

bound himself to pay the gentleman a large sum of money. The gentleman succeeded in gaining the affections of Mrs. Dalrymple, but she, instead of yielding so far as to give her husband the desired opportunity, herself sued for a divorce, on the ground of adultery, and obtained it. The gentleman who had promised to marry her, now refused to perform that promise, which had such an effect on the mind of the lady that she immediately lost her senses, and has ever since been confined in a lunatic asylum. She is now 75 years of age, and it is stated that she has entirely recovered the use of her reason. A petition was brought before the Lord Chancellor, on Friday, to supersede the commission, which was issued in 1820. Several medical gentlemen testified that she was entirely restored to reason. The Lord Chancellor decided that the petition should stand over, and that Lady Stair should appear before the master by her solicitor.

PERSEVERE.—An eastern paper, in an article on the subject of perseverance and industry says:

A few years ago Simon Cameron, Luther Severance, Horace Greely and James Harper were bringing water by the pailful to wash type in a printing office; they were knocked about by the older boys. But they did not sit down and weep, and declare they would run away from their employers. No—they stuck to the trade year after year, till they became of age. Where are they now? Cameron is in the U. S. Senate, Severance is in Congress, Greely is editor of the New York Tribune one of the leading political papers of the day, and Harper is at the head of the largest publishing establishment in America, and was elected Mayor of the city of New York one year ago by an overwhelming majority. So much for energy and industry.

VALUE OF A LINE OF MAIL STEAMERS IN THE GULF OF MEXICO.—The British mail steamer takes letters from Vera Cruz alone to the amount of six thousand dollars a month, and the passage from Vera Cruz to England is $300. The passage to England would be made by way of New York and Boston in about half the time, and for little more than half the money required by the British steamers, if we had a mail line from either of these cities to the Gulf. A line to Vera Cruz, touching at Havana, the Balize, (for coal, etc.) and Tampico, will when those ports are freely and permanently open, supplant the British line entirely.

CAPT. KIDD'S TREASURE FOUND.—The Newark Advertiser says, that a letter from Mr. J. Bradley at Caldwell's Landing on the North River, announces that the long continued search with the diving bell, was renewed last week, about 100 yards south of the coffer dam, and that in the course of two days a cup and 14 bars of silver, and a box containing antique jewels, set with diamonds and other precious stones were fished up from the wreck of Kidd's vessel. The whole valued at over $10,000.

SAN JUAN D'ULLOA.—The Savannah Republican is speculating on the subject of the manner in which the Castle at Vera Cruz is to be taken, and remarks that the walls are so far from the shore that the effects of ordinary breaching batteries would be quite uncertain.—The editor, however, very ingeniously suggests that as the walls are partly composed of a soft porous stone, into which round shot will sink to a considerable distance without causing the surface to crumble, the hollow Paixhan shot would produce a decided impression by burying themselves and then exploding.

After all it is probable that another method spoken of by the Republican, that of escalade from heavy boats, has already been adopted. Sailors are the best men in the world at a thing of this kind, and we should not be surprised to hear by our next advices that the castle has been "carried by boarding" by our intrepid tars.—Char. Eve. News.

SHIPMENT OF BREADSTUFFS TO EUROPE.—The New York Commercial states that there have left the port of New York since January 1st, and to the 20th March, for ports in England, Ireland and Scotland, fifty-five ships, sixty-three barques, sixty-eight brig and five schooners, all freighted with flour, grain, meal, &c., and from Norfolk, Baltimore, Philadelphia and Boston, during the same time, more than one hundred and fifty square rigged vessels have left with like cargoes for Europe. There are at the present time more than eighty large class vessels loading at the latter places with grain, &c. The London and Liverpool packet ships are not included in the above statement.

RETREAT OF SANTA ANNA.—We understand from reliable authority, says the Matamoros Flag of the 13th inst., that there are letters in from Mexicans stating that Santa Anna is in full retreat to San Luis Potosi. The letters also state that he held a consultation with his principal officers after the first day's engagement, and that a retreat was then strenuously advocated. Before the battle commenced, the Mexicans firmly believed that Gen. Taylor would retire before their vastly superior numbers, and that in his retreat they could supply themselves with provisions, of which they were in much need—almost starving. Finding the Americans obstinate, and determined to fight for their eatables with the ferociousness of bull-dogs, they despaired of getting a dinner from them; and deemed it prudent to retire.

The following was attached to a $20

bank note, which was dropped in the box in Battle-street (Boston) Church on Sunday on the occasion of a collection in aid of fitting out the U. S. ship James-town:

"A ship of war to carry bread to the hungry and suffering, instead of powder and ball to inflict more suffering on our brethren, CHILDREN of the same FATHER, is as it should be, and this in aid of the plan."

The bill to suppress gambling in Pennsylvania is now a law. The officers of the law are authorized to enter houses forcibly when searching for gambling apparatus, and gamblers are punishable by confinement in the penitentiary. Heavy fines may be imposed in addition. Any person inviting another to a gaming house may be held liable for all losses sustained by a victim, and be also liable to a fine of not less than five nor more than fifty dollars.

For more than sixty years, Mr. Adams is understood to have kept a diary in which everything connected with his eventful life is presented with careful minuteness. It has been stated, also, that he has written a memoir of his father; but I believe he has found time to complete only a single volume, of four or five which the plan embraced.

