contribute to the tax in kind; all slaves not employed in agriculture, embracing all house servants, both in the city and country, carpenters, hand-craftsmen of all kinds, draymen, day laborers, body servants, coachmen, &c., and all others not agricultural including slaves on farms under twelve years of age; courses, mules and jennies not engaged in agriculture; title of the bovine species, sheep, goats and swine.

Cotton, wool, tobacco, corn, wheat, rye, oats, buckwheat and all kinds of grain; potatoes and all kinds of peas, and all products of the farm, garden or orchard.

Flour, meal, sugar, molasses, bacon, lard and all other groceries, merchandise, spirituous liquors, wine, cider, &c.

Value of household and kitchen furniture, agricultural tools and implements, owned but not employed in agriculture, and all tools of mechanics or others, musical instruments and all articles of domestic use, carriages, wagons, drays, carts and every species of vehicles on wheels not employed in agriculture; books, maps, pictures, paintings, statuary and other works of art.

The assets of all banks or other joint stock companies, whether incorporated or not, are taxed just as individuals are taxed—banks paying a tax on their capital and reserved funds, and returning their gold and silver coin as others are required to do.

Gold and silver ware and plate, jewels, jewelry and watches; gold and silver coin, gold dust, gold or silver bullion; value of moneys held abroad, bills of exchange on foreign countries, promissory notes, rights, credits and securities, including Confederate bonds; all solvent credits, bank bills and all other paper, issued as currency—except non-interest bearing Confederate Treasury notes—and not employed in a registered business.

On all profits made by buying and selling articles—purchased since the 1st January, 1863—between the 17th February and 1st July, 1864, a tax of 30 per cent.

There is also a tax of 1 per cent. on all property due and payable in 1864, under the Act to raise money to increase the pay of soldiers.

Tax-payers are urged, as there has been necessarily so much delay, to be prompt in making their returns as above enumerated. Office hours from 9 o'clock a. m., to 2 o'clock p. m.

J. S. MERONEY.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

ADJUTANT AND INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE,
COLUMBIA, September 22, 1864.

GENERAL ORDERS NO. 22.

I. PERSONS LIABLE BY THE LAWS OF THIS State to actual military service beyond the limits of their Districts, and who have not been enrolled and induced in companies organized in pursuance of General Orders Nos. 10 and 11, issued from this office, are required to report for enrollment and assignment on or before the 5th day of October next, or they will be held liable to arrest and to the penalties provided for by the 11th section of the Act of the General Assembly, ratified the 6th day of February, 1863, entitled "An Act for the better organization of the militia, and for other purposes."

II. Persons required to report by the preceding paragraph of these orders, whose companies have already been organized in the militia regiment to which they belong, will be allowed to select their companies, provided they are not already full, and will report to the officers commanding such companies, who will enroll their names.

III. Where the companies organized in any regiment under General Orders Nos. 10 and 11, all have maximum number, (100 men,) persons required to report by these orders, will report to the commanding officer of the regiment, who will organize them into companies, if their numbers be sufficient, and make a return thereof to this office; any if their numbers be insufficient to constitute a company, he will return a list of their names to this office, when they will be assigned to companies organized in other regiments.

IV. The commanding officers of companies organized in pursuance of General Orders Nos. 10 and 12, and of companies to be organized in the 7th and 8th Brigades, under Special Orders No. 12, are authorized to enroll for service in their respective companies, the persons required by these orders to report for enrollment who reside within their militia regiments, until their companies reach the maximum number.

V. It is made the duty of all the militia officers of the State to report to the proper officer for enrollment the names of persons who are liable to enrollment under these orders.

VI. Persons enrolled under General Orders Nos. 10 and 11, under Special Orders No. 12 and under these orders, will be allowed to volunteer in companies of mounted infantry; but they will, nevertheless, be enrolled as required by said orders, and held liable to service as infantry until their companies have been accepted at this office as mounted infantry.

By order of the Governor:
A. C. GARLINGTON,
Adjutant and Inspector-General of S. C.

Extract from Act of General Assembly, entitled "An act for the better organization of the militia, and for other purposes."

SECTION II. That all persons liable to perform actual military service under the provisions of this Act, who shall make default when summoned into such service, shall be liable to such punishment short of death, as may be imposed by a court martial, according to the Articles of War of the Confederate States, said court to be convened by the officer commanding the regiment in which the defaulter is liable to perform said military service, who is hereby authorized to order said court, in conformity with the usages of the Confederate States.
