LOVE UNCHANGEABLE.
Yes! still I love thee:—Time, who sets His signet on thy brow, And dims my sunken eye, forgets The heart he could not bow;— Where love that cannot perish grows For one, alas! that little knows How love may sometimes last;
Like sunshine wasting in the skies, When clouds are over cast.

The dew-drop hanging o'er the rose, Within its robe of lights,
Can never touch a leaf that blows, Though seeming to the sight;
And yet it still will linger there, Like hopeless love, without despair—A snow-drop in the sun!
A moment finely, exquisite, Alas! but only one.

Enough that in delicious dreams, I see thee and forget—Enough that when the morning beams, I feel my eyelids wet!
Yet, could I hope when Time shall fall,
The darkness, for creation's fall,
To set thee—and to love,— I would not shrink from aught below, Nor ask for more above.

EPIGRAM.
'Tis said that Truth is doom'd to dwell Down at the bottom of a well; (How cruel thus to duck it!)
'Mongst us so seldom it appears, That I begin to have my fears Truth must have kick'd the bucket.

A Locofoco editor in Indiana preaches a long sermon from the text "Memento mori," which he translates "Remember to die." We suppose the poor fellow is afraid that people will forget to die, and so live forever.—Louisville Journal.

A man can't help what is done behind his back, as the loafer said when he was kicked out of doors.

An Irish paper, in noticing the appearance of a celebrated actress, says; The house was crowded with hundreds more than it could hold of admiring spectators, who went away without a sight.

DOMESTIC ECONOMY.—Some courtiers were talking of their household affairs, and in particular of the wages they gave their servants. One of them observed, that he gave his maitre d'hotel a hundred pistols; a second that he allowed his six hundred. "And I," said one, "I go far beyond either of you, for I allow mine four thousand francs per annum." At first the whole party were astonished at this exorbitant allowance. At last one of them thought of putting the question, "but do you pay him?" "Oh, no," said he.

A LUCKY PRINTER.—Mr. Lafayette Stiff, a compositor in the office of the Cincinnati Times, received a letter recently from Alabama, enclosing a remittance, and informing him that by the decease of a relative, he was now the heir of property and cash of over $10,- 000 value. We can imagine, (says the Enquirer) that he must have drawn an exceedingly long breath when that intelligence met his eyes. Well, we don't know of any body that has a better right to such luck than printers, for, as a general thing, they can appreciate those little trifles to the fullest extent.

At a late election in Memphis, three printers were successful candidates: one was elected Sherriff, another Alderman, and the third Constable.

"Mithter! mithter! what have you done, said" a little "shaver" with protruding eyes to a "greeny" who had just finished tying his horse to a spruce pole, as he thought on Merrimack street.

"Done," said the fellow; "what d'ye mean; I hain't done nothin' not's I know on."

"Why, yith you have thir, you've jeth hitched your hoth to the Magnetic Telegraph, and you'll be in Bothton in leth than two minnith if you don't look out."

The man untied his horse with nervous anxiety and jumping into his sleigh, drove hastily down the street.—Vox Populi.

There never was a lady so virtuous or moral that she would not hook another's dress when an opportunity offered.

MORE BLUNDERS THAN ONE.—An Irish nobleman on a journey, was informed that his way lay over a ruined bridge which he would be obliged to pass in the night. He ordered his postillion to call him when they reached the dangerous place, then wrapping himself in his cloak went to sleep. When they reached the bridge the postillion called, but as his master did not awake, he drove on and passed over.—Soon after the traveller awoke and called out:—"How is this! John have you passed the broken bridge?" "Yes, your honor." "Why did you not wake me as I ordered you to do?" "I did not like to disturb your honor."
"Upon my honor, if we had all fallen in the water and been drowned, I would have put a bullet through your head." "By all the martyrs, if you had, I would have left your service the next minute, if I had starved."

Look into the life and temper of Christ, as described and illustrated in the Gospel, and search whether you find anything like it in your own life. Have you anything of his humility, meekness, and benevolence to men? Anything of his purity and wisdom, his contempt of the world, his patience, his fortitude, his zeal.

"Genius will always work its way through, as the poet said when he saw a hole in the elbow of his coat.

A down east editor wonders why his subscribers, who are rampant for Oregon, will not walk up and pay their subscriptions, after having had more than a "year's notice" that the payment would be very desirable.

THE FARMER.—With no inheritance but health, with no riches but industry, and no ambition but virtue, he is the sole king among men, and the only man among kings.

An Irishman, recommending a cow, said she would give milk, year after year, without having calves, because it run in the breed, as she came from a cow that never had a calf.

Dr. Spencer's Vegetable Pills, and Vegetable Tonic and Restorative BITTERS.

The value and efficacy of Spencer's Vegetable Pills have long been known and appreciated in a great variety of diseases, and as the best and most important of Family Medicines. Dr Spencer having been actuated by a desire to benefit his fellow beings, has also prepared his Vegetable Tonic and Restorative Bitters, which he now offers to the public, as the result of an extensive practice, and thorough investigation of the laws which govern the human system.
They are purely Vegetable, and may be taken with perfect safety by all ages and sexes in youthful, adult and declining life.
The design of Spencer's Vegetable Pills and Vegetable Tonic Restorative Bitters, is to create a flow of pure healthy bile, instead of the stale and acid kind.
The object of the Pills is to stimulate all the vital organs of the system into action, and thereby cleanse the stomach and bowels of all the morbid and offensive matter with which the system is clogged, and which promotes disease. The Bitters are to strengthen and restore the stomach and vital organs, to their proper tone and vigor. When this is accomplished, good health must be the result.

The complaints that come most directly under their influence, and for which they are so particularly designed, are as follows: Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Sick head-ache, Enlargement of the Spleen, Jaundice, Piles Cholic, Bowel and summer complaints, Impurities of the blood, Female Obstruction, Heartburn, Incipient Diarroe, Habittual Costiveness, Determination of blood to the head, Loss of Appetite, Blotched or Sallow Complexion and in all cases of Torpor of the bowels, where a cathartic or aperient medicine is needed. As many of the above enumerated diseases come on imperceptibly, and become far advanced in their progress before it is suspected that they exist in the system, no one should expect in such cases, to be at once relieved entirely, but should continue the use of the Medicine for a considerable length of time. Full directions accompany the medicines for their use, in all those complaints for which they are recommended.

Price 25 cents per box for the Pills, and $1 per bottle for the Bitters.
Reader! do not fail to notice the following certificate from Mr James Lindsay, of Jefferson, Jackson co., Geo.
To Dr. Spencer— March 18, 1846.

Dear Sir: I have made great use of your Vegetable Pills in my family for the last three years, and I consider them the best medicine in use. I have made considerable use of Peters' Vegetable Pills, and many others, but I am convinced that yours are superior to any of them. For Sick Head Ache they are an excellent medicine; for Bowel Complaint I think them the best medicine I ever used. Some of my neighbors are also using your Pills with the most decided benefit. In fine, I candidly confess that I have derived more real benefit from them than from any other medicine I have ever used; and I think that every family should always keep a supply of them on hand.

JAMES LINDSEY.

beville C H by Drs Wardlaw & Dendy,
