

CAMDEN GAZETTE.

PRINTED BY GEORGE W. B. HARRY, FOR THE PROPRIETORS.

TERMS.

The price to Subscribers is $3 per annum in advance; and in all cases where papers shall be delivered at the expense of the publisher, the price will be $5 50 per year, to be paid six months after subscribing. It is expected, however, that subscribers living at a distance, from the inconvenience of collection, will pay in advance.

Terms of advertising in this GAZETTE. Advertisements not exceeding eight lines will be printed for FIFTY CENTS, for the first publication, and half that price for every subsequent insertion. Larger advertisements will be charged in proportion.

A liberal discount will be made on the bills of those who are constant or considerable customers in this line.

If no directions are given with an advertisement, it will be continued till forbid.

Wholesale Prices Current.

ENTERTAINMENT.

The Subscriber respectfully informs his friends and the public, that he continues to keep ENTERTAINMENT in the same house which he occupied the last year (under the firm of YERGEN & Slaughter). He takes this opportunity to return his most grateful thanks for the distinguished encouragement which he has met with since his commencement in public business; and to assure his friends, that every exertion will be made on his part, to obtain their high approbation. His house improved and enlarged, his servants more numerous and better drilled than heretofore; & all his arrangements on a more extensive scale. His table will be always well supplied with the best viands the country can afford, and his cellar well stored with liquors.

His stable (so celebrated for the splendor of the building) is always bountifully stored with provender of every description, and attended by expert and faithful hostlers.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

STRAYED from the subscriber about the middle of April last, a LARGE SORREL HORSE, with white face and Legs and a white spot on the Belly. Said horse may be distinguished beyond doubt by his mouth, where some of his upper teeth are missing. The above reward will be paid to any person who will deliver the Horse above described to the subscriber on Black River in Sumter District, or to JOHN CARTER in Camden.
WILLIAM CARTER,
June 23 64—f

15 DOLLARS REWARD.

RANAWAY from the subscriber on Sunday evening last, his negro fellow named JACOB, about 40 years old, upwards of five feet high, spare made, with most of his foreteeth out. Had on when he went away a pale blue mixed coat brown pantaloons, very much worn. Jacob is well known in Columbia, where he resided last winter in the care of one Mr. Brown. He formerly lived near Saffabury, N. C. and probably may have taken that direction. He was purchased of one Richmond Pierson, in Roan County.
Any person who will lodge him in any jail, and give information so that the subscriber gets him, shall receive the above reward with all reasonable expences. Any information left with the Printer of this Gazette will be received.

COMMITTED

TO the Gaol of Kershaw District, on the 10th of July into a Negro Fellow, who says his name is PRINCE COMMINS, and passes for a free person. He says his master's name was Tom Commins, and dwelt in Charleston, South-Carolina, whilst living. The papers he exhibited to evidence his freedom purport to be drawn in Augusta, Georgia, though he says they were drawn in Savannah, in the same state, sometimes he says they were drawn in various other places; but tells many different stories about them. His complexion is very black indeed, has one tooth out in front, the others very far apart, and is about five feet six or seven inches high, well made and stout; he appears to be between 30 and 40 years of age.
The owner is requested to come forward, prove property, pay charges and take away the negro.
