

BEAUTY AND INNOCENCE.

BY EDW. J. PORTER.

The rosy hours of childhood, How beautiful they seem,
While glides life's fairy shallop,

All the loveliness of childhood, What is it but the ray
Of heaven which still carries Around life's early day,

How pure the thoughts of childhood!
In life's unshadowed hours They float amid a fairy land Of Zepher and of flowers,

There is an immense deal of human nature in the following verse:
Of all my father's family,
I love myself the best;

Boston Bee.

FLESH TURNED TO STONE.—The London correspondent of the Boston Atlas states that Dr. Silvestre, an Italian, has revived the discovery of "a method of hardening, even to the consistency or rather solidity of marble, any organized substance."

STATED PRAYER.—There is no religion without prayer. Have stated times for devotion. At least begin and end every day with God. Take time from sleep,

You require to be often reminded of this. For whether in childhood, in youth or in manhood, we are all too apt to have a wandering heart in prayer, and repeat an outward form with the lips, but with a heart alas, far from God.

It is by affliction chiefly that the heart of man is purified, and that his thoughts are fixed upon a better state.

Wouldst thou learn to die nobly?
Let thy vices die before thee.
Happy is he who endeth the business of his life before his death;

To win a soul is your noblest prize, and the greater number you win, the greater and richer will be that crown of rejoicing which you will wear in the day of the Lord.

Watson.

FEARFUL SITUATION.—A Man suspended in the air by the Thumb.

—A Mr. Gray, of Providence, painter of the Congregational meeting House, in Kingston, R. I., last week ascended the steeple to take off the vane for gilding, and having left the ladders, climbed the iron spire to the distance of 12 to 15 feet above, relying upon the ball, half way up the spire, to rest his feet on, and from which position he could take the vane off with his right hand. While he was in the very act, the ball on which his feet rested gave way and ran down the spire. At this moment he was raising the vane over the end of it; as he did so, the spire growing smaller, made a convenient place for his thumb to keep the balancer in the gudgeon bore, when the ball gave way under him and sunk. The vane falling back with his thumb in the gudgeon bore, held him fast, with his feet dangling in the air. He remained in this perilous situation until a man ascended the spire, and placing his shoulder under his feet, at once relieved him.
The scene was terrible to behold.

TREASURES IN HEAVEN.—In heaven are deposited all your treasures: and to what spot is a man's heart so ready to return, as to that where his richest treasures lie?
You are the "heirs of God," "begotten, to an inheritance incorrupt-ible and undefiled and that fade-th not away, reserved in heaven for you." What have you to do with dust who have such a "hope laid up for you in heaven?" You are called upon to rejoice and be exceeding glad, "and leap for joy, for great is your reward in heaven." But how can you "leap for joy" in view of your inheritance, if you do not send your thoughts to survey it? With such a treasure in heaven, will you brood over your poverty here, over your lands and shops, and lose the present enjoyments of that inheritance?

SILENCE ON THE PRAIRIES.—One of the most striking things is the silence of the prairies. It is absolutely awful. At night, when the moon has gone down, and the stars are all out, to stand in the centre of one of these mammoth plains, and mark the deep unbroken silence that surrounds you, is sublimely impressive. I never witnessed any effect like it. Not a solitary sound can be heard—no insect, no bird, no beast, no human voice or step—but all is one space of grand and fearful silence. Such a spot, far from the haunts of congregated multitudes, becomes to the good man like the glorious Bethel where the journeying patriarch slept.

THE PERFECTION OF THIEVING.— They have some expert thieves in Missouri, if we are to believe the St. Louis American, which states that a man lately carried a saw-log to a mill, that it might be cut into boards. The mill was engaged for that day, and the owner would not ensure the safety of the log until next morning, unless the customer would sit astride of it to watch it all night. The man agreed to do so, but fell into a slight dose sometime in the night which the thieves took advantage of, and stole the wood of the log without suspicion, and left the man astride of the bark!

That'll do Mr. American: take the hat and say no more about it!

A CIVIL QUESTION.—"Peter Gumbo, I wish to profound one interjection to you, and I axes, nigger, a cat and dog-ical solution to the problem."

"Intescede, nigger—dis child am conce teratin de intellectual qualification of mental corporosity."

"Well den. Why am a Taylor appointed to command de forcibles obde Texam army of occupashum?"

Gib him up without a struggle.
"Shaw, nigger! It is to strengthen de seat of war, to make breaches in Matamoros, an' sew up de Mexicans."

Advices from Naples to June 27th, state that Mount Vesuvius was in full eruption, and vomiting forth masses of lava with great noise. During the night the flames presented a magnificent spectacle.
The steamer Radnor containing 60 tons of government stores, bound from St. Louis to Fort Leavenworth, was lost on the 31st ult. at the mouth of Lamine river, seven miles above Boonville.

MUSQUITOES—Good if true.— Parley's Magazine contains the following: "To get rid of these tormentors, take a few hot coals on a shovel or a chating dish, and burn upon them some brown sugar in your bed room and parlors, and you effectually banish or destroy every musquito for the night."

BLINDNESS VS. SIMPLICITY.—"Did you take the note to Mr. Jack?"
"Yes, sur."
"And how was he?"
"Why, he looked pretty well, but he's very blind."
"Blind! what do you mean?"
"Why, while I wor in the room, he axed me where my hat wor, and it wor on my head all the time."

A letter from Adjutant General Jones, states that the Court martial proceedings in the case of Capt. S. B. Thornton, 2nd Dragoons, have come to hand. They exhibit the gratifying fact that he is acquitted of all the charges on which he was tried.

The Rev. George Groly has confessed to the authorship of "Ten Thousand a Year," so long attributed to Counsellor Warren, the author of "Passages in the Diary of a Physician."

DR. HULL'S

Vegetable Fever and Ague and Anti Fever Pills.

Among all the advertised remedies of the day for ague and Fever, or Chill and Fever, none seem to meet with such rapidity of sale and give so much general satisfaction, as Dr. Hull's celebrated Pills. Where-ever they have been introduced, all tonics in whatever shape, all mixtures and Pills and preparations of every character, designed for this disease, have been discarded, and Dr. Hull's Ague Pills have been received as the only permanent cure.

They stop the Chills and Fever the first day, and do not sicken the stomach or operate on the bowels. Young children and persons of all ages sexes, and conditions may use these Pills, not only with safety, but with the certainty of success.

Judge Forrest of Jonesboro, Ala, was cured of a severe and obstinate case of Chills, with only half a box, after two physicians had exhausted all their skill.

Ma Lewis Covin, of Abbeville Dis. S.
C., says he has sold several boxes of Hull's Pills, and never knew them to fail curing the chills and fever in a single instance.

Mr Wm S Mills, of Abbeville Dis, S.
C., certifies that his wife was cured of an obstinate case of chills and fever of twelve months standing with only half a box of Hull's Pills; and also says his little daughter was cured of the chills and fever of 6 months standing with the remainder of the same box.

We might give scores of references and certificates, but we refer the reader to our agents, where they may obtain a pamphlet (gratis) giving a full description of the medicine and its manner of use. Price, $1 per box with directions.

sumption and death. Price 25 cts per box.

Dr. Hull's Worm Lozenges

Are a preparation that never fail to remove Worms from children or adults.

Children will cry for them, and eat them

The fact of their having cured upwards of forty thousand cases, puts their efficacy beyond doubt. Price 25 cts per box.
