Asomes triumph is schleved;
Ageln our town is free
From dram-shops and from dringing men,
And midnight revolvy. Rejeice, ye mothers I that your sons

Have no place of recort.

Where they can spend their idle bours.

In drinking gin and port. Rejoice, ye wives! your husbands now

Will have to stay with you. Instead of spending nights abroad, ... And getting glorious blue.

A shame on those who still desire,
To have the Council wer!
Are they unmindful of the woe
That drinking doth beget!

Compare our present quiet town,
With what it soon would be,
If we once more should countenance
The licensed grogery.

Our streets would soon be filled with those Whose reeling gait would show,

Our sone and husbands whom we love, The noble and the brave, Would soon be wrested from our side, To fill a drunkard's grave.

Yes, many a mother's heart would break, And widows' tears would flow, And sorrow be the lot of those Who naught but joy do know.

Forbid it Heaven! that I should live, To see the fatal day, When anti-tem'prance men succeed

Once more to gain the sway, Husbands and brothers, stand ye firm, And ne'er, Oh! ne'er forget, The misery that will ensue,

When once the Council 's wer. Greenville, S. C., Sept. 15, 1854.

How to make your children tell lies for you, and not teach them to tell lies for themselvesf

How to get a reputation for judgement, unless you are a hater of jokes? How to make evasive excuses without incurring the guilt of lying?

How to screw down a mechanic below the fair living price of a job, and not at the end cheat yourself?
How to amass wealth without selling yourself to the devil? How to substitute a word in a newspa per communication as "moon" for a "lunar orb," without provoking a philological controversy as volumnious as the diversions of

How to edit a paper to the satisfaction of magpies and owls? How to write solid editorials when your head snaps with the headache as if it were filled with fourth of July crackers, poping off seriation ?

A Good Note.—"Is your note good!" ask-ed a merchant the other day, of a person who offered a note for a lot of goods.—
"Well," replied the puachaser, "I should think it ought to be; everbody's got one!"

ETEAR BETTEALT PREMIUM CHURN THE SUBSCRIBER, respectfully informs his friends and the public generally that he has purchased the right to Manufacture the above

Churn, and is now prepared to execute all orders for the same. Its simplicity is such as to be unfor the same. Its simplicity is such as to be understood by every intelligent child, and its construction is on truly and strictly philosophical principles, and produces the desired result in an almost incredible short time.

The superior qualities of this Churn are as follows: First, the quick and easy process of making butter when sitting in a chair. Secondly, In overcoming the difficulty which produces a swelling to overflow; and, Thirdly, the gathering process, in separating the butter from the milk, and preparing for salting. Persons wishing a Churn can find them at the subscriber's work-shop, near the corner of Main and Buncombe streets. near the corner of Main and Buncombe streets.

LOOK OUT FOR THEM!

JOHN MAHAGY, hailing from Moutreal, Can-ada, and JAMES McDANIEL, from Chester, S. C., came to Greenville in company, and after remaining for about a month, made their departremaining for about a month, made their departure, each without paying his bill. The formers a stone cutter, and the latter represents himself as being a well-digger. Mahagy is about 35 years old, weighs about 175 or 180 pounds, blue eyes, dark hair, and is somewhat lame, from having received a drunken fall. When last heard of was making for Tunnel Hill. McDaniel is a tall, elender fellow weighs about 150 regards. der fellow, weighs about 150 pounds, and of a dark swarthy complexion, having recently had the chills and fever. I make this public, that oth-er hotel-keepers may not be imposed upon by them and similar characters, and would warn them to be upon the look out for these fellows, and "pass them around."
