On Wednesday a supplementary sale of unredeemed lands took place in Beaufort. All the land offered was frational lots ranging from a half to ten acres. The land was situted on Corn, Coosaw, Port Royal, Ladies, Horse, Paris, and St. Helena Islands.

At the land sales Capers Island supposed to contain 1,000 acres was sold for $40 dollars, it was found however by inspection by one of the parties interested in its purchase that they would have to reclaim from the ocean just about 995 acres, and that the constitution made no provision for a mandamus or a writ of ejectment against old father Neptune, so they vacated their purchase, and the island was resold on Saturday for $10.

At a meeting held by the citizens of Port Royal S. C. at Hutchinson Hall on the evening of January 10th 1876, for Intendant and wardens, on motion of Mr. G. S. Harrison, Mr. K. M. Friend was called to the chair and Mr. E. W. nov.28-1y. Yates requested to act as Secretary. The meeting proceeding to business, upon motion of Mr. Joseph Grant a committee of seven was appointed by the chair to make nominations for the respective positions. The committee after consultation, reported as follows: For Intendant Wm H. Scott, wardens D. H. Hutchinson, J. W. Kerr, Paul Barnwell, and Moses Green. Mr. Hntchinson, declining to serve. Upon motion of Mr. Andrew Mc. Fall, the name of Mr. O, D. Duke was put before the meeting and unanimously Doors, Sashes, elected. No other business appearing the meeting adjourned, Old John Robinson, the world renowned circus-man, it will be seen by our advt. will visit Beaufort on Wednesday next. His mammoth show will be erected near the Beautiert depot, and combines a managerie, aquarium and a circus, all to be seen at one price. Such exhibitions visit this section so se'dom that in spite of hard times there will be a rush to the scene, but the tents are so The Great American Fire Exting'shr. Those who wish to study animated nature will find here specimens of beasts, birds and sea monsters, from almost every section of the globe. Of course the heads of families will go to see the circus, just to keep the children quiet, and they are assured by the proprietor that nothing will be said or done that will offend the most fastidious taste of a refined and high toned community. There will be two performances, one at two p. m. and the other at 8. p. m. Remember the date, Wednesday January 19th 1876.
