An Heroic Youth.

London July 19.—On the 11th of May, a youth of 18 years of age, of the Greek nation, died an heroic death at Constantinople. This youth who lived at Curutchese, on the channel of Constantinople, had, at an unfortunate moment, gone over to the Mahometan religion, but soon repented of this step, and returned into the pale of the old Greek Church. He was summoned before the Grand Vizier, who upbraided him with religious perjury.—On his replying that he was born a Christian, and resolved so to die, he was conducted to the Istambol Effendi, (Judge of Constantinople) to be again instructed by him in the Mahometan religion; but he declined, and even went so far as to advise the judge to turn Christian himself; he was, upon this, beheaded on the 11th of May.

Chinese method of mending China.

Take a piece of flint glass, beat it to a fine powder, and grind it well with the white of an egg. It joins china without rivetting, so no art can break it in the same place. You are to observe that the composition is to be ground extremely fine.

A British officer walking with an American lady in sight of the docks, soon after their late peace—"There (said the officer) pointing to an American flag) is what we formerly called the grid iron."—"I should suppose (replied the lady) that the name was peculiarly applicable now, now, since so many of your countrymen have been broiled on it."

A Proclamation.

Executive Office, South-Carolina, Centre Hall, 10th Oct. 1816.

WHEREAS it has been represented to me, that a certain person calling himself JAMES ADAMS, did on the night of the 7th inst. steal and carry away two Mares, one white and one dark bay, the property of Thomas Griffin and Joshua Lazarus; and that he the said Adams did also break open and steal from the desk of the Clerk of the Court for Darlington District, ELEVEN HUNDRED and SIXTY SIX DOLLARS. Adams is a taylor by trade, is about five feet ten inches high, thick set, well made, broad shouldered, complexion florid inclining to brown, black hair somewhat curled, eyes black quick and lively, speaks rapidly, lisps a little, stammers somewhat and is confused in manner. Had on when he went away, a checked gingham's coat, cotton corderoy pantaloons, and black fashionable hat.—Took also with him brown stockenet and olive coloured pantaloons, and grey homespun coat. Now, therefore, I have thought proper to issue this my Proclamation, offering a reward of Two Hundred Dollars for the apprehension and delivery of the said Adams to the Sheriff of Darlington District.

Robbery.

THE STORE of the Subscribers, in Camden was, on the night of the 29th September, instant, between seven and nine o'clock, broken open, and money to the amount of Two Hundred Dollars, in bills of the Banks of North-Carolina and this state, some Dry Goods, and four notes of hand—one given by Thomas Watts, payable to Joseph Mickle, for the use of the heirs of Joshua English, deceased, for the sum of $500—one given by Coleman & English, payable to Bond English, for the sum of $500—one on Reuben Horton, payable to the same, for $40—one payable by Robert Coleman to the same for $92 and upwards, were stolen from the said store, and carried away. FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD will be given to any person, who will lodge such information as will enable us to get possession of the villain or villains who perpetrated the act and prosecute him or them to conviction.

All persons are warned against receiving any of the said notes in trade, and are solicited to secure them for us should they be offered for sale by any person, and give us such timely notice as might enable us to trace them to the person who stole them. As these Robberies have lately been carried on to an alarming extent in Camden, it behoves all good citizens to be vigilant in discovering something that might lead to a discovery of the villains who thus depredate upon the industry of the honest part of the community.
