

The Mexicans lost two hundred men and three pieces of artillery, the latter were thrown into a gully adjoining the town by the victors; who, after the achievement of their object (the dispersion of the enemy) for which they were despatched to Huamantla evacuated the place, and directed their course towards Pinal, on the Puebla road, which they reached without any opposition and there meeting with Gen. Lane, the combined American force continued its march upon Puebla. Into this city, in a state of insurrection it entered in platoons, delivering at every step a constant and well directed fire of musketry, which ceased not till the enemy retreated, and order was restored in every quarter.

Our correspondent writing at a later date than the 25th ult., gives the following account of Capt. Walker:—"The death of Captain Walker is fully confirmed by a later arrival. It is stated that he was shot by a cannon ball from a masked battery, about twelve miles from the main road, at a point some sixteen leagues from Puebla. The ball also killed Capt. Loyall, of the Georgia Mounted Company, and eleven men are also reported to have been killed in the same action."

Later from Europe.

From the New York Tribune, 10th inst. Five Days Later Intelligence. Arrival of the Steamship Washington. Monetary Panic in England—More Heavy Failures—Great Scarcity of Money—General Stagnation of Business—Refusal of Ministers to Render Aid—Fluctuations in the Stock Market—Great Decline in Consuls—Decline in Corn and Cotton.

The steamship Washington, Captain Hewitt, from Southampton, arrived yesterday.

She left Southampton on Sunday morning, the 24th ult., and has made the passage from that port in a little more than sixteen days.

There is very little change in the general condition of English affairs since the sailing of the Caledonia. There have been some additional failures, but none of any immediate consequence on this side of the water. Among them, however, are the Liverpool Banking Company, Manchester Bank (Scholes & Co.) and Newcastle Union Joint Stock Bank—all of moderate importance. The last named had a capital of $700,000 and a circulation of $350,000. This stoppage would cause distress in the Mining Districts. Still, it was hoped that the worst was over; and will be seen that the Funds had slightly improved at the close.

On the 20th it was announced that the Liverpool Banking Co. had stopped payment.

Messrs. Littledale & Co., of Liverpool, have been compelled to ask assistance of the Bank of England.

From Wilmer & Smith's European Times. COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

Since the publication of our paper by the Caledonia, a complete paralysis has seized almost every branch of trade. The earnest application of the Liverpool Commercial Body for relief from the Government has been met with the most earnest expression of sympathy, but, up to this moment, the chief members of the Administration seem either inexorable to all complaint, or totally unequal to the task of providing a remedy.

Every day the mischief is spreading. Mills are stopped, thousands thrown out of employ, and the total absence of all dealings in trade render the sale of goods to any extent altogether impossible. In this state of things all our reports must necessarily be of unvarying tone of a melancholy and desponding character.

The corn market since the 19th inst. has remained without any striking fact to report. The arrivals of all kinds of grain have been moderate, but the demand has also been but trifling, and to have effected sales of any but choice qualities of both English and foreign, a reduction of prices must have been submitted to. Holders, however, show no disposition to force sales. All claimer about the potato disease appears to have subsided for the present. The accounts from the Mediterranean and from the Black Sea describe the markets generally as tolerably. Several failures of considerable extent have been reported at Venice arising from transactions in grain, but the names have not reached us. In Liverpool our Corn market yesterday for the better qualities of Wheat and Flour was starchy, while the inferior descriptions slightly receded from our last quotations.

In Cured Provisions there is very little doing both here and in London, so that the quotations last given remain unaltered; but we must advise that they can be considered in no other light than nominal, the late transactions being limited to a very few retail sales—in fact, the market for foreign Provisions may be considered at a complete stand.

The transactions in Cotton since our last publication have been very limited, and prices receded from 3-8d to 1-2d; indeed, no improvement can be expected until the money market is less stringent, and the demand for manufactured goods increases. To-day the transactions are estimated at 2,000 bales, the market closing with a very dull aspect.

From the Britannia, October 23, 1847. THE MANUFACTURING DISTRICTS.—The progress of destitution is frightful in the extreme. In Lancashire alone, it is computed that 50,000 work people with their families, are deprived of employment. In Manchester, during the last week, the number of operatives wholly without employment has increased by 1,200, and the number in a short time has increased by 3,500. The report of Monday's Manchester market states that "it was the dearest market day ever experienced in Manchester, not a single sale having been reported."

The state of the manufacturing districts is so alarming, that Government, though it refuses all measures of relief, is providing a strong military force to keep the peace. At Carlisle the local authorities have received warrants from Sir George Grey, the Home Secretary, authorising them to call out and enroll the pensioners of the district; and a strong force of cavalry is now stationed at Newbridge. No one supposes that the winter can be got through, should the distress not be mitigated, without some desperate rioting.

The Morning Chronicle of Thursday states:—"We are sorry to learn that serious apprehensions are entertained of an outbreak on the part of the operatives, of whom so many are now out of employment in consequence of the stoppage of the mills. The return of the number of mills at work, and people employed in them last week, shows that scarcely more than half the number of mills are working full time; the diminution in one week having been no less than fifteen. The number of unemployed hands is upwards of 10,000, and there are more than 12,000 working short time. The total number in full work is only about 18,000, no less than 5,000 having been placed on short time, or thrown altogether out of employment, during the course of the past week."

Correspondence of the Charleston Courier. WASHINGTON, NOV. 4.

