Fifty Dollars Reward.

THE above sum will be paid to any person who will deliver JERRY, to the Subscriber, and sufficient proof of his having been harboured by a white person or TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS, with all reasonable expenses, for his delivery to me, or lodging him in any jail of this state. Jerry ran away on the 20th February, and on the 22d of March was taken up at Dubose's Ferry, on Lynches Creek, but made his escape; he then attempted to pass himself as a freeman, and produced a forged certificate to that effect; he had changed his name to that of JAMES DAVIS, and said he was on his way to Wilmington, North-Carolina, and was then to be employed in a cotton factory, having served some time in one. Jerry is about 35 years old, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, thick and well made, of a light complexion for a negro, a smiling countenance, and looks downward when spoken to, though very civil and plausible. He speaks much about cotton factories, and of being a great mechanic. He had on, when he ran away, a drab coloured frock coat, corduroy pantaloons, and homespun coats. He may change his dress as he had other clothes with him, tied up in a red checked handkerchief, he has been seen with a watch and a quantity of money. At Dubose's Ferry his pass was taken from him, but he no doubt will return and obtain another from the same source he got the first, and again change his name.
