scribers, or more, at $2,00 each, we will give a cash commission of $2,00, or a years subscription to the GAZETTE

To the person who gets up a club of ten subscribers or more at $2.00 we will give a cash commission of $5,00.

Now is the time to work for us and take advantage of our liberal offer.

Wood was at a discount, hast week.

THE setting out, of shade trees is now in order.

Advertisements inserted as reading matter, under head of Business Notices, at rate of fifteen cents per line. Contracts made at reduced rates.

THERE are two fire traps in the rear of the Workman building which should receive the attention of somebody, and be tora down.

FIRE.-We learn that on Thursday last a destructive fire occurred at Knights house of a colored min by the wame of Ben Davis. Nothing was 8 ved.

Mr. W. J. Warrington, who is the author of "Southern Sketches" now runping in the GAZETTE, los our thanks patch, and a copy of I es is a new paper, Парру Поте.

Sparre is following close upon the heels of Wirter. The trees are begining to put forth leaves, and soon will be cetit unes as pleasant as it was hist week.

ARRIVAL OF IMMIGRANTS. - FOOTtien immigrants arrived in Camden on Thursday hat, and were given shelter in the Town Hall. All of them are robust young men, of whom seven are Irish and moren English. Employment was readile secured for all of them, or plantations in this county.

THE WEATHER -Yesterday was a edd, damp, mudly, disagreeable day. A slight rain fell during the most of the day, and as we go to press the appear suce of the weather indicates a fall of "the beautiful snow."

LAMARTINE was asked by a friend if he had not spent too much in advertising. "No," was the reply, "advertise ments are absolutely necessary. Even divine worship (le bon Dien) needs to be advertised. Else what is the meaning of church bolls.

Whenever you see a merchant advertise you know he means business, and is willing "to live and let live." Always buy your goods from those who advertise, and then you can rest assured that you will get the full worth of your money,

WE cannot say too much in favor of the fertilizers advertised in the GAZETTE, by Mr. J. N. Robson, of Charleston. The Pacific Guano Company's guano is among the best used, and our planters should avail themselves of its merits.

MERCI, MESSIEURS. - We extend our thanks to our friends over the way. Mesara Kirkley & Garland, for a hand some present in the shape of a basket of rich and delicious fruit, embracing pineapples, oranges and apples. This firm is among the most liberal we have ju Camden, and we can assure our readers that all who bestow their patronage upon these gentlemen will be well pleased.

Wa beg to invite the attention of ou readers to the advertisement of Mr. J W. McCurry, to be found in the advertising columns of the GAZETTE, Mr. Mc-Curry keeps a good assortment of seasonble goods, and is a reliable dealer in pery way. "We regret to say that we could not examine the School Commissioner's ffice, he being absent."

"The Bridge Commissioners having in charge the building of the Free Bridge across the Wateree river, report that they have accomplished the work -that it is a sound and substantial structure.

THE FERRUARY number of Wood's HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE is really a marvel of what can be furnished for only one dollar a year ; considering the cost and the quality this is the cheapest magazine which comes to our table. Its articles have a chasteness about them which is not always found in periodical literature, which adopts it to fill a place now too largely occupied by cheap publications that are positively injurious to the young.

without being exactly immoral. We have not room to specify the articles which fill the pages before us-but they are many and excellent. The magsaine contains three engravings-a prety house design also the New York fushions (illustrated) prep red expressly for the HOUSEBOLD by Mmc. Demorest. The publisher, announces that hereafter the magazine will always be i lustrated. Susberiptions may begin with any number. Only one pollar A YEAR, or with Chromo Yosemite, $1,5°. A COUNTRY PAPER exclaims : "Lives there a man with soul so dead," who never to himself has suid. I'll pay before I go to bed, the debt I owe the printer? Yes, there are some we know full well, who never such a tale could tell, but they, I fear, will go to well, the place where there's no winter.

Southern Sketches.
Early is 1815, to become known in seent Queen that a large force of the British were approaching the city. Gen. Jackson, who was in command, hastily made preparations to repell the invading for. The result was the memorable battle on the 8th of January the most brilliant victory aver achieved by the United States. The British made a charge on Jackson's breastworks. (constructed of bales of cotton) and were repulsed, leaving two thousand dead up on the field, including their commander Sir Edward Packenham. Shortly after the great battle, inteligence come that treaty of peace had been effected. The lurisiciouds of war rolled away and abundant peace and prosperity filled the land. The Father of Waters yourly laid his immense riches at the feet of the Queen City. Immigration poured in from all hands ; and for half a century the evy grew rapidly, both in wealth For miles along the latives of the arishad established large of houses.

—Up to last fuesday night, about 700 taxpayers had settled with the Treasurer. This leaves a balance of about 2100 yet to settle.

From the Grand Jury.—From the of elegant munsions bordered the wellshaded streets; and her what's were I ned with vessels from all lands. The Crescent Queen ranked among the first commercial ports of the world.

Then came the rumers of war; and once again fushed with patriotic pride and love of home, she sent forth her sons, who, ou many a bloody battle-field. added undying laurels to her fame. The events of the sanggle are too familiar to bear recogniting.

With this brief and crude introductory to the post, we will now take a look at the manners and customs in the yenerable and varied city

Let us approach the Crescent Queen on one of her floating palaces. Descending the father of waters, we glide by fields of waving cate, and forests draped in pendant moss, and quaint old mansions half hid by stately trees. Rapidly gliding past Carrolton, (our of the suburbs of New Orleans) rounding a curve in the river, and the Crescent Queen, like a huge pano uma seread before u . Strikingly grand and picturesque is the scene before us. Along the wharf, as far a the eye can reach, : re the towering mosts of ships clearly defined against the background of deep blue sky. Beyoud the levee lies the city, with its tall spires pointing heavenward. Not a in of life is visible.

Tim some, like a fairy enchantment unfolds new beauties as we near the city? The wharfs are througed with people : some hurrying to and fro; others idly lounging about, or lazily reclining against the hage piles of morch in lize.

The loud, sonorous tones of the bell monnee that we are about to "make the landing." We go ashore just as the sun tinges the western harizon with floor of mellow light; fast fading trom view, as the queen of night lowers her canopy of darkness over the city.

Tomorrow, we will go "sight-seeing" in the unique Crescent Queen.
