Headquarters,

RESERVE FORCES, S. C.) COLUMBIA, Sept, 30, 1864.

GENERAL ORDER NO. 7. PURSUANT TO GENERAL ORDER NO. 73
Ajutant and Inspector General's Office, current series, (hereunto appended) the Brigadier General commanding Reserve forces of South Carolina hereby assumes control and direction of the conscription service in the State.

II. Except as hereinafter specified, the organization of the Conscription Department in the State, including the Examining Boards, will be preserved; and all exists. isting orders, regulations and instructions of the Commandant of Conscripts will be continued of force until otherwise ordered.

IIL Local Enrolling Officers and Examining Boards will report immediately to the Commandant of Con-scripts, and through him communicate with these Headquarters, and will, through him, receive orders

IV. All communications in relation to the Conscription service in the State, and all applications for ex-emption and detail, must be made through the Commandant of Conscripts; communications on all other subjects will continue to be made through the A. A.

General of the Reserve Forces, S.C.
V. The office of Congressional District Enrolling
Officer being abolished, all officers heretofore acting in that capacity will report by letter to the Commandant of Conscripts for assignment to other duty, setting forth their rank, corps, position and presentussignment to duty. Competent officers will be assigned as "Inspectors of Conscription," in the several Congressional Districts.

VI. With a view to compliance of Par. III of said General Order No. 73, the Commandant of Conscripts will, without delay, order the medical examination of all commissioned officers and other persons (except those of the "Invalid Corps") employed in the enrolling service of this State. Commissioned officers, as to whom no disability is found to exist, will hold them-selves in readiness to be assigned to duty in the field as soon as practicable.

VII. Application for assignment to duty as Enrolling Officers, Assistants, Clerks, and to other positions in the Conscription service in this State; will be received from officers, non-commissioned officers and privates belonging to the Reserve Forces, and from retired and light duty officers and men, and from persons not liable to service in the field. Such applications, enclosing testimonials of character, intelligence and fitness, will be addressed to Maj. C. D. MELTON, Commandant of Conscripts, Columbia. S. C. By command Brig. Gen. CHESNUT.
