War Taxes of 1864.

ASSESSORS OFFICE, CAMDEN, Sept. 15th, 1864. THE ASSESSORS OF THE 17TH COLLECTION District hereby give notice that they are now prepared to receive the RETURNS for the TAXES of 1864. In order to aid tax payers in preparing their returns, the following schedule and classification of taxable articles is published:

CLASS I—All Property Engaged in Agriculture. The kinds of property which shall be considered as employed in agriculture are: All lands actually cultivated or connected with or contributing to such cultivation, such as wood or pasture lands; all slaves, free, big, old and young, above twelve years of age, as are properly known and designated as plantation or farm negroes, as contradistinguished from mechanics or house servants or others not connected with a farm or plantation; all horses, mules and oxen used as work animals on a farm or plantation, as contradistinguished from family horses or horses of pleasure, and from horses, mules or stock cattle upon such estate but not actually used in tilling the soil; all ploughs, carts, wagons and implements of husbandry generally used and necessary to the proper cultivation of the crops.

CLASS II—All Property of every kind, Real, Personal and Mixed, not employed in Agriculture. This property will embrace lands not employed in agriculture; all real estate in cities, towns and villages, and all other real estate throughout the country that does not contribute to the tax in kind; all slaves of employed in agriculture, embracing all house servants, both in the city and country, carpenters, handymen of all kinds of daymen, day laborers, body servants, coachmen, &c., and all others not agricultural including slaves on farms under twelve years of age; horses, mules and jennies not engaged in agriculture; cattle of the bovine species, sheep, goats and swine. Cotton, wool, tobacco, corn, wheat, rye, oats, buckwheat and all kinds of grain; potatoes and all kinds of peas, and all products of the farm, garden or orchard. Flour, meal, sugar, molasses, bacon, lard and all other groceries, merchandize, spirituous liquors, wine, cider, &c.

Value of household and kitchen furniture, agricultural tools and implements, owned but not employed in agriculture, and all tools of mechanics or others, musical instruments and all articles of domestic use, carriages, wagons, drays, carts and every species of vehicles on wheels not employed in agriculture; books, maps, pictures, paintings, statuary and other works of art. The assets of all banks or other joint stock companies, whether incorporated or not, are taxed just as individuals are taxed—banks paying a tax on their capital and reserved funds, and returning their gold and silver coin as others are required to do. Gold and silver ware and plate, jewels, jewelry and watches; gold and silver coin, gold dust, gold or silver bullion; value of moneys held abroad, bills of exchange on foreign countries, promissory notes, rights, credits and securities, including Confederate bonds; all solvent credits, bank bills and all other paper issued as currency—except non-interest bearing Confederate Treasury notes—and not employed in a registered business. On all profits made by buying and selling articles—purchased since the 1st January, 1863—between the 17th February and 1st July, 1864, a tax of 30 per cent. There is also a tax of 1 per cent. on all property due and payable in 1864, under the Act to raise money to increase the pay of soldiers. Tax-payers are urged, as there has been necessarily so much delay, to be prompt in making their returns as above enumerated. Office hours from 9 o'clock a. m., to 2 o'clock p. m. JOHN CANTLEY, R. M. KENNEDY, Assessors 17th Collection District, S. C. Sept 17
