New-York, November 5.

Arrived at this port on Sunday evening U. S. brig Saranac, capt. Elton, from New-Orleans, and 15 days from St. Paul Island.

From captain Elton we learn, that a Spanish brig, prize to a pirate, had been recaptured by the United States brig Tom-Bowling, and had arrived at Balze. The prize was from Campeachy, with a valuable cargo. The pirates, who had charge of her were put in an open boat, fifteen leagues from the land, but had reached New-Orleans.

The prize was fallen in with off Barataria, where the pirate intended to smuggle in her cargo.

Capt. Elton was off Banquilla de Piedras on the 9th of Sept. and was informed that the patriots had taken Orisavi where they found a large deposit of specie.

The Spanish government schooner Couretos of 4 guns and 63 men had been captured by the Mexican-Patriot (formerly the Gen. Bolivar) after a severe action of 2 hours and a half. The prize had arrived at Banquilla de Piedras.

PHILADELPHIA, October 31.

The Conspiracy.—Yesterday a respectable grand jury of the city of Philadelphia found a TRUE BILL for conspiracy against Ann Carson, alias Ann Sinyth—Jane Baker, Elisha Bowen, alias Davis alias Owen D. Jones and John Ryde alias Henry Willis, alias Nathaniel B. Burd.

Ann Carson and John Ryde are both in jail. Jane Baker the Mother of Mrs. Carson, was, as our readers will recollect, liberated by the chief justice on the bail of Dan. Brodhead. She was yesterday delivered up, and the Mayor's Court refusing to take Dan Brodhead as her bail, she was committed to prison. Elisha Bowen had also been liberated on the bail of John Henry; when called he did not appear, and a capias was issued against him. The offence of taking insufficient bail is daily growing a grievance.

Yesterday a subpoena was issued in behalf of defendants to require the attendance of the governor of the commonwealth. We presume the law was settled so far as not to compel the attendance of the Chief Magistrate; we refer to the cases of the United States vs Cooper and the United States vs Ogden and Smith.

This day at 11 o'clock, Ann Carson, Jane Baker and John Ryde were brought to the bar and pleaded not guilty. We have not heard any day assigned for their trial.

The Legislature of New Jersey met at Trenton last Tuesday; and on Wednesday Governor Dickenson delivered his message, in which he says, "it is to be deplored that upon the restoration of peace, the imprudence of the merchants in the great commercial cities of the Union, has plunged our country into new distress, by a ruinous importation of European goods, greatly exceeding our means of payment; calculated to embarrass our domestic manufacturing establishments, and to introduce among our citizens a degree of luxury and extravagance, illy suited to our condition or the genius of our government."

Spanish Navy list, for 1816, gives the number of vessels of war, belonging to that nation, at 112—of this number, 4 are of 114 guns—1 of 86—1 of 80—10 of 75—one of 74—2 of 70—3 of 68—1 of 64—1 of 60—1 of 56—1 of 44—1 of 40, (one of them since destroyed at Havana by fire—13 of 38—1 of 36—1 of 24—6 of 20—21 brigs from 10 to 18 guns—and 29 schooners from 1 to 18 do. In addition to the above, several fast sailing American vessels have been purchased at Havana, &c. and taken into service. Most of the ships are in ordinary, and probably will always remain so, as Spain is not in a condition to fit them out, let the necessity be ever so great.

Accounts from Barracoa (Cuba) Port-au-Prince, and Hispaniola, state that the severest gale in the recollection of the oldest inhabitants, visited those places about the 18th and 19th September, doing incalculable damage to the shipping, corps &c.

CAMDEN,

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1816.

The Post Rider that goes to Sumterville from this office, will return by way of Bradford Springs in future, and deposit papers for subscribers in that quarter, at Mr. Pierson's, at the Springs.

South-America.—A considerable portion of this beautiful country is now freed from the Spanish yoke, and is beginning to enjoy the blessings of an independent government; while in other parts a cruel and desolating war still rages. The threatened expedition against Buenos Ayres has changed its destination, and the Portuguese government profess to act strictly neutral.—The province of Venezuela is now the scene of action; and by comparing the different accounts of the late operations of the two hostile parties, we are led to believe that the Patriot cause is reviving; and that they will at length drive their enemies from the land of their birth.

