

COBBERED WEEKLY FOR THE EXTENSION BY JOHN W. GRADY, MERCHANT.

Greenville, September 7, 1854.

What is the history of a distillery could be written out—so much rum, for instance, of real value...

THE GREEK CHURCH.—The fundamental difference between the Greek and Roman Catholic churches consists in the rejection of the spiritual supremacy of St. Peter on the part of the former...

THE MISERIES OF NEW YORK.—A number of hotels and restaurants make a practice of distributing the fragments of food collected from the tables to the poor...

QUICK DIGESTION—HEALTHY FOOD.—Of all the articles of food, boiled rice is digested in the shortest time—an hour. As it contains eight-tenths nutritious matter...

PRESERVE IN DOING GOOD.—I believe the quiet admission which we are all of us so ready to make, that because things have long been wrong it is impossible they should ever be right...

SIN IN A FIDDLE.—When the violin was first introduced into the choir of the church, the innovation gave great offence to some of the worthy parishioners.

Only within a month past a case of legal tyranny has come to light in England, which is absolutely appalling. It appears that a man by the name of William Miller has been imprisoned in Winchester jail for thirty-nine years...

A Life in Prison. This poor fellow entered his prison when another sovereign was on the English throne. The black wall closed on him when the railway, the electric telegraph, and the daguerreotype were unknown to England.

THE NEW ORLEANS BULLETIN, remarking upon the comparatively small proportion which the foreign born population introduced into this county since 1790, together with their descendants, now bear the entire population, accounts for it thus:

THE LAIDIES of the Episcopal Church will hold their ANNUAL FAIR on Thursday, the 14th instant. A great variety of articles will be offered for sale, Cheap for Cash.
