114—15

Notice.

This is to forewarn all persons from trading for 2 Notes of Hand given by me, to WILLIAM WIER, one for forty dollars, and the other for ten, payable on the first day of January next.

The said WILLIAM WIER, having sold me a horse in the month of March last, for which I was to give him 60 dollars, 20 of which was cash, and my Note for forty. And on the fifteenth of May last, he came to my house and brought another horse, which he exchanged for the one that I first bought of him; by giving my Note for ten dollars to boot. And on the 20th of May, at night, the said WILLIAM WIER came to my Plantation, and stole the said horse, which he carried about seven miles from my Plantation, where he killed him by cutting his throat, and then endeavored to make his escape, but has been taken and lodged in Camden Gaol.

And therefore, this is to give notice, that I am determined never to pay the above mentioned Notes until compelled by Law.

William Clyburn.