A very considerable engagement took place on the 5th of September, in which the Spanish Col. Lopez was completely beaten, and it was expected would be cut off from the main body of the army, and either taken or destroyed. The news of his defeat was communicated to the governor, at Barcelona, who immediately evacuated the town, together with the principal inhabitants, who were attached to the royal cause. So precipitate was their retreat that their wearing apparel and all their valuable articles were left behind, which fell into the hands of the conquerors. This event occasioned great alarm at Laguna and Curacoa, where the governor and his distressed party had fled to.

The Patriots were commanded by Gen. M'Gregor, whom the royalists falsely stated to have been killed on the 2d of August.

Gen. Morales, with the main body of the royal army was at Cumana.

A person lately broke into a store in New-York, and after plundering it of considerable money and other property, left the following lines in a large Iron chest in the store.

"I have taken about 60 dollars in money, a check of a 1000 dollars, and some linen, but your papers are all safe. Be prudent and don't publish this if you regard the safety of your store.

ABAELLINO."

When retreating with his booty, he was seen from an opposite window, but fortunately made his escape. He was a well dressed man of genteel appearance.

Boston, October 26.

A gentleman who left East port the 19th inst. informs us that the late report of a battle near that place, between some American fishermen and the British is quite incorrect. The facts, he says were, that the British Cutter did order the fishing-boats off, and they retired accordingly without resistance. Nothing further had transpired on the subject; and it is believed the story of the battle is groundless.

GENERAL JACKSON

Reached his house in Nashville last from the Indian country—his arrival was announced by a federal salute, from a brass six pounder, fired by the citizens of the town. We are much gratified in being able to state that the general succeeded to the utmost in what was expected from him. The Chickasaws and Cherokees have formally relinquished all claims to the land in the big bend of Tennessee and in the lines supposed to include the cession made by the Creeks.

The King of Hayti has ordered a monument to be erected at Cape Henry on the place d'Armes, dedicated to Liberty and Independence. The Declaration of Independence of Jan 1, 1804, is to be inscribed thereon, with the names of all the signers, except those who have since proved traitors. Every year, on Independent Day, an Eclogium on those who have died in defence of the country is to be pronounced at the foot of the monument.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT.

Extract of a letter to a respectable Commercial house in Norfolk, dated

St. BARTHOLOMEWS, Sept 23.

Recent accounts received here from the Main, state, that the Patriots are rallying again under a general Smith—that Sir Gregory M'Giegor who succeeded Bolivar in the command of the Patriot forces, and Gen. Morales, are both killed; the Royal troops COMPLETELY BEATEN and many of them have joined the standard of the Patriots.

Obituary.

DIED on the morning of the 11th inst. Mrs BROWN, of this place, who had been long affected with a pulmonary complaint which she bore with patient resignation.—Were it our province we could dwell with rapture upon the many amiable qualities of this justly admired female personage; but her well known character requires not the assistance of eulogy. Her deportment, benignity, and general worth will be recollected as long as the name of Mrs. Brown shall be remembered.

—, on the afternoon of the 11th Mr. KINCHEN CHEVES of this place. Mr. Cheves has left several relatives and many friends, to bewail his loss. His modesty, which indicated the amiableness of his disposition, may have concealed his worth from those whose cloudy vision enabled them to judge only from the exterior; but those by whom he was better known, knew how to appreciate his worth, and will long deplore his loss.

This unfortunate young man was visited by a disease of the greatest malignity, under the deceptive garb of a bilious remittent. It personated that complaint precisely for the 3 first days, and then disclosed itself in the character of our late epidemic, varying but little in point of symptoms.

COMMUNICATED.

DIED in Clarendon, much and deservedly lamented, Mrs. ELIZA WILLETT the amiable and affectionate consort of John S. Willett, who departed this life on the 16th of October last, in the 28th year of her age.

Resigned to the will of Him who "chaseth all those whom he receiveth," she patiently endured the most excruciating sufferings, incident to the disease which afflicted her; and without a murmur submitting to the dispensations of that Providence, in whom she confidently placed her hopes, as the rock of salvation, her soul to kits flight to him who gave it, awaiting the joyful resurrection of the just made perfect when.

"Heaven's ever-lasting Portals open wide"
"And bid the pure in heart to see their God."
"Sweet peace, and heavenly hope, and humble joy,"
"Divinely beam on thine exalted soul."