SEVERAL works, which Timothy Dwight left in readiness for the press, are still unpublished. The largest and most elaborate of these is on the "Character and Writings of St. Paul." Another is called "The Friend and Companion," a series of Essays, commenced during his residence in Greenfield, and concluded near the close of his life.

Webster and Calhoun are said to be now engaged upon great works, which are to be the crowning efforts of their lives: Mr. Calhoun upon a Treatise on the Principles of Government, and Mr. Webster upon a History and Exposition of the Constitution.

The North and South.—By a list of appointments made by the President, since the adjournment of Congress, it appears that 41 captains are from the slave States, to 15 from the free—23 lieutenants from slave States, to 8 from the free—57 2d lieutenants from slave States to 32 from the free.

GENERAL WORTH.—is known by the cognomen of "The Waving Plume." It is a pretty title, graceful and spirited.

It is estimated now, that nine-tenths of the paupers supported by the corporation of New York, are foreigners, and only one tenth American.

An inhabitant of Corfu, who lately returned from Spitzbergen, after an absence of twenty-eight years, found his wife in very good health, but the widow of three husbands

OBITUARY.

DIED, near Cambridge in this District on Wednesday morning the 31st ult., of Pulmonary Consumption Mrs. SARAH E. CHILDS, aged 23 years and five months. The deceased was the widow of the late Capt. ROBT. CHILD, and eldest daughter of the late Rev. R. M. TODD.

She has left many sincere friends and devoted relatives to lament her early death; besides a son who is entirely too young to have any knowledge of the great loss he has sustained. In 1839 while at school at Greenville C. H., during a revival of religion Mrs. C. united with the Baptist Church there; then under the care of the Rev. Mr. SPAULDING.

If the friendship and kindness of neighbors: if the affection and tears of relatives or the skill of medical aid could have retained her, she would still be here, but all were unable to change that inflexible truth, "Dust thou art and unto dust thou shalt return." Her Heavenly Father had need of her or he would not have called her home. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

Throughout her affliction she was patient and resigned, having, as she expressed herself, confidence in Christ. But she is gone, and we shall see her no more on earth; no more shall we enjoy her society, or hear the sweet music of her voice; she is gone from the evil to come—gone to the kingdom of glory.

"Hark, the golden harps are ringing,
Sounds unearthly fill her ear;
Millions now in Heaven singing,
Greet her joyful entrance there."

None but those who were intimately acquainted with the deceased, can properly appreciate her character; to such then we would say respect her memory, by obliterating her foibles and imitating her virtues.

O, envy not her best abode,
In happiness secure;
Where streams of everlasting bliss,
Their pleasant waters pour.

She quickly shunned the yawning Gulf,
Nor fear'd the threatening king;
Her soul to Heaven was safely borne,
By Cherubs on the wing.

A Great Bargain

Is offered, in that well known tract Land, formerly belonging to Mr. Samuel Jack, and by him, sold to Mr. William Bowie, for three thousand dollars, in 1835.

Said tract, contains SIX HUNDRED and FORTY-TWO ACRES, as certified by William Leslie Esq., deputy Surveyor. It lies within two miles of the Village of Abbeville, and within one mile, of the Abbeville Male Academy. There are supposed to be, about three hundred acres in woods, about eighty acres of tolerably fresh land, and the balance more or less worn. No plantation is better watered, having a considerable creek, passing through it, and springs convenient, to almost every part of the tract. There are probably, sixty or seventy acres of Lowgrounds, which, with proper ditching, might be made very valuable. The woodland is so distributed, as to make the plantation, susceptible of division, into three small farms, and, if I cannot sell it as a whole, I may be induced so to divide it.

I also offer my dwelling House and Lot, on which I live, in the Village of Abbeville. The House contains SEVEN ROOMS, besides closets, all well finished. The lot contains one acre, and is supplied with good out-buildings, an excellent well of water, with a patent, cast iron pump.

My weak lungs, and enfeebled health, warn me of the necessity, of seeking a less changeable climate. For this reason, I will sell the above property very cheap. FRANKLIN BRANCH, Abbeville, March 31, 1847. 6 tf

For Sale.

Intending to leave the District this Fall, I offer for sale, my PLANTATION lying three miles South of Abbeville Court House, containing TWO HUNDRED AND EIGHTY ACRES, of which there is about one half cleared and in a fine state of cultivation. It is as good Cotton land as the District affords.

Three and a half Acres lying two miles below the Court House, A FINE DWELLING HOUSE AND LOT, with out-buildings, all new—a very desirable situation about one mile from my plantation.

Also, my HOUSE AND LOT, in the Town of Abbeville, situated on the Public Square, a Large TWO STORY HOUSE with NINE ROOMS and SIX FIRE PLACES and all of the out-buildings new. Persons wishing to buy land or Village property, would do well to call and see me before purchasing elsewhere.

I would also add, that all persons that are indebted to me in the Sheriff's Office, are requested for the last time to come and make settlements. If you have not the money, come and give me your Notes, as I am compelled to settle my business this Summer. If I am not at home, Mr. A. C. Hawthorn, will attend to it for me.

JOHNSON RAMEY, 5 tf

Medical Notice.

DR. W. J. BENHAM, would respectfully inform the citizens of Abbeville, that he has located at Mr. SAM'L AGNEW'S where he may at all times be found, unless absent on professional duties; and hopes by strict attention to business, to merit a portion of public patronage.
