(FOR THE BANNER.) Farewell to thre Greenville.

Farewell to thee Greenville! a long sad farewell!

With what feelings 1 leave thee, no lan guage can tell;

Farewell to thy loafers, belles, beaux of all grades, Quacks, lawyers and preachers, and jacks of all trades ; May thy merchants and tailors become honest men, Before I revisit thy mountains again.

Farewell to thy lawyers-out numbering far,

Both cases and clients-I pity the bar! The people of late, have been reading

the story

Where LEO and BEREU, exhausted and gory,

Saw RENARD step up with great condescension.

And boldly bare off the prize of contention !

And so deeply are they impressed with the moral,

("Knaves get the prize for which fools always quarrel,")

That I candidly believe the profession of law,

Will starve any man engaged in it new. Farewell to thee Greenville! oh! long may'st thou be As dear to all others as thou art to me! Farewell to thy doctors-as jolly a set As ever had license to murder men yet : No wilder young devils e'er met on a spree Than your doctors of medicine and di vinity :-

My prayers both for them and their pa tients ascend-

Let me urge you physicians your lives to amend,

"Even now" let me pray you a new course begin,

Stop flirting with girls and with men drinking gin-

Cease all your political "Lyceum" strife,

For your several professions with dutics are rife,

And if on earth's stage contention 's so rare,

That your humble parts must be enacted there,

Go enter the list, but in this only vic, One teach man to live-the other to die. Now may this be received as kindly as meant, And cause you, dear doctors, your sins

to repent ;

And oh! may you meet, when from earth you 're riven, The friends your joint efforts have landed in heaven.

in your ears:

Think less of your dresses, and more of your prayers;

Oh! teach! teach your daughters to feel, not assume,

The graces they wear; for remember the bloom,

That now on their cheeks so beautiful glows,

Will fade, and those cheeks become charmless as yours:

Then oh ! be more kind than your fond mothers were,

And learn them those graces that time cannot sear.

Valuable School Books.

Just received from Philadelphia, Grigg & Elliott's New Series of Common School Readers No 1 2 3 and 4. Dr Frost, L L D, Professor of Belle's Lettres in Phila-delphia High School, says of these books, "I know of no book used in Common Schools which are preferable to them." Also, Dr Ruschenberger's First Books of Natural History, comprising Elements of Anatomy and Physiology, Mineralogy, Ornithology, Conchology, Icthiology, Entomology, Botany and Geology. Respec-ting these books, the Publishers, among great number of recommendations which they have received, present the following:

"Having examined, with some care, a series of School Books, lately published by Messrs, Grigg & Elliott of Philadelphia, it affords me pleasure to state, that the 'Readers' appear to me well adapted to the purpose for which they are designed. The lessons are judiciously selected, well arranged, and calculated at once to improve the mind and heart. Dr Ruschenberger's series of Text Books of Natural History are admirable, and supply a deficiency which has long been felt in our Elementary Schools, not to say Colleges, in which the book of Nature fair' has been too little studied, and our children and youth, consequently, nay, our grown up men, though living and moving in the midst of the most surprising wonders, neither heed nor feel any interest in them, because they have Farewell dashing matrons! a word in not the most elementary knowledge to serve as a first step to excite their attention, or guide their observations. This state of things need no longer, and we hope will no longer, continue. Dr Ruschenberger has imposed a new duty upon every intelligent and faithful teacher of youth at once to make himself acquaited with, and communicate to his pupils, the interesting subjects of which these manu-als treat: HENRY M. BURNS, Principal of the High School of Charleston Also, U. States Dispensatory, Sterne's Works, Josephus 2 vols 8vo, Village Ser-mons, Daughter's Own Book, Book of Politeness, Dictionary of Select Quotations, Seneca's Morals, Mason's Farring, Gold-Paul Jones, Byron's Works illustrated and extra gilt, Mrs Hemans's Works, Rogers, Campbell, Cowper, Milton, Crabbe, Young, Gray, Bcattie, Heber, &c &c, Smyley's Arithmetick, &c, for sale by R. Dr. Spencer's Vegetable Pills, and Vegetable Tonic and Restorative BITTERS.

