GENERAL ORDERS NO. 19.
 I. PARAGRAPH I OF GENERAL ORDERS NO.
 18, current series, from this office, requiring the companies organized for service beyond their districts and persons liable to said service, but not enrolled in companies, to proceed to Charleston, as hereby commanded, and they will proceed to Hamburg, S. C., and report to Lieut. Col. W. G. DeSaussure, A. D. C., as heretofore directed.

II. Paragraph I of General Orders No. 16, current series, from this office, requiring all persons claiming exemption from militia service on the ground of physical disability, to appear before the Examining Board at Columbia or the Surgeon-General at Hamburg, S.
 C., is so far modified that persons who have been recently examined by the Boards of Confederate Surgeons and exempted from Confederate service on the ground of permanent disability, will not be required to appear before the Board at Columbia or the Surgeon-General, but will transmit copies of their certificates, through the commanding officers of companies formed in their regiments, to the Surgeon-General of the State—and in regiments where no companies have been organized, directly to the Surgeon-General—the copies of said certificate to be certified by a magistrate or a magistrate ex officio.

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA.

 EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
 COLUMBIA, S. C., December 7, 1864.
THE ACCOMPANYING ACT, RATIFIED BY the General Assembly, on the 6th instant, is published for the information of the militia of the State.
 By order of the Governor.
 D. F. ARTHUR,
 Private Secretary.

AN ACT TO ALTER AND AMEND THE MILITIA LAWS OF THE STATE.
 SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, now met and sitting in General Assembly, and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passage of this Act, all free male white persons within this State, between the ages of sixteen and fifty, not exempt from active service without the limits of the District in which they reside, by the militia laws of this State, shall be liable to active military duty without the limits of the State at the call of his Excellency the Governor.
 SEC. 2. That the Governor shall have authority, whenever in his judgment it is necessary for the defence of this State or of the adjacent States, to order out of the limits of the State, such portion of those liable to active military duty, and for such a length of time as in his judgment the exigency may require.— And that in addition to the other penalties prescribed by law for defaulters, the Governor shall be authorized to order the arrest of all such as may be liable to military duty under this Act, to the intent that they may be compelled to perform the duty devolving upon them; Provided, nevertheless, That he shall at no time place such militia beyond his control, so as not to be able to recall them at any moment whenever the necessities of the State require it.
 SEC. 3. That all free male white persons within the State, between the ages of sixteen and sixty, not embraced in the active militia, shall be liable to military duty in cases of alarm, invasion, insurrection or as the posse militatus anywhere within the limits of the State.
 SEC. 4. That the Governor shall have power to allow an exemption or detail in such special cases, either of necessity or of public interest, as in his judgment should be made in either or both of the said classes of militia.
 SEC. 5. That all Acts or clauses of Acts inconsistent with this Act be repealed.
 In the Senate House, the sixth day of December, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, and the eighty-ninth year of the sovereignty and independence of the State of South Carolinia.

THE
Southern Field & Fireside
GRAND LITERARY COMBINATION!
 A VAST CONCENTRATION OF TALENT, SURpassing any combination ever before attained in the history of PERIODICAL LITERATURE of Europe or America!
The Southern Field and Fireside," OF AUGUSTA, GA.,
 AND
"The Illustrated Mercury," OF RALEIGH, N. C.
 Combined and continued under the old popular title of
SOUTHERN FIELD & FIRESIDE.
 THE ENTIRE EDITORIAL AND CONTRIBUTORIAL CORPS OF BOTH JOURNALS RETAINED.

THE PROPRIETORS OF THE "MERCURY" having purchased the "Southern Field and Fireside" and finding it impossible to make arrangements which would insure a regular supply of paper, upon account of the irregularity and uncertainty of transportation for the "Field and Fireside" at Augusta, Ga., the same having to be supplied from the mills at Raleigh, N. C., have removed the "Field and Fireside" to Raleigh and combined these two sterling Literary Journals. The "Mercury" is therefore merged into the "Southern Field and Fireside," and will be so published until the state of the country will justify a divergement, when both papers will be resumed and continued as heretofore. Subscribers to both journals will receive the paper to the full time of subscription without delay or interruption.
 The entire Editorial and Contributorial Corps of both papers are retained upon the emerging journal. It is announced without fear of contradiction that the extensive and

Splendid Array of Combined Talent now employed in writing for the "Field and Fireside" surpasses in genuine merit, ability, celebrity and numerical strength any combination or engagement ever before attained in the history of Periodical Literature of Europe or America.
 It is a large eight page Weekly Journal teeming with original Romances, Sketches, Tales, Poetry, History, Essays, Criticisms, Witicism; including Translations from the French, German and other Languages; Agricultural, Mechanical and Scientific articles, etc.
 The Proprietors confidently assert that the "Field and Fireside" shall at once far excel in real merit every publication of the kind ever before attained or attempted in the United States or the South. The arrangements now effected fully justify the assertion.

 31 ems each—1,705 ems per page.
 Permanent Journal, Long Primer, 58 lines, of 31 ems each—1,705 ems per page.
 Calendars of the two Houses, Long Primer, 58 lines, of 31 ems each—1,705 ems per page.
 The Bills to be printed on good writing paper, and all other printing to be done on printing paper, of as fine quality as can be procured.
 Extra copies of every paper ordered to be printed by either House, must be furnished to each member of the other branch of the Legislature.
 Of the Bills, Reports, Documents, Journal and Calendar, two hundred copies are required daily, one hundred and fifty for the members of the House of Representatives, and fifty for the members of the Senate.
 The Journal and Calendar must be delivered punctually at or before the hour of meeting of the Houses of each day, and one copy by the same hour, to be delivered at the Executive Department, and one copy to the State Auditor.
 The Acts and Permanent Forms of the Houses must be printed, stitched and ready for delivery by the 20th of February, after the regular session. Rule and figure work to count double, and pages and side notes to be estimated at the rate of 1,705 ems per page.
 The two Houses will separately choose the Printer of their daily work, and will unite in the selection of the Printer of their permanent work, viz: Acts, Reports, Resolutions, &c.
 Proposals for the Printing of the two Houses, or of either House, must conform to the foregoing specifications.

THE LAWS OF NEWSPAPERS:
 1. SUBSCRIBERS WHO DO NOT GIVE EX-PRESS notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.
 2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their newspapers, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.
 3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their new-papers from the offices to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled the bills and ordered them discontinued.
 4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publishers, and the newspapers are sent to the former direction they are held responsible, for the same.
 5. The Courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers from the office or moving and leaving them uncalled for is "prima facie" evidence of intentional fraud.
 6. The Courts have also repeatedly decided that a postmaster who neglects to perform his duty of giving reasonable notice, as required by the Post Office Department, of the neglect of a person to take from the office newspapers addressed to him, renders the Postmasters liable to the publishers for the subscription price.
