

and river. Two companies were sent out in pursuit of the Mexicans, and after following them fifty miles, returned stating that they had not approached nearer to them than six hours travel.

The blockade of Vera Cruz commenced on the 20th ultimo, and fifteen days were allowed neutral vessels in port to load and depart. News had reached Vera Cruz that Mazatlan and Tepic had pronounced in favor of SANTA ANA; that PAREDES intended to leave the city of Mexico at the head of more troops to reinforce the army of the north.

From the enormous forced loans which the Government has imposed upon the clergy, it would appear that the war is to be prosecuted with vigor. The Metropolitan Church was ordered to furnish a subsidy of $98,000 per month; the church of Michoacan $35,000; of Puebla $40,000; of Guadalajara $20,000; of Durango $15,000; and of Oajaca $8,000.

Foreign News.—Upon the first page of this week's paper will be found extracts of foreign news brought out by the steamer Great Britain. The news is not of much importance, with the exception of the English presses upon the Oregon question, and the advance of an 1-8d in the price of cotton.

Since the arrival of the Great Britain, the Cambria has arrived, bringing advices up to the 19th ultimo, which are also of little importance, but giving an advance still in the cotton market. The Corn Law has passed the House of Commons by a large majority, and is thought will pass the House of Lords also. Upon the Oregon question, the London Times says:—

"The packet which will sail from Liverpool in a few days will convey to the United States the real impression produced here by the late intelligence. If the resolution was intended as a threat or a hostile measure, it has totally failed to have any effect whatever, except that it is probable Mr. Pakenham will be at once empowered to bring the controversy to a prompt and final issue. The London Economist states, on what it considers high and unquestionable authority, that the Oregon question is on the point of a satisfactory settlement."

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Southern Cultivator: JAS. CANAK, Editor. J. W. & W. S. JONES, Publishers, Augusta, Ga.—Price, $1.00.

The June No. of this valuable journal is before us with its usual complement of useful and interesting matter. We trust the patronage of the Cultivator is such that there will be no doubt of its continuance for many years.

THE TARIFF BILL.—The Union of 27th ult. holds the following language on this subject, to which we respond, so may it be.

"The civil and diplomatic bill is among the last of the appropriation measures which demand the immediate action of Congress. This bill will probably pass the House of Representatives to-morrow; and then, we fervently trust, the road is open to the immediate discussion of the tariff. We have never seen a better and firmer spirit among our republican friends than now. We say again and again, in the frankest and boldest, and yet most respectful spirit, that it is time to act upon it—time to carry out the reforms for which we came into power, (and this is the greatest among them)—time to relieve a suffering people, and equalize the burdens, as well as the blessings, of the government. Let no member complain that his friends will not stand by him, and do their duty. Cowardice, nay, in such a case, desert betrays almost like treason. Let the republicans stand up to their duties like men, and the ship is safe."

Ex-President Tyler has testified before the committee of investigation that Mr. Webster never made use of a single dollar of the Secret Service money without his approval.

There are on the muster roll of Pennsylvania, 230,000 intelligent and hardy militia, and 32,000 armed and equipped volunteers ready for service at any moment.

The Boston Telegraph was struck by lightning on Sunday. The fluid ran two-thirds of the length of the wire, and passed off at one of the posts.

THERE, BOYS!—We heard one of our spirited village ladies say the other day, that unless the men formed a volunteer company pretty shortly, she would and could enroll a company of Ladies, and thus sustain the revolutionary fame of our good old County. "Do you hear that, boys?"
Mecklenburg Jeffersonian, N. C.

A Washington letter published in the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, says:

An invasion from different points, at the same time, the forces all aiming at the city of Mexico, has been talked of. A distinguished officer of the Army has, it is said, given it as his opinion that a force of a hundred thousand men will be necessary for the object.

In the meantime the Government have taken a step which is quite as decided and important as a march to the Mexican capital. The American squadron, under Com. Stockton, have orders to take possession of St. Francisco and Monterey, and to hold those places against all opposition. I know this to be a fact.

The citizens of Charleston have determined to procure a splendid sword and present it to Gen. Taylor as an evidence of their feelings on the receipt of the news of his able and masterly movements on the Rio Grande, in the face of a force nearly quadruple that of his own."

It is stated that company H. at Newport, and company G. at Governor's Island, have received orders to proceed to Texas.

KENTUCKY VOLUNTEERS.—When it was proclaimed that the government had called on Kentucky for troops to prosecute the war against Mexico, such was the zeal displayed, that two captains who had succeeded in raising their companies, started to the capital to report themselves to the governor as ready to march; one of them on arriving at Lexington, was apprised that he was preceded by the others, who had only left a few minutes, and immediately drove post haste to be in first; the other learning the object increased his speed, and both continued the race until one unfortunately broke his buggy, and left an apparently easy contest to his rival; but, nothing discouraged, he ungeared his horse, and mounted without saddle, and by taking a near cut, beat his antagonist to the executive chamber, but was mortified that the number required had already been accepted, in the meantime the other came up when both, crest fallen and disappointed, inquired if they would not have preference in a war with England; such is the spirit that pervades our country.—Washington Union.

The Philadelphia Times denies unequivocally for authority, the truth of the report in relation to the appointment of Bishop Hughes as an agent to Mexico.

CHARLESTON, June 3, 1846.

General Order No. 4.

For the information of persons throughout the State desirous of volunteering under the recent requisition, it is ordered for publication.

That after the organization of the Regiment, a system of Company drill will be commenced, to be conducted under the general direction and superintendence of the Adjutant and Inspector General, but not to exceed one drill per week for each Company.

The Companies to compose the Regiment must be of Infantry, therefore Rifle-men volunteering must signify their willingness to enter that arm of the service; and no company will be withdrawn from its District until the Regiment is ordered out and concentrated for the purpose of being mustered into service.

The 3d and 4th sections of the Act of Congress, providing for the prosecution of the war between the United States and Mexico, contain important information, and are therefore annexed.

By order of the Commander-in-Chief.
J. W. CANTEY, Adj. and Insp. Gen.
"Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said volunteers shall furnish their own clothes, and when mustered into service shall be armed at the expense of the United States."

"Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That said volunteers shall, when called into active service, and while remaining therein, be subject to the rules and articles of war, and shall be in all respects, except as to clothing and pay, placed on the same footing with similar corps of the U. S. army, and in lieu of clothing, every non-commissioned officer and private in any company who may thus offer himself, shall be entitled when called into actual service, to receive in money a sum, equal to the cost of clothing of a non commissioned officer or private (as the case may be) in the regular troops of the U. States."

HEAD QUARTERS,

CHARLESTON, May 29, 1846.

General Order No. 3.

The Adjutant Inspector General will receive applications at the Executive Office in Charleston, until the 10th day of June next, for the volunteer service under the requisition lately made upon the State by the General Government, for a Regiment of Infantry.

No application need be made by companies without the full and entire complement of officers and men designated in the requisition.

No Regiment will be required to furnish more than one company.

The Adjutant General confidently relies upon his fellow citizens of the State, promptly to respond to the call that has been made upon their patriotism, and earnestly hopes that there will be no unnecessary delay in the requisite organization of the Regiment.

Adjutant and Inspector General,
By order of the Commander-in-Chief.
