Volume II.

TERMS:

The price to Subscribers is $3 per annum exclusive of postage; and in all cases where papers shall be delivered at the expense of the Publisher, the price will be $3 50 per year, to be paid six months after subscribing. It is expected, however, that subscribers living at a distance, from the inconvenience of collection, will pay in advance.

Terms of advertising in this GAZETTE. Advertisements not exceeding eight lines will be printed for FIVE CENTS, for the first publication, and half that price for every subsequent insertion. Larger advertisements will be charged in proportion.

A liberal discount will be made on the bills of those who are constant or considerable customers in this line.

If no directions are given with an advertisement, it will be continued till forbid.

A FREE Woman of Colour would be willing to engage herself to any person, as a nurse, and would be willing to travel in that capacity with any person going to the Northward to spend the summer.—Enquire of the Printer.
April 24, 1817.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

THE above sum will be paid to any person who will deliver JERRY, to the Subscriber, and sufficient proof of his having been harboured by a white person or TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS, with all reasonable expenses, for his delivery to me, or lodging him in any jail of this state. Jerry ran away on the 20th February, and on the 22d of March was taken up at Dubose's Ferry, on Lynchies Creek, but made his escape; he then attempted to pass himself as a freeman, and produced a forged certificate to that effect; he had changed his name to that of JAMES DAVIS, and said he was on his way to Wilmington, North Carolina, and was then to be employed in a cotton factory, having served some time in one. Jerry is about 35 years old; 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, thick and well made, of a light complexion for a negro, a smiling countenance, and looks downward when spoken to, though very civil and plausible. He speaks much about cotton factories, and of being a great mechanic. He had on, when he ran away, a drab coloured frock coat, corduroy pantaloons, and homespun coat. He may change his dress as he had other clothes with him, tied up in a red checked handkerchief, he has been seen with a watch and a quantity of money. At Dubose's Ferry his pass was taken from him, but he no doubt will return and obtain another from the same source he got the first, and again change his name.
W. MAYRANT.
Stateburg, S. C. April 4, 1817.

20 DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY on the 24th ult. a negro man named GEORGE, about 20 years of age, stout made, with broad shoulders, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, thick lips, but otherwise very good looking in the face, very plausible and artful. As he was purchased of Mr. Samuel Hunter, of Gifford county, North Carolina, it is probable he will endeavour to get back. The above reward will be paid on his being delivered to me in Camden.
LEWIS CIPLES.
April 24, 1817.

Ten Dollars Reward.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber on the 14th February last, a dark complected Negro man named DICK, about five feet eight or nine inches high, and about thirty years old, with a scar on one side of his neck, and is a carpenter by trade; was brought from Halifax, N. C. about eleven years ago, by a Mr. Hopkins, and sold to the subscriber in this place.—Any person who will bring him to the subscriber, or confine him in any jail, shall receive the above reward and all necessary expenses.
