

The pretended philanthropy of the British Government has tended only greatly to increase the sufferings of her Colonies, and at the same time to diminish their productions. The disastrous effect of the new plan of importing the East Indian Coolies as substitutes for slaves, has been forcibly set forth by the last advices from Jamaica.

By the arrival of the Arthur, Captain Danch, at New York, files of the Kingston Morning Journal, from July 12th to July 30th, have been received. The plan of Coolie emigration has prove an entire failure. Hundreds of thousands of pounds have been squandered to bring to the Island a class of persons wholly unfitted for useful labor, and who have generally become paupers, thus involving the city in heavy expenses. The Chairman of the Quarter Session at St. Thomas-in-the-East, in his address to the Grand Jury, says:

"The highways and places of public resort were crowded with these wretched creatures in the last and worst stage of destitution, squalor, filth, disease and dejection. Clothing they had, for the most part, none, and covering barely sufficient to pay tribute to the deencies of Nature, totally inadequate to meet the decorums of Society."

This description is a little more than the repetition of a choicer phrase of the accounts from all parts of the country.

At the same time, however, another importation of three hundred is announced, twenty-five of whom died on the passage.

It was supposed that the Governor would call the Legislature together either the first or second week in October.

Can't the mad fanatics, who are agitating this matter in our country, take warning from the failure of all these British projects, and cease their assinine brayings against an institution, the abolition of which would entail misery and destruction on both master and slave? If lessons such as these cannot teach them the folly and the wickedness of their agitation, then neither could they be convinced "though one rose from the dead."—Savannah Republican.

HOW THEY STAND.—The August elections being over, it is as well to sum up and see how the two great parties stand, Democratic and Whig.—In Kentucky the Democrats have gained one member of Congress. In Indiana the Whigs have gained two—in North Carolina three, and in Alabama one; the net gain in these five States, in members of Congress, for the Whig party, is therefore five. In addition the Whigs have gained a Governor in Tennessee, a Legislative majority in the same State, and a Legislative majority in Indiana.

CHARLESTON EVENING NEWS.

OBITUARY.
It has become our melancholy duty to record the death of an amiable and pious female, Mrs. TALITHA GOODE STUART, consort of Dr. John A. Stuart, of this District, and daughter of Col. Larkin Griffin, who departed this life at Cokesbury on the 13th ult., in the 35th year of her age.

Mrs. Stuart had been an orderly member of the Baptist Church for 16 years, being one of the many who obtained a hope in the Savior during the interesting revival of religion enjoyed by the churches in the year 1831. The writer of this brief obituary remembers her case with pleasing recollection, having had an opportunity of witnessing the exercises of her mind whilst under distress for sin, and of rejoicing with her at her conversion to God. And now that she has been called away by death from the society of her friends on earth, whilst he deeply sympathizes with the afflicted, parents and other relations, it is no small consolation to him to be able to state that a consistent course of christian conduct for 16 years has proved the genuineness of her conversion and the sincerity of her profession. It is the testimony of her husband, that "she enjoyed religion much in health and in sickness." Her afflictions were protracted for twelve months, during the last six months of which, her sufferings were great, all of which she bore with christian fortitude, not a murmur against the dispensation of Providence, escaping her lips. Convinced in her mind from the symptoms of her disease that she could not recover, she expressed herself as being entirely resigned to the will of God. A few days before her decease she desired that a chapter in the Bible should be read, and pointed out the 14th chapter of Job as a suitable one. Truly may it be said of her, "She cometh forth like a flower and is cut down; she fleeth as a shadow and continueth not." She has left many relatives and dear friends to mourn her departure, in whose memories her many virtues will long be cherished; and whose deep sorrow is only mitigated by the language of the Bible, "Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord from henceforth; yea saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labor; and their works do follow them."

The National Whig is what its name indicates. It speaks the sentiments of the Whig party of the Union on every question of public policy. It advocates the election to the Presidency of Zachary Taylor, subject to the decision of a Whig National Convention. It makes war to the knife upon all the measures and acts of the Administration deemed to be adverse to the interests of the country, and exposes without fear or favor the corruptions of the party in power. Its columns are open to every man in the country, for the discussion of political or any other questions.

In addition to politics, a large space in the National Whig will be devoted to publications upon Agriculture, Mechanics, and other useful arts, Science in general, Law, Medicine, Statistics, &c. Choice specimens of American and Foreign Literature will also be given, including Reviews, &c. A weekly list of the Patents issued by the Patent Office will likewise be published—the whole forming a complete family newspaper.

The Weekly National Whig, one of the largest newspapers in the United States, is made up from the columns of the Daily National Whig, and is published every Saturday for the low price of $2 per annum, payable in advance. A double sheet of eight pages will be given whenever the press of matter shall justify it.

The Memoirs of General Taylor, written expressly for the National Whig, are in course of publication. They commenced with the second number, a large number of copies of which have been printed, to supply calls for back numbers.