The value and efficacy of Spencer's Vegetable Pills have long been known and appreciated in a great variety of diseases, and as the best and most important of Family Medicines. Dr Spencer having been actuated by a desire to benefit his fellow beings, has also prepared his Vegetable Tonic and Restorative Bitters, which he now offers to the public, as the result of an extensive practice, and thorough investigation of the laws which govern the human system. •

They are purely Vegetable, and may be taken with perfect safety by all ages and sexes in youthful, adult and declining life. The design of Spencer's Vegetable Pills and Vegetable Tonic Restorative Bitters, is to create a flow of pure healthy bile, in-stead of the stale and acid kind.

The object of the Pills is to stimulate all the vital organs of the system into tetion, and thereby cleanse the stomach and bowels of all the morbific and offensive matter with which the system is clogged. and which promotes disease. The Bitters are to strengthen and restore the stomach and vital organs, to their proper tone and rigor. When this is accomplished, good health must be the result.

The complaints that come most directly under their influence, and for which they are so particularly designed, are as follows: Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaints, Sick head ache, Enlargement of the Spleen, Jaundice, Piles Cholic, Bowel and summer complaints, Impurities of the blood, Female Obstruction, Heartburn, Incipient Diarroch, Habitual Costiveness, Determination of blood to the head, Loss of Appetite, Blotched or Sallow Complexion and in all cases of Torpor of the bowels, where a cathartic or pperient medicine is needed. As many of the above enumerated diseases come on imperceptibly, and become far advanced in their progress before it is suspected that they exist in the system, no one should expect in such cases, to be at once relieved entirely, but should continue the use of the Medicine for a considerable length of time. Full directions accompany the medicines for their use, in all those complaints for which they are recommended.

Price 25 cents per box for the Pills, and $1 per bottle for the Bitters.

Reader ! do not fail to notice the following certificate from Mr James Lindsy, of Jefferson, Jackson co., Geo.

To Dr. Spencer- March 18, 1846. Dear Sir: I have made great use of your Vegetable Pills in my family for the nith's Animated Nature 2 vols, Life of aul Jones, Byron's Works illustrated and tra gilt, Mrs Hemans's Works R common Structure and Siderable use of Peters' Versitable District, and Siderable use of Peters' Versitable District and Siderable Use of Peters' Versitable District and Siderable Use of Peters' Versitable District District, and Siderable Use of Peters' Versitable District District, and Siderable Use of Peters' Versitable District District, and Siderable Use of Peters' Versitable District District District, and Siderable Use of Peters' Versitable District District, and Siderable Use of Peters' Versitable District District District, and Siderable Use of Peters' Versitable District and many others, but I am convinced that yours are superior to any of them. For Sick Head Ache they are an excellent medicine; for Bowel Complaint I think them the best medicine I ever used. Some of my neighbors are also using your Pills with the most decided benefit. In fine, I candidly confess that I have derived more real benefit from them than from any other medicine 1 have ever used; and I think that every family should-always keep a supply of them on hand. JAMES LINDSEY. The above medicines are for sale at Abbeville C H by Drs Wardlaw & Dendy, and at the Post Office by John McLaren. April 1 5 3m.

Farewell to thee Greenville! and with thee adica

To those friends who have always been faithful, though few,

- May life for them ever be joyous and bright,
- Their hopes know no ending, their pleasures no night.
- Farewell beloved friends! Time cannot destroy
- Recollections that team with unspeakable joy;
- But fudeless around our spirits will twine,
- The Eden-tinged visions of deathless " Lang Syne."
- And now last and least, a happy farewell,
- belle;
- If in EUCLID's plain figures you possessed half the skill,
- That you do in "La Polka" and mazy "Quadrille,"
- If to history's page, you'd devote a small space
- Of time you expend with your glass and your face,
- Believe me, you'd be more beautiful far, Than with all your "quaint antics"-
- vain creatures you are; When through your bright eyes intelli-
- gence beams,
- And your rosy lips speak upon sensible themes-

You'll be more enchanting, entrancing and fair,

- Than the most graceful dancing could make you appear;
- For knowledge does more to beautify Fhan Madame —
- " La Polka" and A"Quadrille" combined. CONRAD.
