The Subscribers

RESPECTFULLY inform their friends and the Public that they have commenced the FACTORAGE and COMMISSION BUSINESS, and will endeavor carefully to attend to the interests of those who may be pleased to employ them. Their counting house is on Dunkin's wharf. J. S. MURRAY & Co. Charleston, Nov. 16, 1816.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the subscribers, on Beaver Creek, his two Negro women GRACE and SARAH, both well known in Camden, where it is supposed they are secreted. Sarah is a stout fat likely wench about 35 years old, and Grace is a slim thick lip girl, about 21 or 22 years of age, rather dark complexion. Ten Dollars will be given to any person who will return either of the said wenches, or Twenty Dollars for both, with all reasonable expenses, or to the person who will lodge them in any jail in this state, and give information to the subscriber, or to the printer of the Camden Gazette, so that they may be recovered.

JOHN HUGHSON,
Beaver Creek, Feb. 21, 1817.

ENTERTAINMENT

In Salisbury N. Carolina.

THE Subscriber respectfully inform, his friends and the public, that he continues to keep ENTERTAINMENT in the same house which he occupied the last year, (under the firm of Thompson & Laugh-ter). He takes this opportunity to return his sincere thanks for the distinguished encouragement which he has met with, since his commencement in public business; and, to assure his friends, that every exertion will be made on his part, to retain their high approbation. His house is improved and enlarged, his servants more numerous and better drilled than heretofore; and all his arrangements on a more extensive scale. His table will be always well supplied with the best viands the country can afford, and his cellar well stored with liquors.

His stable (so celebrated for the splendor of the building) is always bountifully stored with provender of every description, and attended by expert and faithful hostlers.

WILLIAM H. SLAUGHTER,
January 30, 1817.

FOR SALE.

THE Subscribers have just received from the ARABAT Manufactory, a quantity of SPUN YARN, deemed of a superior quality, from No. 4 to 9 & a half, which they are selling very low for cash only.