There are a few members of the 30th Congress now here, to wit: Mr. Holmes and Mr. Rhet, of S. C., Mr. Holley, of N. Y., Mr. Clinkman, of N. C., Mr. Pendleton, of Va., and Senators Westcott and Benton.

The Court Martial attracts much attention. The Court itself is an object of interest—for a more soldier-like body in appearance, could scarcely be brought together. But the martial figure of General Kearney towers above them all. He is, in truth, the personification of a great Captain—Every one is also struck by the appearance and bearing of Lieutenant Colonel Fremont, of slight person, graceful, and of modest demeanor, he yet shows that he is every inch a soldier. Colonel Benton, as his counsel, sits in assumed composure, but he cannot avoid a disclosure, now and then, of the intense feeling working within him, when he puts a question, or takes an exception.

The Court did no business, to-day, in consequence of the death of the son of Colonel Churchill, one of their members.

It would be useless and somewhat injurious to the distinguished parties, in this military quarrel, to state the impressions made here, by the facts already disclosed. But I may, with propriety, state, what is an undoubted fact, that the friends of the Administration are generally of the opinion that Lieutenant Colonel Fremont was insubordinate, inasmuch as he refused to obey the orders of General Kearney, his commanding officer. But others think that he can justify himself by the fact that he had reason to suppose that Commodore Stockton was in command. Even the Judge Advocate, Captain Lee, is accused here of leaning too much in favor of Lieutenant Colonel Fremont, and I mention this, only for the reason that this accusation has become somewhat current and may reach you, through other channels. But Captain Lee is entirely independent, in his course, of the partiality which he avowedly entertains for Lieutenant Colonel Fremont and for Colonel Benton. For myself, I do not see how a blow can be struck at Lieutenant Colonel Fremont without reaching the Secretaries of War and Navy Departments, and Commodore Stockton. The truth is, that the orders given to Commodore Stockton conflicted with those given to Gen. Kearney.

I have written heretofore of the policy of the Administration in regard to the future objects and conduct of the Mexican war. But recent events have convinced me that they have no fixed policy on the subject, and that whatever line of policy they contemplated ten days ago, has been abandoned. They do not seem inclined to face all the responsibilities they have incurred, and, in my opinion, the Message will be silent as to "sujugation and occupation," and all that. Mark how the Union has changed its tone!

Mr. CLAY is to address a meeting in Lexington, Ky., on the 13th inst., "on the subject of the existing war with Mexico, the conquest of Mexico, its annexation to the U. States, &c., &c." The Lexington Observer, in which we find this announcement, also states that Mr. Clay will present resolutions for the consideration of the meeting.

An American paper says:—"If the Scotch bagpipes be played occasionally for a few days in any place infested with rats, they will immediately quit the premises, and never return."

THE JEWS, on a moderate calculation, number six million all over the world.

LIMESTONE SPRINGS, Nov. 1847.

General Order. The blood of our own Palmetto Regiment, has been poured out in Mexico, in vindication of the rights of our common country. Colonel Butler, Lieut. Col. Dickinson, Lieut. Adams, Williams, Moragne, Canty, Stein, and many more of our gallant sons have fallen gloriously, to rise no more. The wounds of the few survivors are still bleeding,—they have won for themselves an imperishable fame, and wreathed around the brow of the Palmetto State, laurels which can never fade. In honor of the noble dead, the General Officers, the Field and Staff, and Company Officers of the State, will join his Excellency, the Commander-in-Chief, in their tribute of respect, by wearing crapes on the left arm for thirty days, after the 22d instant. Officers commanding Divisions, are charged with the extension of this order.

Male and Female High Schools, Greenwood, Abbeville S. C.

In urging the claims of the above Institutions to public patronage, the Trustees present the following considerations: They are located in a Village well known for the purity of its water, the salubrity of its climate, and moral character of its inhabitants. They are designed to afford a thorough and extensive education, conducted upon religious principles. They are supplied with chemical and philosophical apparatus, a cabinet of minerals and curiosities, and other means for illustration, in the various departments of science. They will always be furnished with teachers, for whose competency in every respect, is pledged the character of the Greenwood Association and of the South Carolina Prosbetry.

The Trustees will spare no pains to render these Institutions equal to any in the State; and while it is their aim to elevate the standard of education, ample provision will be made for the youngest pupil. A system of classification with regard to capacity and attainments will be rigidly observed, thereby rendering it important that pupils enter at the beginning of the session. The scholastic year will consist of ten months and be divided into two sessions: 1st commencing first Monday in February, 2nd commencing second Monday in July.

Extract from the New York Express.

It is seldom that we step out of our way to notice, either for praise or censure, the various advertised specifics of the day; and could we believe in the truth of all the certificates which are published in favor of some of them, there would be no call for our praise certainly. But from a personal knowledge of their virtue, we are willing to record our unsolicited testimony in favor of Dr. Hull's Worm Lozenges; they being in our opinion an infallible remedy for that baneful of childhood—worms. Safe in their operation, easily administered, and what to us is a great recommendation in a medicine for children, they are not nauseating, but actually pleasant to the taste. We have used them in a number of cases in our family, and in each and every case with complete success; and we take pleasure in recommending them to our patrons and friends, not only as a cure for worms, but as a thorough and easily administered cathartic or purgative medicine, where such is needed, or where worms are suspected.

The above medicine is for sale at the Drug Store and at the Post Office. [Nov 37 1m
